TREES
I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree.

A tree whose hungry mouth is pressed
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast.

A tree that looks at God all day
And lifts her leafy arms to pray;

A tree that may in summer wear
A nest of robins in her hair;

Upon whose bosom snow has lain;
Who intimately lives with rain.

Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.

CLASS WILL

ARTICLE I

Know ye by the following will and testimony, that we, the class of 1950, realizing the immediate uncertainty of our whereabouts and being on the verge of leaving this school sphere, do make and publish this, our last will and testament, thereby declaring null and void all the wills and testimonies made by us at any other time. Being here assembled together and feeling that to posterity should come the remains of our earthly sojourn and the trinkets and remains thereof, and that it is utterly befitting that the world should long note and remember what we have done here, we now bestow, after due consideration and forethought, the following:

ARTICLE II

Section 1. We bequeath to the Juniors what is left of the mimeograph room and our troubles therein.
Section 2. We give to the Sophomores our cooperative-ness in class and elsewhere.
Section 3. To the Freshies we leave the ability to have lots of girls in their class all through high school.
Section 4. To dear old Peshastin High we humbly leave, with gratitude, the gum under the chairs and the little bits of chalk used in our class battles. Next year's students will see that we have left our mark in dear old P.H.S. by engraving every desk with our initials and names. We hope that the poor old school has lots of time to recuperate from our four year seige.

ARTICLE III

Section 1. I, Bob Dennis, will Hog's Back to Don Bodenman and Mary. (As if they haven't taken it over already!) I also leave my basketball ability to Dennis Paulsen.
Section 2. I, Pat Gray, will all my broken romances to Fritz Gere and my baseball ability to Norma Classen.
Section 3. I, Todd Cowan, will my height to Carol Snyder and the loops to Dwayne Jackson.
Section 4. I, Dale Kinkade, will my grades to the poor Freshman class and my glasses to Ervin Jeske.
Section 5. I, Leo Sax, will my good luck at school picnics to Jean Thrift and my big, blue eyes to Hub Paulsen.

Section 6. I, Don Archambault, will Arlyce to Virgil Rosenquist and my pictures of Miss Crosby to Miss Crosby.

Section 7. I, Noel Coriell, will a ring to Darlene D.'s collection and my wavy brown hair to Marie Nelson.

Section 8. I, Colleen Gray, will the books to next year's treasurer and my Irish ways to Donnie Radke.

Section 9. I, Lois Lovegrove, will my red hair to Carol Smithson and my quiet ways to Jody Schmaltz.

Section 10. I, Ronald Rankin, will my job as editor of the Hi Log to Mary and my ability to skip class and get away with it to Mary Lou Cowan.

Section 11. I, Dorothy Rudolph, leave—I mean left, at mid-year—for a man. (Can you beat that?) Also, I leave my way with boys to Irene McCullum.

Section 12. I, Vivian Hughes, will my ability to go steady for four years with one man to Kay Couch and also my small feet to Billy Kiehn.

Section 13. I, Dale Webb, will my half interest in telling tall tales to Dennis Paulsen. This makes Dennis sole owner. I leave social science happily.

Section 14. I, Darold Smith, will my ability to stay out of school to whoever needs an excuse, and I leave the headaches of the Lomoa to Betty Mae.

Section 15. I, Darrell Fischer, will my basketball ability to someone who will use it and my freckles to Mary Ann Gray.

Section 16. I, Glenn Martin, will my ad-drawing headaches to Darlene Larson and my corny jokes to the people who think their jokes are corny.

ARTICLE IV

We now leave this will and testament for your approval or disapproval. We also wish the next will committee as much trouble as we have had. We are gone but the graduating classes go on forever. We are gone but don't forget us.
PROPHECY

At the time our committee was selected
It all came rather unexpected.
But just as far as we can see,
The members of our class in 1975 will be:
In New York large, with lights aglow
We find Don Archambault in a show.
A side show strong man is his purpose
And part time Barker for a flea circus.
Down in L.A., by the sea
Dale Kinkade undertaker will be.
To his classmates a free burial he'll treat
Laying each out with lillies sweet.
In Minnesota, Noel Coriell we find
Inventing cure-alls for all mankind;
He invents the stuff but he never tries it.
If you need a cure, I wouldn't advise it.
In the town of Hollywood
Glenn Martin is acting—but good.
A comedian on TV spots,
Making faces for tiny tots.
In the silver dollar where money does flow
Is Ronald Rankin, pro-gambler of Reno.
When loaded dice he oft does bruise,
We poor suckers our money will lose.
This is Chicago where all the cops hanker
To catch Todd Cowan, our embezzling banker.
He drives the streets in a long black Cad,
Chased by creditors for things he's had.
In Alcatraz, the place of menace,
We find a convict named Bob Dennis.
He gambled too heavy and took a long shot.
He was caught at the foul line, red-handed and hot.
As the town of Leavenworth we spy,
We see Dorothy Rudolph, an old maid spry.
Doing her bit for the man and the mouse,
Running an old folks boarding house.
In foggy Seattle, with the sound and the tug,
We find Darrell Fischer--manager of Hotel Bedbug.
He married a girl for worse or for better;
She was Lois Lovegrove, a real go-getter.
Leo Sax and his wife Colleen Gray
We find squeezing olives down Arkansas way.
Around the house with yells do play
Their five fat kids of today.
The Ford's a wreck—just a frame and a wheel;
They now have blisters from that old Ford feel.
In Illinois we find Pat Gray,
Pro-football he does play;
His importance makes him beam.
He's water boy of the football team.
In our home town a sight we meet
Is Vivian Hughes, a mother sweet.
Her fifteen children cling around their mother
'Cause now they're expecting a baby brother.
From the rough part of Frisco we hear a tune.
It comes from a noisy water front saloon.
We find Darold Smith with a big bunch of heels;
He plays, sings, and dances for his three daily meals.
In Miami, Florida, where the white-caps roll in,
We find Dale Webb with a tale to begin.
With the sun, the palm trees, and the white sand showing
Dwells the teller of tales—a typhoon still blowing.
So now that you have heard of our fortune and fame,
We wish you the best and wish us the same.
We'll remember you all and Peshastin High
From the class of "50" good luck and goodbye.

