Dedication

The LECAPI staff of 1948 has adopted the policy of dedicating this annual to the individual or group doing the most for L. H. S. during the past year.

We feel that the basketball team has brought honor and recognition to our school. The basketball season was significant in the fact that they placed third in the Chelan county tournament and won the coveted sportsmanship trophy. They were entitled to participate in the district tournament at Omak because of their county placement.

We, therefore, dedicate this LECAPI to the basketball team of 1947 and 1948.
GRIZZLY FIGHT SONG

Fight, fight on for victory, Grizzlies,
Come on sink that ball,
We can show 'em what we've got,
When we whip them all.
Rah, rah, rah.
Fight, fight on for victory, Grizzlies,
Fight on to boost our name,
We can do it if we want to,
So by gosh, let's win this game.
(Tune: Wave the Flag)

A Day With the Faculty—Leavenworth Hi

When you enter the large brick building on Evans Street by the south door and climb the stairs, you will find yourself in the lower hall of Leavenworth High School. Classes begin at 8:55 and the day is started.

On your right you will see MR. JOHN L. WYNGARDEN'S office. Three years ago, Mr. Wyngarden moved his desk calendar along with his various other belongings from the principal's office, which he had occupied for two years, across the hall to the superintendent's desk. Besides teaching bookkeeping and economics, his time is spent worrying about teachers and economic problems. MRS. WEST is his very efficient secretary.

As you come into the hall again, there will most likely be a line forming in the office to your left, which MR. C. C. SCOFIELD occupies as principal. Students who have forgotten their absence slips find themselves in this line quite often. On his shoulders falls the responsibility of seeing that the students are kept on the right track. Aside from his mathematics and English classes, he is co-sponsor for the senior class, and advisor for the student council and LECAP. He came here from Nebraska two years ago.

The doors across the hall lead into the home economics department. It is here that MRS. VIRGINIA WILLIAMS will be instructing the future homemakers in the arts of sewing, cooking, and home making. She has been doing this for the past three years. Besides these duties, she has found time to be advisor for both the Girls' Club and freshman class.

MISS MAXINE LANGENFELD, Leavenworth High's petite English teacher, is also to be found off this hall in room five. Here she spends five periods a day teaching English to the freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. She is co-advisor for the sophomore class.

At the west end of the hall, in room six, MISS FLORENCE SCHNACKEL exposes her class to the wonders of the history of our country. Most of her day, however, is spent over in the gymnasium instructing girls' P. E. Since coming here from Iowa last fall Miss Schnackel has been very active organizing G. A. A., Pep Club, and a playday along with acting as co-advisor for the junior class.

It doesn't take much to find the lab and science room—just follow your nose and climb the stairs. You will probably catch MR. W. F. REMBOLD in the middle of an experiment for his chemistry or physics class. Other times he will be explaining the intricacies of formulas and equations to doubtful students in his mathematics classes. This is Mr. Rembold's fourth year here since coming from Florida and Massachusetts.
A Day With the Faculty

MR. LINCOLN MACPHERSON hangs his coat in the science room, where he teaches classes of biology and general science. He also teaches junior high classes part of each day. During his two years here, he has been in charge of the track squad.

As you near the commercial department in the upstairs hall, you wonder how MR. RUSSELL HEALD can stand the "clack-clack" of the typewriters. Besides teaching typing, he has his time well filled with classes of shorthand and world history, not to forget being co-advisor for the sophomore class. Then, with the start of basketball season, his worries began as any coach knows. He came here when he was discharged from the army two years ago. His daughter, Carol Anne, who has seen but one Christmas, is also well known to the students of L. H. S.

Second and third periods are heralded by the arrival of MR. J. TALBOT WEST, junior high school principal. After the "Voice" is published, he can take it easy until two weeks later when it again comes out. Washington history is his other class in the high school. An alumnus of L. H. S., Mr. West taught in Fairbanks, Alaska before coming here to teach three years ago.

MISS FRANCES ROBERTS makes the library her headquarters except for fourth period when she teaches Spanish in room seven in the lower hall. Miss Roberts teaches only in the afternoons and has been here just this year. The student improvement program, which was started this year, has been under her sponsorship.

Except for three P. E. periods over in the gym, MR. BRAD WILLIAMS is at home with the saws and other tools in the shop and mechanical drawing room. His classes this year have all been made up of boys except for an occasional girl in mechanical drawing. He is kept busy after school in the fall and spring coaching the football and baseball teams. This year marks his fourth year of teaching in high school.

