TO A DOG TOOTH VIOLET

Thou art a blessing, thou dog violet,
Thou dost not bite, th'art a pet;
Thou comest early in the spring,
And to all the earth glad tidings bring;
Like a monarch, straight and still
Thou stand'st upon the stately hill
With thy crown of purest gold.
Thy face towards heaven thou dost hold;
Thy sceptre green is in thy hand,
O, flower fairest in the land;
Betimes thou comest through the snow,
O, treasure, thou settest my thoughts aglow;
My thoughts of thee will never cease,
For thou art Nature's masterpiece.

Allan Osborne

Editor's note: The Dog Tooth Violet, often called the Pine Lily, is the school flower.

The Best Things of Life Are Free

How oft have you long'd for the treasures you see,
Wish'd you could call them your own;
Forgotten the best things of life are free,
Sweetest treasures the world has known?

You can't buy the sunshine at midnight;
You can't buy the moonlight at dawn;
You can't buy your youth, when you've grown old,
Nor life when your heart-beat is gone;
You can't buy the love of a mother,
Nor childhood again at her knee;--
Although you may hold earth's silver and gold,
The best things of life are free.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE TO SENIORS

Alis Votare Propiis—which is to say, "Fly with your own wings."

Greek mythology tells of Daedalus and his son, Icarus, who sought to escape from the Cretan labyrinth by means of artificial wings. Icarus flew too near the sun. The wax of his wings melted. Icarus fell into the sea and was drowned. Artificial wings will not see you through.

Develop your own powers. You have powers. Search out your own inner resources. They are there to stand you in stead. Achievement not defeat is your heritage. Claim your heritage. Deep in your lives is a spiritual nature. Recognize it; nourish it; heed its influence.

As young citizens of a great liberty loving nation you are among the most enviable young people on the earth today. Further educational opportunities are yours for the taking. The social order is vibrant with a material progress that challenges and invites youthful effort, enthusiasm, and thought. Modern life has problems in whose solution you will have a part. Think clearly, conscientiously, and act justly.

A goal, a purpose, a will to achieve,—These will not prove wings of wax. Develop your powers; you have powers.

We hope for you success and happiness. We hope for you lives that shall count in worthy effort and in service.

AMA D. VAN TASSILL
CLASS PROPHECY

I gaze into the crystal ball and command the spirits to present the future of the great class of "39." Slowly an image appears, hazy at first, but gradually it becomes clear, and there before my eyes are presented the lives of these people in the year 1965.

There I see Bill Benedict, who is now employed as chief mechanic in "Ye Old Kittle-Car Shop" in New York City. His new addition to the free-wheeling model is the streamlined rumble seat job. As "Ye Old Kittle-Car Shop" fades from view another image takes its place.

I see Alvin Boggs, now head artist for "Headhunter's Weekly" in Africa. He says African business is definitely on the up-trend.

This scene is replaced by a vision of Charlotte Buzard who is now the superintendent of a kindergarten for undernourished children.

The scene changes and we see a cozy little kitchen with Charlotte Britton as the ideal housewife. P. S. She has housemaid's knees, though.

Don Morz has dyed his blonde tresses red and is star for the All-American Red Heads.

We see Bob Martin, who has recently taken the roll formerly played by Johnny Weissmuller, in a scene from "Tarzan's Retreat." Bob, dangerously affected by altitude, was forced to conquer height by swinging on chandeliers—but Tarzan conquers all.

Julius Burger has just finished a theory on "getting A's without strain on the gray matter."

Russell Love now has a seat in the "House of Representatives" and has just passed a bill on "Fur-lined ear-muffs for those who don't want to participate."

Amid gobs and more gobs, who should we see but Jim Fromm swabbing the deck! Once a gob, always a gob!

Amid the beat of tom-toms we see Dorothy Osborn who is Queen of the Pygmies. She is well protected by her faithful warriors who stand nigh on to three feet high.

Under a balcony stands Keith Vincent, serenading America's Number 1 Jitterbug.

I hear the soft strains of the bridal march and two people slowly march to the altar. I recognize the bride as none other than our own La Verne Tritle, who is marrying New York's richest playboy.

Joy Brownlow has been taking vocal lessons and has recently joined Dad White and his boys as featured vocalist.

The scene changes and we see the new world's champion girl boxer climbing through the ropes at Madison Square Garden. The champion? SLUGGER WAGONER!

Sylvester Solga is now in a business of his own, manufacturing a new and different perfumed hair tonic. Sylvester says, "It really gets 'em, boys."