By Glenn, Darold, and Dale
SENIOR TRIP

The Class of 1950 decided to change the name of this annual excursion from "Senior Sneak" to "Senior Trip." This and our educational plans helped us get more time for our trip. We got 48 hours instead of the usual 20.

On April 21, we all went to school as usual, but about ten o'clock, we left. We put up our numbers and went to Senior Day at Wenatchee Junior College, hoping the Juniors would think that we had gone on our trip.

May 14, at two o'clock all the Seniors met at the Stewart Ranch to leave on our real trip. We went to Seattle by way of Blewett and Snoqualmie Passes. Finally, everyone got to the Calhoun Hotel, where we were to stay for the night, and found our rooms. After supper we met again in the hotel lobby and left for Playland. We spent quite a bit of our money there and left around midnight. We went back to the hotel and the chaperones and the girls went to bed. The boys got together and decided to see what went on in Seattle at that time of night. We went to a recreation center close by, but it was just closing so we started walking. We walked, and walked, and finally stopped at a small all-night restaurant where some of us played a pinball machine until three o'clock. Part of us went back to the hotel but the others didn't return until about four. About five, three of the boys who had gone on a trip of their own, returned. I don't think any of us got to sleep before five-thirty, if that early. We got up at seven, ate breakfast, and left for the eight o'clock ferry to Bremerton. When we arrived at Bremerton, we were shown around the yards. Everyone was impressed by the size and number of ships. We got to go on the carrier USS Kearsarge. This is one of the larger carriers. Most of the ships were in dock to be overhauled. We had several shops pointed out to us. We ate dinner at the Navy cafe. After seeing more of the yard, we took our leave and went back to Seattle. We had a few hours of freedom then, and split up into small groups and did some shopping. Later, we met at the hotel again and left to have supper at Crawford's sea-food restaurant. After supper, we had just enough time to get to the Ice Follies. This was a wonderful climax to our trip. We went home right after the Follies, and got home quite late, but we went to school the next morning anyway.
JUNIORS

The juniors were quite active this year. They sold pop and candy at the games. The class officers were: president, Kenny Young; vice-president, Lewis Lake; secretary-treasurer, Mary Caudle. Their adviser was Miss Marboe.

Back row, left to right: Ervin Jeske, Clarence Foster, Paul Mounter, Jack Heerman, Don Bodenman, Arthur Mailloux, Miss Marboe, Kenny Young, Lewis Lake, Don Coppock, Lowell Coriell, Dwayne Jackson.

Fifth place in State, second place in District, second place in County, County sportsmanship.
Basketball

Peshastin Loggers: 2nd in County!
Peshastin Loggers: 2nd in District!
Peshastin Loggers: 5th in State!

Now, if this doesn't sound like a very, very successful season, I'd like to know what would be called a successful year. Under the very able coaching of Pat Glendenning, the Loggers ended with a season's record of 12 wins and 5 losses, the best that has ever been accomplished by a P.H.S. team. The Loggers will be without the services of the five graduating seniors—graduating with something to look back at with pride. Good luck seniors!

In the County and District tournaments, the Loggers were beaten only by the Chelan Goats and while in the State meet, they lost only the first game, and won the next three to give them a well-earned fifth in State.

The Loggers were awarded four trophies for the season. Included was the Sportsmanship trophy won by the community, student body, the players, and the coach. Without help from all, it would have never fallen into our hands. Many thanks, Peshastin.

Bill Kiehn, a sophomore, broke all scoring records at State with eighty-eight points for the four games. Nice going, Bill, and keep up your good work! Bill, of course, realized that if it hadn't been for the rest of the team he could not have done it. That shows real sportsmanship. Bob Dennis, who will leave P.H.S. this year, was the able captain of our team. Good luck, Bob!

BASEBALL
CHEER LEADERS

We are very proud of our three cheer leaders this year--Beverly Rhodes, Toni Farris, and Margie Rhodes. We are sorry the girls did not have their suits when the pictures were taken.

Most of the yells were new this year and very peppy. They led the cheering section at all of the games and were supported by the townspeople as well as P.H.S. students.

Their suits were very attractive in our high school colors, maroon and white. They wore white satin blouses with full sleeves and the letters P.H.S. across the front. The skirts were made of maroon wool gaberdine with box pleats. The shoes were white moccasins.

Beverly is a junior this year and was cheer leader in her Freshman year also. Toni and Margie are Freshmen and were cheer leaders in the eighth grade. So from this you can see that our cheer leaders were experienced and very deserving of the letters they earned as cheer leaders of Peshastin High School this year.