The music room, with its music, instruments, and band uniforms, is in the gymnasium building. MRS. ROSAMOND BARGELT, head of the music department, has been a busy person in the two years she has spent here since coming from Fairbanks, Alaska. This year she directed the senior, junior, and one-act plays, and put on an operetta and spring concert. On top of all this, it was mostly through her tireless efforts that the band was organized and outfitted.

With 3:37 comes relief for the teachers until tomorrow when it all begins again. However, it is all in the life of a teacher.

Senior Sneak

At exactly 4:10 a.m. on the morning of May 14, twenty-nine sleepy but determined seniors left Leavenworth on their sneak day trip. Our destination was Seattle which was reached in time for breakfast at the University Commons. After a short tour around the campus, the six carloads were off again to the government locks and the waterfront. The rest of the day was spent at Lake Wilderness where we arrived in time to eat our picnic lunch. Roller skating, boating, swimming, and dancing made it hard for us to want to start home. About 9:00 p.m., however, we felt that we had had a full day and arrived home around 1:30 a.m., tired but happy.
THE VOICE

LEADER OF REFORM GROUP JAILED

Dr. Robert G. Fredrickson was removed to the Pittsburg Ninth Street jail after causing a riot in one of the city's night clubs.

This is the seventh time Dr. Fredrickson has been jailed on charges of disturbing the peace.

Dr. Fredrickson said to his followers, "I will return and try to destroy every place that sells intoxicating beverages. The people must be saved from this demon."

His case comes up before Judge Deryl Brown tomorrow.

SONG TEAM DIVORCED

Velma Silvo divorced Marco Silvo today. However, they will continue to collaborate composing songs. They have written such hits as "So Soon" and "How Far."

Mrs. Silvo's Leavenworth friends knew her as Velma Meister.

NOTED POETESS VISITS

Mrs. Ella Guy Bradshaw, president of the Leavenworth Literary society, had as her house guest last Monday and Tuesday the world famous poetess and lecturer, Shirley Calhoun. Miss Calhoun lectured to the club on the care and feeding of pet snakes.

BROADWAY SHOW TO OPEN

Peggy Hatmaker, famous Leavenworth girl, will soon be seen in the new musical, "Slow Boat," written and produced by the masculine lead, Brice Parsley.

H. S. PRINCIPAL VISITS MIDDLE WEST

Jane Scofield, principal of Leavenworth High School, is visiting relatives in the middle west. She will return two weeks before the beginning of school.

NATIONAL COLOR CHANGE BLOCKED BY FILIBUSTER

The battle for the change of the national colors in Washington has come to an end. Late last week, Congressman Tritle presented his bill for changing the national colors to Congress for passage. Immediately following the reading of the bill, Senator Abbott began his "three day filibuster," thus defeating Congressman Tritle.

SUIT AGAINST COMEDIENNE DROPPED

Leila Brown, popular star of stage, screen, and radio, was recently sued by a rival comedian. He charged her with stealing scenes.

Officials ruled that nothing in their law books declared the theft of scenes illegal. The case was dropped.

PAPER CHANGES HANDS

The "Voice" will be under new management after this issue. The former editor, Jo Anne Garrison, has been offered the editorship of a national magazine. The new editor will be Lorraine Chard.
TIDDLY-WINKS TEAM READY TO GO

Dolores Skelton, coach of the United States champion tidddy-winks team, told newspaper men today that her team will be ready for the Olympic games next spring.

Her star player, Paddy Day, recently injured her finger and will be unable to participate in the coming contest. Alma Bosma, former champion, however, will be on hand to replace the loss of the present champ.

ISSUED NEW STAMP

Postmaster Albert Egbert announces that a new stamp has been issued. It is a two-cent airmail stamp, red in color, with a picture of Lassie on it.

STORM VICTIM HOSPITALIZED

The freak snow and thunder storm which hit Leavenworth at 12:45 last night, did little damage in the vicinity. The only casualty reported was a broken leg suffered by the town librarian, Jacquelin Miller.

ELECTRICIAN FINED

Charged with keeping a barking dog that was a nuisance in the neighborhood, Fred Calhoun was fined $50 yesterday.

The warrant for Calhoun's arrest was signed by nurse Betty Portwood, who claims she needs her sleep at night.

BIG NAME BAND COMING

You’ll be “Swingin’ n a-Rockin’ with Bill Van Brocklin” if you follow the crowds to the IOOF hall Saturday night.

With the band is the talented and melodic Marian Moneysmith.