Sam Pflugrath is a professional dancer now playing at Minsky's in New York.

Curtis Rutherford is secretary-treasurer for the Tennessee Corn Squeezing Still.

Lois Newell won a medal at a "Silence is Golden Contest."

Velma Squire is now President of the Ladies' Aid in the prospering little community of Plain.

Bill Weaver is Student Body President at Vassar College for women. Not bad, eh?

Leon Gaff is running a date bureau for Jack Jellison, Bill Benedict, and Clarence Nelson.

Doris Wittig is another example of the perfect housewife. P. S. No housemaid's knees. She uses Ivory Soap.

Lester Terry is head architect for a large concern and recently designed the plans for Morrow's hay silo.

Helen Thorburn is now doing well in the "Stamps" business.

Betty Knowlton has opened a Missing Persons Bureau. It was started to find Jeanno Van Brocklin, who wandered away five years ago after contracting amnesia.

Jeanno Van Brocklin just doesn't remember.

Jess Pendleton is head trapper for a large concern. His biggest "catch" has been a very bad cold.

Betty Harris is playing trumpet for Kay Keyser. That triple tonguing has me puzzled.

Ervin Shelton is compiling a new dictionary. It is a WEBSTER—SHELTON combination.

This company chose Mary Burris as president, Bill Weaver as vice-president, and Curtis Rutherford as secretary-treasurer. Mr. McClintock and Miss Nuttall were advisers.

Class activities for the year included a Washington’s Birthday program before the assembly, a party held jointly with the Sophomore Class in the gymnasium, a scavenger hunt held during the early spring, and a picnic at Tumwater Camp Grounds on May 22.

When school reconvened in the fall of 1936, Isobel Connan, Pearl Frank, Goldie Kerr, Albert Lindberg, Craig Lyon, Susie Moore, Fern Morris, and Lloyd Morris had dropped. New faces seen were those of Harriet Avery, Gene Cleven, Hugh Dodge, Norman Douglas, Donna Lumsden, Bill Paine, and Erwin Shelton.

For this, their sophomore year, the class chose Bill Weaver as president, Dorothy Osborn as vice-president, Mary Burris as secretary-treasurer. Mr. Janeway served as adviser.

As sophomores, the class gave an Armistice Day program on November 11, 1936. On January 12, the class held a joint party with the freshmen in the gymnasium. The spring picnic, held at the Tumwater Camp Grounds, took place on May 21, 1937, and the class had completed another year of their school experience.

Vacations have a way of ending, and we all filed back to LHS in the fall; that is, all except Buford Blankenship, Patricia Brender, Gene Cleven, Norman Douglas, Donna Lumsden, Delbert Morgan, and Eola Parsley, who had dropped. New arrivals were Marie Benner, Dorothy Hartgraves, Eugene Hartgraves, Kay Keysor, Russell Love, Frances Lowery, Lois Newell, and La Verne Tritle.
This up-and-coming junior class re-elected Bill Weaver to its presidency. Bill Benedict was chosen vice-president, and Beverly Harris served as secretary-treasurer. The class adviser was Mr. Bradford.

On November 24, the juniors presented a Thanksgiving program before the assembly. The class held a ski party at the Ski Hut, February 17, 1938. On April 1, the class presented the mystery play "The Devil's Eye," the success of which assured the Juniors and Seniors of a grand picnic which was held at Lake Wenatchee on May 21.

When the roll was called again in September of 1938, it was disclosed that Marie Benner, Charles W. Bruce, Hugh Dodge, Dorothy Hartgraves, Eugene Hartgraves, Harry Howerton, Kay Keyser, Frances Lowery, Virginia Lyon, Bill Paine, and Ruth Thornbruc had dropped. Vera Munson and Lillian McKenzie withdrew during the year to be married. There was one new arrival to the class, Charlotte Britton.

The Seniors re-elected Bill Weaver to the position of president. Doris Wittig was chosen vice-president, and Curtis Rutherford became secretary-treasurer. Mr. Gedney became class advisor.

On December 1, 1938, the seniors presented for their class play the hilarious comedy "Calm Yourself." The class also gave a Christmas program for the assembly on December 21.

During the winter the seniors had a ski hut party at which skiing, dancing, tobogaming, chess, checkers, and Chinese checkers furnished amusement and hamburgers and coffee furnished refreshment.

Friday, May 5, the seniors "sneaked" off to Lake Chelan for a boat ride, picnic, and a visit to Holden Mine, returning in time for the Junior-Senior Prom the same evening.

