OUR THANKS

Our thanks to the faculty and many people who so willingly contributed their time and effort to make this edition of the 1950 Lacapi a success. We are indeed grateful, for without their help the production of this book would have been impossible.

—The Staff
DEDICATION

This year two organizations have been so outstanding that the 1950 Lacapi is being dedicated to the Parent-Teachers' Association and to the Leavenworth High School Band.

The P.T.A. donated more than enough money to the athletic department for the purchase of new red and black football uniforms for the team. Besides that they were the most active and instrumental group in obtaining a beautiful, new green curtain for the gym stage. The new curtain not only adds beauty and color to the stage, but it is also a source of civic pride.

The Leavenworth High School Band, under the very capable baton of Mr. F. Truman Youngberg, brought much honor and recognition to the school this past year. On April 1, they entered the competitive Music Festival held in Ellensburg and won a superior rating on the basis of performance. At the Apple Blossom Festival in Wenatchee on May 6, the band marched and played, and won first place in the Class C competition. The band also participated in the annual Christmas and spring concerts, and played for football and basketball games, the display of the Liberty Bell, and the processional and recessional for the senior commencement.

We are very proud to dedicate the 1950 Lacapi to the Leavenworth Parent-Teachers' Association and to the Leavenworth High School Band.

LACAPI STAFF
Superintendent's Message

Seniors of 1950:

It has been your privilege to complete twelve years in the common schools of the United States, a nation whose greatness has been founded on its public schools. As citizens of this nation of ours you have certain privileges and duties to perform and it has been the job of the schools to help prepare you for their performance. Whether we in the schools have done our job well can only be measured by how well each of you does your part to see that this nation remains strong and great, and that we do not lose the freedoms we now enjoy.

It has been a pleasure to work with you, and I wish for each of you success and happiness in the days ahead.

John L. Wyngarden

Principal's Message

To the Class of 1950:

You now have a high school "education" and if you have learned your lessons well you are ready to face the future. An "education" might be defined as that knowledge or training obtained largely from school which enables one to meet life's problems in a more efficient manner than they would otherwise be able to do.

You are now out of high school and on your own, but we are still interested in your success and happiness and trust that you will keep us informed of your progress, and return to visit your "alma mater" when convenient to do so.

C. C. Scofield
J. L. WYNGARDEN

Mr. Wyngarden has a B.A. from the University of Washington. Besides being the superintendent, he taught economics and sociology.

Administration

C. C. SCOFIELD

Mr. Scofield received a B.A. degree from Nebraska Central and an M.A. from the University of Nebraska. He taught World History, English III; he sponsored Council, Lecapi and the Senior class.
Mr. Adamson graduated from the Central Washington College where he majored in physical education. He coached basketball, baseball, and football. In addition to teaching the seventh grade, he also supervised the sophomore boys' driver's training.

Mr. MacPherson attended the University of Washington, San Francisco State College, and the University of California, receiving a B.S. in zoology and P.E. He taught biology, coached track and tumbling, and also sponsored the sophomore class and Boys' club.

Mr. Rembold has a B.A. from Walla Walla College and a B.S. from the University of Washington. He taught trigonometry, physics, chemistry, and algebra. He also sponsored the library.

Miss Sasse received a B.A. degree from the Wayne State Teachers' College. She taught typing, shorthand, and senior English. She also sponsored the junior class.

Miss Schnackel has a B.A. degree from the University of Omaha. She taught U.S. History, general business. She sponsored the G.A.A. and was the junior class adviser.
Mr. West attended the University of Washington, receiving a B.B.A. in economics; he later received a M. Ed. from the University of Oregon. He taught Washington history and was the adviser for the journalism class's weekly publication of the "Voice."

Miss White attended Marquette and Downer College in Wisconsin and Whitworth College, receiving a B.A. in English and a B. Ed. Besides teaching English, she was the freshman class adviser and the director for the junior and senior plays.