L. B. L. NEWS

Reverend Harold McKinney, famed for his sermon entitled, "Smoking and its Toll on Your Health," will speak to the members of the Leavenworth Betterment League Sunday.

WEATHER AND WEATHERMAN NOT SO HOT

Hard pressed to keep his batting average up, Frank Pendleton, well known weatherman, struck out again by some 107 degrees. He predicted 77 degrees for this date, but the temperature diverged to a new low of 30 degrees below zero.
Last Will and Testament

In Witness whereof, We, the senior class, have set our hands and seal hereto the twenty-fifth day of May in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight.

—The Senior Class of '48.
Last Will and Testament

We, the senior class of 1948, school of the city of Leavenworth, county of Chelan and state of Washington, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made by us.

ARTICLE I

To the school we will our best wishes and all the "oddments" and undertakings we have left imprinted there.

ARTICLE II

To the teachers we leave our sincere appreciation for their services and the attention they have given us.

To the class of 1949, the juniors, we leave our gratitude for their companionship and the full right to be seniors next year.

To the class of 1950, the sophomores, we leave our quiet manner, brainy remarks and our unequalled class spirit.

To the class of 1951, the poor freshmen, we leave our ability to have class parties, skip class unnoticed, and the answers to all the unanswered questions.

ARTICLE III

I, Alma Bosma, do will my ability to arrive at school early in the morning to Janet King.

I, Bert Abbott, leave my studious ways to Gene Hanson.

I, Leila Brown, do will my irrepressible sense of humor to Ted Parsons.

I, Clarence Allen, leave my height to Bud Kelley.

I, Shirley Calhoun, leave my ability to make baskets in basketball to June Ostella.

I, Deryl Brown, leave my acting ability to coming playcasts.

I, Lorraine Chard, leave—to get married.

I, Courtney Day, do will my only pair of checked glasses to any one who dares to wear them.

I, Fred Calhoun, leave my place in chemistry to some unknowing junior.

I, Pat Dye, leave my ability to talk constantly and my ability to gain information to Daveene Carroll.

I, Charlotte Forntner, leave my serenity to Fayette Myers.

I, Albert Egbert, leave my P. E. and hall locker to Carl Bergren.
Class History

We entered the sixth grade with high spirits and found that Deryl Brown, Shirley and Fred Calhoun had joined our number. The sixth grade held one drawback, however; no recesses. We are still making up for this by playing in classes. The seventh grade found us without Bob Fredrickson, Vern Tittle, Dolores Reece, Brice Parsley, and Leila Brown, but helped make up for it by bringing in Alma Bosma, Marian Monesmith, and Jo Anne Garrison. Eighth grade graduation finally came with honors going to Peggy Hatmaker and Albert Egbert, who were voted the two most popular students.

HIGH SCHOOL! We found ourselves on our own after being properly initiated. Enjoying our newly found rights we promptly elected Marian Monesmith, president; Brice Parsley, vice-president; and Jackie Miller, secretary-treasurer. Dances, the freshman mixer, and the freshman-sophomore party helped relieve the monotony of school work.

With the distinction of being sophomores came our opportunity to show what we had. We came through with three sophomore cheerleaders: Marian Monesmith, Darlene Stebbins and Imogene Moore. We also had two first string basketball players, Vern Tittle and Brice Parsley. Officers for this year turned out to be Leila Brown, president; Bob Fredrickson, vice-president; and Ray O'Brien, secretary-treasurer. The usual events, Tolo, prom, and mothers' tea, kept us well occupied. Newcomers were Bert Abbott, Velma Meister, Delbert Sagaser, Garold McKinney, and Vern Tittle back to try again.

We now reached the station of upperclassmen and took every advantage of it. Officers were Clarence Allen, president; Pat Dye, vice-president; Vern Tittle, secretary-treasurer; and Darlene Stebbins and Bob Fredrickson, council representatives. Showing our social graces, we started the year off with a bang with our costume ball in October, followed by the junior play, 'Hilarity House.' We ushered the seniors out with our Mexican Fiesta prom and banquet. The army, Oregon, Nebraska, Entiat, and Grandview furnished us with five new juniors: Clarence Allen, Betty Portwood, Jane Scofield, Jo Anne Garrison, and Marilyn Roberts. So ended our junior year.

