End Of 1st Semester: is tomorrow. There is a half day of school tomorrow to allow teachers time to enter their grades into Skyward.

Yearbooks: Just a reminder that the yearbook price will go up at the beginning of February (which is next week), so purchase your yearbook soon to avoid paying extra. The current price is $60 and you can pay online through your parent’s family access account or bring exact cash or check to the office.

Tech Center: If you are interested in attending the Tech Center next year in Wenatchee, you can start applying February 1, 2023. These classes fill up fast so you don’t want to wait to apply. If you have questions see Ms. Schafer in the Career Center.

Attention Students: Please return all library books checked out this Semester, to Mrs. Willett in the library, by tomorrow (Friday).

911 Driving School: If you are interested in taking the Driver’s Education course through the 911 Driving School, you need to register online. The next class begins on Monday, February 27th. There is a link to their website on the high school webpage under “Featured Information”. Classes are limited to 15 students, so register soon to guarantee your spot in the class.

Attention Snowmobilers and Back Country Skiers/Snowboarders: Free Avalanche Awareness Course from the Northwest Avalanche Center. NWAC instructors will explain how to access avalanche and mountain weather forecasts and recognize basic signs of avalanche danger. If you are interested in attending, it will be this Monday, January 30th from 6:00 – 7:30 PM at the Ski Hill Lodge. If you are interested, come to the office to get a link to register. This is a free event, but you must register online prior to the event.