B. A. WILLIAMS

Mr. Williams has a Ph. B. degree from the Ripon College in Wisconsin. He majored in English and mathematics. He taught shop and mechanical drawing.

VIRGINIA WILLIAMS

Mrs. Williams has a B.S. and a M.S. in Home Economics. She taught five classes of home ec. She also sponsored the Girls' club and was the freshman class adviser.

F. T. YOUNGBERG

Mr. Youngberg attended the Highlands University, receiving a B.A. degree in music. He taught band, glee club, and sophomore literature.
Miss White sits on her doorstep and poses with Jimmy A. 2. Mr. MacPherson is getting ready to sprint. 3. Miss Sasse has to sit down after a hard day's work. 4. Mr. Adamson poses for the camera in his younger, carefree days. 5. Mrs. Williams and Mrs. West delight in the fragrance of their lovely corsages. 6. Miss Schnackel pauses between classes. 7. Mr. Wyngarden! Cake is supposed to be eaten in small bites. 8. Brad Williams is perched on the end of the slide. 9. Mr. Scofield, did you scare that little dog? 10. Monday is washday for Mr. West in Alaska. 11. Someone just asked Mr. Rembold a silly question. 12. Mr. Troungberg is imitating Jimmy Durante.
SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

On the morning of September 6, 1938, forty, shy, excited little first graders came with their proud parents and friends to enroll in Miss Elda Folden’s room in the Leavenworth Grade School. Only six, Craig Booth, Leona Fortner, David Kuch, June Ostella, Willanne Titus, and Laurabelle West graduated this year.

In the fall of 1944, forty-nine students entered the junior high school. During the next two years, the choosing of librarians, the establishment of the school patrol, the glee club, junior high graduation, and the two-day strike staged by the junior and senior high school students will long be remembered. Of the present class, thirty-one members received their elementary diplomas in the junior high. The coveted American Legion Awards went to Lavon Slaughter and Thelma Murray.

Sixty-five freshmen received their formal initiation into high school through the Freshmen Mixer. However, there were only fifty-one students remaining in our class the following spring. The Girls’ club Tolo, the Costume Ball, and the school operetta were among the more important events of the year.

The Leap Year dance was the most important calendar event staged by our class in the Sophomore year. The school colors were changed to red and black as a result of a debate held that year. We sponsored a freshman-sophomore picnic in May at Cougar Inn on Lake Wenatchee.

"Farewell to Thee" was the theme of our Junior-Senior prom, and "Murder in Rehearsal" was selected as our class play. The proceeds from the play financed the prom. The whole class saw the major parts of Grand Coulee Dam for an educational field day. Gene Piper and Clyde Satterfield were the new-comers to our class.

With graduation day in sight, we, as seniors, began our most active year. Underwriting the Lecapi and class officer elections came first. Our class play, "The Whole Truth", was presented November 17. Then came the Senior Ball, our sneak, our baccalaureate services, and at last, graduation night, when diplomas were given to forty-one very happy seniors.

JUNIORS

Upon entering the ranks of the upperclassmen, the junior activities have included a costume ball, a junior dance and the Junior-Senior Prom.

A highlight of the year was the production of the junior class play, "Lights Out."

Suzanne Titus and Jim Vincent were elected council representatives.

Capably sponsoring the junior class were Miss Schnackel and Miss Sasse.

SOPHOMORES

With the help of advisers, Mr. MacPherson and Mr. Rembold, the sophomores started the school year by electing class officers. Imojean Parton and Jerry Franklin were elected council representatives.

The calendar of events consisted of a Scamper dance, serving dinner to the Ephrata and Leavenworth basketball teams along with the visiting ski teams, and treating the Freshmen to the annual picnic in the spring.

Third row: Shore, Manning, Titchenal, Dickinson, Norman, Gregory, Duncan, Hanson, McKinney.
First row: Custer, O'Brien, Wilcox, Monesmith, Stegeman, Boning, Telford, Miner, Parton, Benedict.
FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

FRESHMEN

With the misgivings that freshmen always have, the Class of '53 entered their four years of work toward a high school diploma.