Thirty-four of us started our senior year with the end in sight. Officers were Peggy Hatmaker, president; Garold McKinney, vice-president; Leila Brown, secretary; Velma Meister, treasurer; Lorraine Chard and Delbert Sagaser, council representatives. We found this year to be our most expensive one with our graduation pictures, announcements, and calling cards. The time finally arrived for sneak day, Baccalaureate and Commencement, which marked the end of our high school career. This summary brings you up to date on the class of '48. Class colors, blue and gold. Class motto, "Not at the Top, but Climbing." Class flower, yellow rose.

Class History

Twelve years back in the annals of history, we find seventy-nine six year olds bravely clinging to the first rung of the ladder of knowledge. Only eleven of the seventy-nine: Courtney Day, Pat Dye, Charlotte Fortner, Peggy Hatmaker, Harriet Hoffman, Dolores Skelton, Lois Fortner, Georgena Van Brocklin, Albert Egbert, Frank Pendleton, and Bill Van Brocklin, completed their twelve years here. Lorraine Chard, Jo Anne Garrison, Brice Parsley, and Maxine Harrison joined us in the second grade. In the next three years we acquired Leila Brown and Ella Guy. We lost Jo Anne Garrison, however.

Junior Class

We reached the ranks of upperclassmen with forty-seven students enrolled in our class and elected Bill Love, president; Gene Staley, vice-president; Ethel Bakke, secretary; Carl Bergren, treasurer; Lois Moore and Charles Darling, council representatives. Miss Schnakel and Mr. Rembold made very good class advisors.

The "Halloween Hoedown," our dance held in October, started the year off. Next on our program was the selection of the cast for our play, "Ring Around Elizabeth" which was given March 19. The junior-senior banquet and prom ended the year's activities.

Our class proved to be very generous when it came to money matters as we led in contributions to the March of Dimes, Junior Red Cross, and TB Christmas seals.

Sophomore Class

With fifty-eight students enrolled, we became the largest class in high school for the second year. Frances Wisemore took over the duties of president with the assistance of Bud Kelley, vice-president; Max Scofield, secretary; Jo Ann Burgess, treasurer; Willanne Titus and Kenny MacGregor, council representatives. All of our activities were under the sponsorship of Miss Langenfeld and Mr. Heald.

Even though the Tolo, Mother's Tea, and basketball took up a lot of our time, we still had room for a Leap Year's dance in our calendar of events. This took place on April 6 and was a turn about affair with the girls inviting the boys.

Freshman Class

Initiation at the hands of the seniors brought us into high school. Boys were TOLD to dress like girls and vice versa. When things were straightened out again, we counted and found fifty enrolled. Sheila Murray was elected president; Jack Haugh, vice-president; Ronald Chard, secretary-treasurer; Patricia Boning and Kjell Bakke, council representatives. Mr. and Mrs. Williams received the task of supervising us.

Basketball was one of the highlights of our year with the freshman squad of boys, coached by Brad Williams, playing in the second team games. The girls had their opportunity to play basketball, also, during their gym period and noon hour.

Besides a class party and hike, we sponsored a dance April 23.
ACTIVITIES
Student Council

The student council is made up of four officers elected by the students and a representative from each class and organization in high school. The most important decision the council was called upon to make was the matter of changing school colors. Other matters which came up before it were dates for school dances, concessions at games, and National Assembly programs. Lorraine Chard was the council delegate to the High School Leaders' conference.

Front row—Clarence Allen, president; Ted Parsons, vice-president; Bill Van Brocklin, treasurer; Velma Meister, Lorraine Chard, Patricia Boning, Margaret English, Secretary.

Le cape

The first two letters of the three words, "Leavenworth, Cascade, and Pine," give us the name of our annual which is published by the senior class each year. Breaking the tradition of distributing the annuals before school is out, the class of '48 decided to wait until the middle of the summer thus having a more detailed account of the school year. This annual is, therefore, a complete picture of the events of the past year at L. H. S.

Seated—Betty Portwood, Jackie Miller, Marian Monesmith, Bill Van Brocklin, Marlys Roberts, JoAnne Garrison, Clarence Allen, Brice Parsley, Velma Meister, Jane Scofield, Mr. Scofield, Leila Brown.

"Voice"

The publication of the "Voice" was resumed after a lapse of one year, under the supervision of Mr. J. Talbot West. The paper is printed bi-weekly and is distributed to both the high school and junior high students. A complete coverage of school activities during the preceding two weeks appears in each issue. Editors are JoAnne Garrison, Ted Parsons, and Sheila Gregory.