The first baccalaureate service in several years was arranged by this year's Senior Class, the Reverend Erling Bergan of the Community Church preaching the sermon and the Reverend Graves of the Pentecostal Church assisting. The service took place at the Community Church on Sunday evening, May 21.

Traditional "Class Day" exercises occurred on Wednesday, May 24, including reading of the class history, will, and prophecy, and presentation of the time-honored loving cup to the president of next year's Senior Class.

Chaplain Peterson of Cashmere was the principal speaker at the Commencement exercises in the gymnasium on Friday evening, May 26, with Mrs. Peterson, a number of high school students, and the high school orchestra furnishing musical numbers. With the presentation of the diplomas to the members of the class, dressed in gray caps and gowns, the Class of 1939 became alumni of Leavenworth High School.

In the fall a character party was held by the juniors in the gym. Among the many interesting costumes was that of Alfreda Reasor, who won first prize with a dress of the gay nineties. Fruit salad, crackers, cocoa, and marshmallows were served after an evening of games.

The class presented for the Thanksgiving assembly program the playlet "Wanted--a Turkey" in which six junior girls took part. Six boys and six girls sang Thanksgiving songs, and Mr. Hanley led the assembly in community singing.

Early in February the Ski Hut was the scene of the class's annual winter party. Skiing, dancing, checkers, and chess furnished entertainment, and chili and crackers were served.

The class took an active part in all the intramural contests. At the time of writing the final result is not known, but the juniors have led the classes throughout the year.

"The House of the Whispering Pines" was presented on Thursday, April 20. Directed by Miss Janet Duncan, this year's junior play was a "screaming" success.

The juniors sponsored the Junior-Senior Picnic held at Lake Wenatchee, Saturday, May 13.
Sophomore Class

President.................................................. Jack Horey
Vice-President............................................. Allan Osborne
Secretary-Treasurer........................................ Stella Duffey

In the latter part of October the Sophomore Class had a party in the gym. After playing basketball, volleyball, "doggem" ball, and the Prince's Hat, the sophomores were served sandwiches, cake, and cocoa.

The party which the sophomores owed the freshmen as a result of the Voice subscription campaign was given on February 16 in the gym.

Irene Solga and Allan Osborne were elected to represent the sophomores at the Askit-Basket program on March 31. The sophomores won the contest, with Irene Solga winning the highest individual number of points.

Alfred Buchanan and Harvey Mitschke won the chess and checkers tournaments for their class. The sophomores' volleyball team also won two games during the season, placing the sophomores and freshmen in a tie in the intramural sports contest.

The annual spring picnic of the Sophomore Class was held at the Tumwater Recreation Park on May 10, 1939. Ball games were enjoyed during the afternoon and evening, and many tried the swings and teeter-totters. The picnic supper included wiener and beans, marshmallows, potato salad, ice cream, and pop.

Freshman Class

President.................................................. Hubert Kinney
Vice-President............................................. La Verne Detillion
Secretary-Treasurer........................................ Emma Pendleton

The Freshmen Class of 1938-39 began the year by defeating the sophomores in the annual Voice subscription contest, which is always of great interest to all classes.

A masquerade party was held in the gym October 28, the costumes including Spanish boys, farmers, and colonial women. Everyone was masked, and those not costumed wore slacks and play outfits. Indoor sports were enjoyed, and at refreshment time the boys drew girls' names, ate with them, and escorted them home after the party.

As a reward to the freshmen for winning the Voice contest, they were entertained by the sophomores at a joint party on February 16. Following a program of sports, the guests were served jello, cake, and cocoa.

Emma Pendleton and Hubert Kinney represented the Freshman Class in the all-school Askit Basket program, March 31. They won third place for their class.

LEAVENWORTH

Leavenworth, my Leavenworth,
Where the sun shines when it rains.
And the laughing showers of the midday hours.
Glare on my window pane.

Leavenworth, my Leavenworth,
The place of joy and peace,
Where winter sports are the best of sorts,
And laughter cannot cease.

Leavenworth, my Leavenworth,
It's the place I long to stay,
The only place of constant rest
In this restless world today!

THE LECAPI

Late in March a group of interested students under the direction of a number of faculty members arranged to resume publication of the "Lecapi" after a lapse of several years. Various business houses in Spokane, Seattle, and Wenatchee were interviewed, and it was found that the only kind of annual that could be published at a reasonable price without advertising would be one with mimeographed text and off-set pictures.