G. A. A.

This year the Girls' Athletic Association was formed with the supervision of Miss Schnakel, our P. E. instructor. This organization gives the girls a chance to earn a letter by participating in basketball, volleyball, ping pong, skating, skating, and softball. A total of 500 points was required. Officers were elected and a constitution was drawn up providing for a pep club. Definite improvement was seen in the cheering at basketball games as a result of a more organized pep club which also helped raise half the money for the cheer leaders' outfits.

"L" Club

The "L" Club is made up of boys who have earned a letter in one of the four sports: basketball, football, track, or baseball. This year no second team letters were awarded but points were given which will go towards a first team letter. Also no stripes are to be put on sweaters until they have actually been earned, making no covered stripes permissible. A dance was held after the P. T. A. auction.

Third row—Paul Stillwell, Ted Parsons, Monte May, Jack Sweet, Bill Van Brocklin, Delbert Sagaser, Bill Love.
Girls' Club

As each girl enters high school, she automatically becomes a member of the Girls' Club. The Tolo and Mothers' Tea, both sponsored by this group, are two of the social highlights of the year. The girls plan, decorate, and invite the boys to their formal dance, the Tolo. This was held on December 20.

Next on their program was the Mothers' Tea on February 13, to which the mother of each student in high school was invited. After the corsages were presented and a style show given, a short skit in pantomime climaxed the afternoon's activities. Those taking part in the skit, written by Sheila Gregory, were: Thelma Seifert, Marlys Telford, Pat Dye, Pat Wisemore, and Sheila Gregory.

Ethel Bakle was chosen to represent the Girls' Club at the High School Leaders' conference.

Tolo

The annual Girls' Club Tolo got under way on the evening of December 20, with the strains of the theme song, "Winter Wonderland." The gym was appropriately decorated: four "Parson Browns" in the form of large snowmen stood at the corners, a snow bank with huge icicles became the punch stand, a lane of evergreen trees led up to the stage where the throne, a realistic snowball, was placed, and the notes and words to "Winter Wonderland" were written on the walls. Blue strips of crepe paper across the ceiling added the finishing touch to a truly "Winter Wonderland." The picture was complete when Pat Dye and Vern Tittle were crowned Queen Snow White and King Jack Frost by their attendants, Daveene Carroll, Bert Abbott, Audrey Parsley, and Clarence Allen.

Boys' Club

The Boys' Club membership includes all the boys in LHS. The boys are responsible for their club room where their ping pong fans assemble for the tournaments which are sponsored by this group. Jack Benner, president, was their representative at the High School Leaders' conference held on the campus of the University of Washington. Other officers are: Albert Egbert, vice-president; Lavon Slaughter, secretary-treasurer; and Dave Monesmith, council representative.

Senior Play

"You Can’t Take It With You" was the name of the three-act comedy which was produced by the seniors of L. H. S. on November 7 and 8. The play was staged in the middle of the gym floor with the audience surrounding the entire stage setting. This unique style, copied from the Penthouse Theater at the University of Washington, was new to Leavenworth audiences. This comedy under the direction of Mrs. Rosamond Bargelt was centered around the activities of the Sycamore family. Those in the cast were: Bob Fredrickson, Brice Parsley, Bert Abbott, Peggy Hatmaker, Betty Portwood, Bill Van Brocklin, Leila Brown, Vernon Tritle, Albert Egbert, Harriet Hoffman, Shirley Calhoun, Frank Pendleton, Delbert Sagaser, Clarence Allen, Marlys Roberts, Pat Dye, and Deryl Brown. Marian Monesmith and Jane Scofield were student directors.

Junior Play

"Ring Around Elizabeth" was the three-act comedy chosen by the junior class to be presented March 19. The play revolved around Elizabeth Cherry who was portrayed by Ethel Bakke. Other members of the cast were: Jack Benner, Ed Nugent, Thelma Seifert, Beryl Walker, Beverly Cowden, Pat Wisemore, Bill Love, Marlys Telford, Delores Allen and Gene Staley. Patricia Stegeman and Gloria Sagaser assisted Mrs. Bargelt in directing the play.

One-Act Play

"Life With Mother" was the play which was picked to represent Leavenworth in the annual drama festival in Wenatchee. The cast included Lorraine Chard, Charlotte Fortner, Jackie Miller, and Courtney Day. This play was also directed by Mrs. Bargelt and assisting her was Velma Meister and Georgena Van Brocklin. The play was presented to the Leavenworth student body and Wenatchee audience.

Debate

Resolved: "That we should change school colors." This was the issue involved. The affirmative speakers were: Vernon Tritle, Naoma Stage, Sheila Gregory, and Fayette Myers. The negative speakers were: Bert Abbott, Charles Darling, Janet King, and Beverly Ryab. These debaters presented their views before the student body with Clarence Allen, student body president, as chairman. As a result of this debate and further discussion, school colors were changed from orange and black to red and black.
Band

Glee Club

Not in picture—Jim Bradshaw, Allan Six, Clair Egbert, Jack Sweet, JoAnne Garrison, Courtney Day, Gloria Sagaser, Pat Wisemore, Patricia Stegeman.

"Pickles"

On the nights of December 12 and 13, Leavenworth was provided with musical entertainment in the form of the operetta, "Pickles." Characters were chosen from the boys' and girls' glee clubs to become gypsies. Viennese and American tourists. Colorful songs and dances were featured throughout the operetta. Those in the cast were: (Gypsies) Marian Monesmith, Ilona; and Ed Nugent, Jigo, her father. (Viennese) Brice Parsley, Hans, the innkeeper; Bill Van Brocklin, Kinski, chief of police; Vern Tittle and Clair Egbert, Bumski and Rumski, two cops; and Leila Brown, Louisa, the waitress. (Tourists) Jack Benner, J. J. Jones, pickle advertising expert; Clarence Allen, Mr. Pennington, the Peter Piper; Pickle Prince; Peggy Hatmaker, June Pennington, his daughter; Delbert Sagaser, Crefont, a painter; and Thelma Seifert, Lady Vivian DeLancey, a widow.
Basketball

L. H. S. 39—D. H. S. 33. The Grizzlies avenged their earlier defeat by Dryden when they beat the Tigers on their own home floor. The game was very evenly matched throughout, until the last quarter when the Leavenworth five started a final burst of speed to come out on the top end of the score.

L. H. S. 32—C. H. S. 49. The Chelan Goats handed the Grizzlies their worst defeat of the season. The Goats could not miss from any angle of the floor. The Grizzly passing and floor-play was not up to par and the lakesiders led by a score of 28-11 at the half.

COUNTY TOURNAMENT

L. H. S. 38—C. H. S. 39. The county tournament game with the Cashmere Bulldogs was a game that you dream about. The Grizzlies overcame a 14 point deficit, and then, with fifteen seconds left to play, scored a basket that put them ahead by one point. With less than five seconds to play, Newsham, of Cashmere, dropped in a basket to beat the Grizzlies by one point.

L. H. S. 45—D. H. S. 26. The Grizzlies came back from their heart-breaking defeat to beat out a tired but game Dryden five. This game, played on the big Wenatchee court, was one of the Grizzlies best. This win gave us the right to play Peshastin for third place in the county. Half time score was 23-4.

L. H. S. 30—P. H. S. 24. The game with the Loggers on Wenatchee's court was a slow and uninteresting game. The Grizzlies, it seemed, could not get going and by the half they were all tied up at 17-17. The Grizzlies came out in the second half to break the tie and go on to win.

DISTRICT TOURNAMENT

L. H. S. 26—O. H. S. 62. The first game of the district tournament turned out to be the last game for the Grizzlies when they were soundly beaten for the fourth time. The Omak Pioneers, playing on their home court, outplayed the Grizzlies and showed themselves to be a far more experienced team. Omak went on to win first place in the tournament.

At the end of the season, the Grizzlies had a total of 479 points as against their opponents 443. Individual scoring was as follows:

Vern Tritle .............. 170 points  Monte May ............. 36 points
Bricc Parsley .......... 88 points  Bert Abbott .......... 34 points
Bill Van Brocklin ....... 63 points  Jack Benner .......... 33 points
Ted Parsons ............. 55 points

Third row—Mr. Brad Williams, Leonard Sauer, Lee Herald, Jack Sweet, Bill Love, Dave Moneysmith, Carl Bergren, Mr. Heald.

Basketball

This year’s basketball team started practice on November 11, 1947, with four returning lettermen and 35 candidates for the team. The four returning lettermen were Brice Parsley, Bill Van Brocklin, Ted Parsons, and Vern Tittle. Coach Heald had all the height he needed to work with, but his boys lacked experience. However, by the time of the Wenatchee valley jamboree the team was in very good shape.

At the jamboree they played excellent ball and showed a stiff defense as well as a good offense. L. H. S. beat Chelan and Peshastin 11-5 and 18-8, respectively.