The staff was organized to include all who wished to take part. The editor-in-chief and associate editor were nominated by vote of the staff and approved by the student council. Department heads were selected by the two editors.

THE VOICE

Dorothy Osborn served as editor of the Voice until the middle of the year, when she was forced to resign because of lack of time. During the latter part of the year the Voice was published by a small staff working without a permanent editor. Its membership included Charlotte Buzard, Irene Soliga, Theda Richardson, Peggy Folsom, Ruth Connor, Helen Stroup, Emily Heath, Irene Koeck, Alfreda Reesor, Shirley Autrieth, Allan Osborne, Louis Waters, Kenneth Colvin, Patty Allis, Lila Hodgson, Joy Brownlow.

From time to time during the year the Voice staff was assisted in the typing and stenciling of the paper by Laurence Field, Betty Jo Allis, Virgil Ward, and Dolores Long.
Girls' Club

The Girls' Club was organized at the beginning of the year under the direction of Miss Ruth Hine. Miss Janet Duncan replaced Miss Hine as adviser, when she was forced to resign because of illness in October.
The following officers were elected for the school year:
Dorothy Osborn .................. President
Alfreda Reasor ................. Vice-President
Lois Love ...................... Secretary-Treasurer

The heads of the various committees were Club Room Chairman, Peggy Folsom, and Program Chairman, Juanita Wagoner.
This year the girls' aim has been to improve the Girls' Club Room, which has been under the supervision of Miss Duncan. They have developed a monitor system which has worked out very successfully.

On March 17, 1939, the girls gave a birthday party for the Club Room. Each girl brought a gift, and after opening them, Lois Love very graciously thanked the girls for all the useful gifts that were presented for use in the Club Room. Ice cream and cake were served to all the girls by the cabinet members in the Home Economics Room.

On March 25, Miss Duncan, Peggy Folsom, Alfreda Reasor, and Lois Love, attended the Conference which was held at Ellensburg in the interest of the Girls' Clubs. Each girl went to different classes, and all brought back information that will be helpful in making the Girls' Club a bigger and better organization.

April 12, the Girls' Club elected Doris Wittig to represent the club at the Conference in Pullman. Doris withdrew and Helen Stroup was later chosen as the Girls' Club delegate.

Boys' Club

The Boys' Club was reorganized in September with Mr. McClintock as adviser. Officers were:
Sylvester Solga .......... President
Don Merz ................. Vice-President
Eugene Kollams .............. Secretary

Regular meetings were held at intervals of two weeks, the chief activity of the club being the sponsoring and regulation of the intramural sports contests.
Bill Weaver was elected to go to Pullman as the boys' delegate to the annual high school conference at Washington State College.
Officers elected at the May meeting to serve for 1939-1940 include Joe Jeske, president; Jack Horoy, vice-president; and Hubert Kinney, secretary-treasurer.
PROGRAM COMMITTEE

The program committee for this year has been very successful in planning all of the assembly programs and arranging the dates for all programs, class, and club meetings. This year the assembly programs have shown a great variety in arrangement. We have featured debate teams, plays, all school singing, and a number of well-known speakers which have helped to amuse as well as to educate and instruct. Regular patriotic observances have enabled the program committee to help the advancement of Americanism in the school.

DEBATE CLUB IN THREE PROGRAMS

Student interest in debate culminated in the formation early this spring of a debate club, which carried out a very successful program under Mr. Autrieth's direction.

The debate group took part in three programs, discussing the question "Shall we adopt a measure which would require a popular vote before the United States could participate in a war except in the case of foreign attack upon any nation in the Western Hemisphere?"

The following ten students participated in a panel discussion before the high school assembly on March 24th: Bob Chase, Bill Benedict, Shirley Autrieth, Delbert Brunton, Clarence Campbell, Louis Waters, Ervin Shelton, Russell Love, and Joe Robertson.

Friday, April 15, four students from Peshastin High School met with four students from Leavenworth in a non-decision debate before the assembly. Leavenworth students who took part were Bob Chase, Shirley Autrieth, Russell Love, and Bill Benedict.

The last debate was a formal one. The affirmative team was made up of Bob Chase, captain; Dan Costello, Bill Benedict; Delbert Brunton. Those on the negative side were Russell Love, captain; Allan Osborne, Ben Costello, Shirley Autrieth. This program was presented before the May P.T.A. meeting, the judges deciding in favor of the negative.