L. H. S. 24—P. H. S. 18. In our first regular game of the season, L. H. S. met Peshastin on our home court and played a very slow first half. Then leading 11-10 at the start of the second half they put on a very fine display of basketball to beat the neighboring town by 19 points.

L. H. S. 24—D. H. S. 34. The game with Dryden was as usual a very rough contest, with the Tigers coming out on top. The Grizzlies led 17-10 at the half, but the visiting five soon made up the difference and went on to win by a margin of 10 points.

L. H. S. 23—C. H. S. 21. The team got back in the win column by handing the Bulldogs a close defeat. Cashmere showed a lot of fight and played a good game but came out on the short end of the score.

L. H. S. 32—P. H. S. 25. The team looked better in this game than in any of the preceding games. Their offense went to work early in the game and had a 16-8 lead at the half. Peshastin started to rally in the fourth quarter but was cut short by the Grizzly five.

L. H. S. 33—E. H. S. 27. The Grizzlies had to come from behind to triumph over the fighting Ephrata five. The Grizzlies played fast ball in the last four minutes to come up and win by a very good margin.

L. H. S. 49—C. H. S. 34. Leavenworth, playing their best game of the year, easily defeated Cashmere on their home court by 15 points. It was a case of just too many baskets—too fast. L. H. S. led at the half 24-15.

L. H. S. 35—C. H. S. 28. The Grizzlies, after four years, finally defeated the Chelan Goats. The game, played on our home court, was evenly matched with the lead not being more than 7 points at any time. The Grizzly five played a smooth game and felt pretty good after the win. The half time score was 17-12.

L. H. S. 35—E. H. S. 36. The Grizzlies blew another 24-16 half time lead to lose by one point. The Ephrata team began narrowing the margin in the second half to decrease the lead to 25-25 at the third quarter. The fourth quarter was a nip and tuck battle with the lead changing basket by basket.

GROUP PICTURE

Football

The 1947 football season opened last September with 33 fellows obtaining suits. Six of these were lettermen: Parsley at quarterback; McKinney, halfback; Sagaser, fullback; Tittle, center; Parsons and Ab Egbert, tackles; leaving five positions to be filled through the combined efforts of coach Williams and superintendent Wyngarden.

The Grizzlies tackled the Alumni for their first game, winning 13-0, but showing many defects which needed correcting before our first school game with the Ephrata Tigers.

Any improvement made, however, was not enough as the Grizzlies took a 13-0 setback from the Tigers with their candidate for all state honors, Benville, at fullback, and a speedball named Burd, at halfback, doing most of the damage.

McKinney, off for the apple harvest, was replaced by Kenny Wood, a freshman, at right half. The Grizzlies next met the Cashmere Bulldogs in a night game, on their turf. On a soggy, grass field, the Grizzlies took another 13-6 defeat. Cashmere scored on two long runs. The Grizzlies counted on a pass from quarterback, Parsley to right end Abbott.

Leaving Leavenworth under a pouring rain, the Grizzlies traveled to Wenatchee to tangle with the Wenatchee B’s in the sunshine. A combination blocked kick by our tackles, Parsons and Egbert, earned the Grizzlies a 6-6 tie.

Next was a trip to Moses Lake, where we won out with a 13-0 victory. Del Sagaser scored first on an end run. The second Leavenworth touchdown was the scoring highlight of the season. With the Moses Lake Chiefs on their own 15 yard line, Ted Parsons in blocking an attempted pass deftly knocked the ball into the hands of his startled co-tackle, Ab Egbert. Egbert took about six steps to score.

In their final encounter of the season, the Grizzlies brought about the nearest upset of the year by holding Chelan to a 7-6 margin on the lake city field. The over-confident Goats were set back on their heels from the start by the Grizzlies who were determined to avenge the 49-0 massacre of the previous year. In the first quarter, we had to score three times before a touchdown was allowed. Only once did the Goats get within the Grizzly 30-yard line and that was on their long touchdown pass run.

A final home game scheduled with Wenatchee B had to be canceled after several postponements because of foul weather.
ATHLETICS
Band

The year of 1948 signifies a lot of hard work for the band members and their director, Mrs. Bargelt. Aided by town and school organizations, they raised more than $2,000 with which to buy new uniforms. The new red and white outfits arrived in March and were initiated at the spring concert.

On May 1, the band marched in the Apple Blossom parade at Wenatchee along with other bands from north central Washington. On May 8, they traveled to the Central Washington College of Education at Ellensburg to take part in the annual music festival. They received a rating of excellent.