It is planned to have a more complete organization next year and to enter a team in the interscholastic debates of the area. Since only two of those who took part in the debate programs this year will be graduated, it is expected that much good material will be available for the coming year when a very successful program is anticipated.
L.H.S. BOASTS SPLENDID ORCHESTRA

At the beginning of the first term Mr. Hanley organized a violin ensemble which was to be called the "Singing Strings." Gradually he added wind instruments, drums, and a guitar until it became an orchestra.

The orchestra has played several times during the school year, mainly for school events. Many numbers were played for high school assembly programs; the orchestra also played for the junior play, the junior-senior dance, the Girls' Club dance, and for Commencement.

The orchestra now contains four violins, three trumpets, two clarinets, one saxophone, drums, a guitar, a tuba, and a piano.

Members are Eugene Rumpell, drums; Owen Watson, tuba; Kenneth Colvin, Hazel Harrison, and Flota McCarty, violins; Bob Chase, saxophone and clarinet; Jack Horey, Oris Hollister; Betty Harris, and for special occasions Mr. Aurieth, trumpets; Marian Dodd, clarinet; Patty Allis, piano; and Mr. Hanley, the director, violin. We all feel that the orchestra has progressed very well this year and hope they will be able to continue as successfully next year.

One outstanding member, Betty Harris, will be lost this year by graduation.

PEP BAND MAKES FINE RECORD

The Leavenworth Pep Band, though organized as late in the school year as December, had a very successful season. Mr. F. B. Aurieth directed the group in its appearances at basketball games, pep rallies, special assembly programs, and the Wenatchee Apple Blossom Festival School Parade.

Members of the 1938-39 Pep Band were trumpets: Oris Hollister, Virgil Brown, Jack Horey, Bob Krollpfeifer, and F. B. Aurieth, director; reed: Marian Dodd, Bob Chase, Richard Larson, Edwin Watson; baritones: Calvin Pflugrath, Otto Hoover; alto: Howard Harvey; bass: Owen Watson; drums: Eugene Rumpell, Patty Allis, Jean Benedict.

All members have enjoyed the band work and look forward to an even bigger and better season for the Pop Band next year.

BOYS' PATROL

In addition to their regular duties of guarding crossings, assisting in loading busses, and policing basketball games and other school gatherings, the Boys' Patrol has accomplished other worthwhile things.

Swimming, boating, and eating were enjoyed by the group at a picnic at Fish Lake last September. Several of the men teachers were in charge.

In February the boys enjoyed a day of skiing at the summit of Stevens Pass, made possible by several service clubs of the valley. At the ski hut the boys were served candy bars and hot chocolate.

Jess Ponderton was unable to attend the initiation, but in view of the fact that he was assistant manager of the team he will be added to the roll of the "L" Club.

In the evening of the initiation day a party was given to the members of the "L" Club by the initiates.

"CUB" CLUB

The "Cub" Club has made a real contribution to the school this year. They have supported athletics and in addition presented two drill teams which have served to build up enthusiasm among the players. The club is an organization for girls who have won letters in the athletic activities of Leavenworth High School. Officers were:

This year the "Cub" Club members were guests of the Peshastin Pop Club on December 14. Club members visited classrooms during the afternoon session and were guests at a dinner in their honor in the evening. On Friday, April 17, the "Cubs" entertained the Peshastin Pop Club at the afternoon session of the school on that day, and after school was dismissed sponsored a picnic at the Golf Course.
Faculty Luncheons

With the faithful help of Mrs. Cowan, the Advanced Home Economic Girls took as their project the serving of luncheons to the faculty members at a minimum of 25 cents per person, which were well balanced, wholesome and attractive meals.

For each luncheon there was a manager whose duty it was to plan the menu and carefully check the costs, to see that the girls kept within the budget allowed. Every girl had a certain duty to perform and it was up to the manager to see that it was done correctly.

With the hearty cooperation of the faculty members the girls were able to save enough above costs to give a luncheon to which their mothers were invited. This luncheon was held on May 2, and ten mothers attended.

Faculty Dinner

The biggest event for the Advanced Home Economics Girls was the annual Faculty Dinner which was given Thursday, May 11, in the Home Economics Laboratory.

The girls arranged a very attractive color scheme, using the spring pastel colors. In the middle of the table the center of attraction was the may pole which was decorated with flowers and butterflies. The other two tables were decorated with tapering candles of pastel colors.

Each guest represented a character taken from the funny paper and that picture was on the program which was used as a place card.

The program consisted of two piano solos, a short play, and a song by six girls with Patty Allis accompanying. Later each guest was asked to imitate the character which he or she represented.

Boys' Home Ec Class Has Full Program

Members of the boys' home ec class served at the annual Sportsmen's Club oyster supper on March 9, 1939 in the Women's Club. Each of the boys earned a dollar for serving and washing dishes.

The group, attired as chefs and under the direction of Mr. Janeway and Mrs. Cowan, participated in the School Apple Blossom Parade at Wenatchee on Friday, April 29.

The class made and served rolls and coffee to the members of the P.T.A. on May 8, 1939.

SKI TOURNAMENT

Leavenworth's Eleventh Annual Ski Tournament and second apple box tournament was held Sunday, January 29.

Because of the lack of snow only the big A hill was used at the tournament. Snow was hauled from the golf course and the high school boys were dismissed in the afternoon in order to help pack the snow onto the hill.

The long jumps of the day were due principally to the fact that the snow was packed onto the hill instead of its being dished out naturally by the weather man. There were twenty-two A jumpers, and every time they leaped from Leavenworth's big hill they tried to break national and international jumping records. Sig Ulland of Lake Tahoe, California, National and Pacific Northwest Champion, thrilled many fans of the day by his record-breaking jump of 249 feet, only to have it broken a few hours later by Alf Engen of Pig Pines, California, who jumped 252 feet.

First honors were taken by Sig followed closely by his brother, Clay Ulland.

PRINCESS LEAVENWORTH

Dorothy Osborn, a senior, was elected Princess Leavenworth to represent our community at Wenatchee's Twentieth Annual Blossom Festival April 27, 28, and 29. Dorothy, with the princesses from the other towns, participated in the Queen's Ball, the Washington Golden Jubilee Pageant, the coronation of the Queen, and the parade.

Dorothy's favorite sports are swimming, golf, and skiing. She has been an active student throughout high school and did well in representing Leavenworth at the Festival.

SOPHOMORES WIN CONTEST

Planned on the model of popular radio question and answer programs, a quiz program arranged by Mr. McClintock was presented at the high school Friday afternoon, March 31. Numbers by Mr. Hanley's orchestra filled in the intermissions between the rounds of questions while the judges were tallying scores.

Mr. McClintock was master of ceremonies and did a fine job of it. Contestants had been chosen earlier by a class vote. Senior representatives were Dorothy Osborn and Russell Love. Juniors were Louis Watters and Emily Heath. Irene Solga and Allan Osborne stood for the sophomores and Hubert Kinney and Emma Pendleton for the freshmen.

The winning individual was Irene Solga, sophomore. She and Russell Love were matched at the end of the program in a special contest.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PICNIC

The junior and senior classes of Leavenworth high school held their annual picnic at Cougar Inn, May 13. About 8 o'clock Saturday morning students and members of the faculty were seen boarding the buses, anticipating an exciting day at the lake. One bus left by way of Tumwater and the other by way of Plain, both arriving at Lake Wenatchee about 9 o'clock.

At once, groups including students and faculty members began arranging for the use of boats. At noon after a morning of fun and frolic, a hearty meal of sandwiches, salad, ice cream and cake was served on the lawn by the juniors as hosts.

Then followed an afternoon of more boating, hiking and ball. Then "eats" again and the start for home.

The groups left the lake about 6 o'clock, happy, tired, and sunburned, but marking the day as one of the most joyous of the year.

Faculty members enjoying the occasion with the young people were Mr. Osborn, Mrs. Van Tassell, Mrs. Cowan, Mr. Janoway, Miss Huttall, Miss Duncan, Miss Johnson, Mr. Gedney and Mr. Hanley. Mrs. Autrieth was a guest.

The following day, May 10, the sophomores took their turn having selected the same place for the gathering of their clan. School busses transported the picnic parties from the school to the picnic grounds and brought them back when the fun was over. The classes were accompanied by their respective class advisers, Mr. McClintock going with the freshmen and Mr. Janoway with the sophomores. Other faculty members drove up after school to enjoy a delicious picnic supper and to take part in the informal program of games. "Never had a better time" was each class verdict.

THE WILD AND WOOLLY WEST

I came from olc Montana,
From the wild and woolly West,
Where horses come in handy
And they make ya ride yer best.

Ya gotta learn ta yodel
And to fix the old corral,
Learn to ride wild broncos,
Learn to ride 'em well!

Ya gotta round up dogies
That have strayed so far away,
And learn the songs of cowboys
And sing 'em at endin' of day.

I've learned to do those many things
And I really done my best
To mind the laws of man and beast
Who rule the Golden West.