Besides these major events the band enlivened many football and basketball games with their music. They ended a year that has been most successful when they played for the commencement exercises on May 23.

Spring Concert

The music department was again the center of attention when they presented their formal spring concert on the evening of April 16. The band, resplendent in their uniforms, opened the program followed by numbers performed by both the junior and senior high choruses. The climax of the evening came when all of the choruses were combined for the final two numbers.

Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom

One of the nicest of the social events this year was the annual junior-senior banquet and prom held on the evening of May 15. The junior class sponsored this affair and used the theme of "Moonlight and Roses" for their decorations.

The faculty and members of the junior and senior classes attended the banquet which began at 6:30. Eight sophomore girls and boys were on hand to serve the guests. After the meal was finished, toastmaster Jack Benner introduced the speakers who were: Bill Love, Charles Darling, Mr. Wylgarden, and Peggy Hatmaker.

The prom was officially started with the grand march led by Peggy Hatmaker and Brice Parsley, who were voted the most popular girl and boy of the senior class. The gym was transformed into a garden of roses, complete with picket fences, trellises, a neon crescent moon, and stars. This made a perfect setting for a perfect evening.
Track

This year's track season began with a turnout of 22 boys on April 6. With the help of their coach, Mr. MacPherson, they were able to participate in several track meets against stiff competition and came out with flying colors.

The major meets in which they took part were: the triangular meet at Ephrata, the Apple Blossom, county and district meets, the last three all being held in Wenatchee. At the meet in Ephrata with the schools of Ephrata, Cashmere, and Leavenworth competing, Leavenworth took first place with 58 points. In the Apple Blossom meet, they came up against stiff competition and came out in fifth place. Leavenworth was able to take second place in the county meet and six boys, Bert Abbott, Bob Plummer, Leonard Sauer, Bob Fredrickson, Jack Sweet, and Vern Tritle, were qualified for the district meet. Out of these six boys, Bob Fredrickson and Bert Abbott won first and second places at the district meet, and were entered in the state track meet held at Washington State College in Pullman.

Baseball

On April 5, 38 young men of L. H. S. turned out in full force for the coming year in baseball. Among this enthusiastic group were seven returning lettermen: Jack Benner, catcher; Brice Parsley, pitcher; Monte May, second base; Dave Monesmith, short stop; Lavon Slaughter, third base; Bill Love and Bob Buntain, fielders. Due to a rainy season many of the games had to be either postponed or cancelled. The games that were played, however, were as follows:

L. H. S.— 6 . . . . . . Chelan— 9  L. H. S.— 0 . . . Cashmere— 3

Volleyball

"We won!" was the chant of the senior girls' two volleyball teams during the volleyball tournament. Marian Monesmith's team came in first with six wins and no losses, with Jackie Miller's team close behind with five wins and one loss.

Games were played during the noon period and spectators were allowed. The boys were enthusiastic about the games but it was plain to see that they considered their ballplaying superior to ours.

Each class had two teams with the exception of the juniors who had only one. Their captain was Beryl Walker. The sophomore captains were Willie Rhea Carter and Josephine McKinney and the freshmen chose Betty Manning and Geraldine Martin.

Girls' Basketball

As the year progressed, we finally had a chance to play girl's basketball and because it was new to us, we had quite a time learning not to travel with the ball, to make two complete passes before shooting, and most of all to hit the basket. However, after we had learned the fundamentals, we chose teams and began a series of games which were played at noon.

These games aroused much interest and at the end of the tournament the two senior teams, captained by Dolores Skelton and Jo Anne Garrison, and Hazel Farnsworth's sophomore team were tied for first place. Time did not permit us to play off this three way tie. Other teams taking part in the tournament were Delores Kalanquin and Thelma Seifert's junior team, Frances Wisemore's sophomore team, and two freshmen teams led by Louise Moore and Donna Pendleton.

P. E. Night

The climax of our Phys. Ed. activities came on the night of April 2, when the G. A. A. sponsored a parent's night, the first of its kind in the history of L. H. S. Each P. E. class, 7th through the 12th grades, put on an exhibition game as their part in the program. Schottisches, square dancing, hit-pin baseball, calisthenics, volleyball, and basketball were performed for the benefit of the parents.

G. A. A. Playday

On Saturday, May 8, girls from neighboring towns came to Leavenworth to participate in a playday. Schools did not compete against each other but different girls from each school were on a team. Each team played a game of basketball, volleyball, and softball. The affair, which was new to L. H. S. was sponsored by the G. A. A.