Miss White and Mrs. Williams, the class advisers helped them to sponsor a candy sale, sell pom-poms, give a chili feed to the Waterville team, have a snow party, and to give the annual Freshman dance.

JoAnn Hodgen and Glenn Brown were elected council representatives for the class.

First row: Hodgen, Fisher, Duncan, Waters, Brown, Schmoker, Harrison, Smith, Houston, King.
ACTIVITIES
BOYS' CLUB

After election of officers, the Boys' Club took charge of the boys' activity room, caring for the ping-pong equipment, and keeping the room in good condition. The club held a dance in February.

The "L" Club, a division of the Boys' Club composed of lettermen, sponsored many of the game concessions and held a successful Smoker, March 25.

GIRLS' CLUB

With Mrs. Williams serving as advisor, the Girls' Club played a very active part in this year's school activities. They sponsored the Freshman Mixer for formally initiating the class of '53. "Deep Purple" was the theme of the Tolo held December 3. In the spring quarter the club sponsored the traditional Mothers' Tea, carrying out a Valentine theme, and featuring the style show.

Second row: Bakke, Detillian, Bryant, Burgess, Calhoun, McGahuey, Johnson, Dull.
The Girls' Athletic Association has made it possible for a high school girl to earn a letter through a point system set up by the state organization. Under this system the girls take part in various sports and receive so many points for each activity.

Under the sponsorship of the GAA is the Pep Club, which always adds much color and enthusiasm to the cheering section.

GAA OFFICERS

L. Stevens, secretary; S. Murray, vice-president; C. Chard, president; Carol Chard, treasurer; M. Motteler, council representative.

First row: Burgess, Marin, Moore, Stage, Houston, Norris, Schmoker, Chard, Boning, Wisemore, Mulkey, Ostella.
LIBRARY

The library, an asset to every school, serves many purposes. Students not only use it for reference, but also enjoy it for recreational reading.

Heading this department is Mr. Rembold. Under him is a staff of student librarians.

Many new books have been added this year, among them a new set of World Book Encyclopedias.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, consisting of student body officers, two representatives from each class, and one from each high school organization, is the governing body of the associated students.

Two important projects undertaken by the Council were the selling of the activity tickets and purchasing the washer-drier for the physical education classes. The Council also grants dates for school dances and activities, and has general management of all school affairs.

F H A

The Future Homemakers of America consists of the junior and senior home ec. girls. Donna Pendleton was elected president; Karen Burgess, vice-president; Willie Rhea Carter, secretary; Laurabelle West, treasurer, and Virginia Hodgen, council representative.

During the year the FHA sponsored the March of Dimes drive and sent relief packages to Norway.
Standing: Jody McKinney--Mrs. Martin; Lois Walker--Aunt Mat Worth; Dave Kuch--Johnson; Christine Farrimond--Harriet; Ken MacGregor--Johnny Martin.
Seated: Clyde Satterfield--Mr. Mundorf; Thelma Murray--Helen Martin; Max Scofield--Tom DeNorth; Willanne Titus--Lucille Armitage; Jim Bradshaw--Joseph Martin. Missing from picture: Hazel Farnsworth--Elizabeth Martin; Lawton Griffith--Teasle.

"The Whole Truth," a fast-moving, three act comedy, hinged on a plot to "tell the whole truth and nothing but the truth."

The play was presented by the Senior class on November 17, 1949, under the talented supervision of Miss Maryon White, with Maxine Folansby as student director.

Seated: Kjell Bakke--Carl Emerson; Pat Boning--Helen Freeland; Patsy Hawver--Susan Bates; Louise Moore--Doris Harwood; Betsy Hawver--Agnes Harwood.

"Lights Out" was the Junior class play, presented March 30, 1950. In this mystery farce of many strange happenings, eerie screams, romance, and comedy, the junior Thespians furnished a highly entertaining evening for the audience.

Miss Maryon White was the very capable director, with Geraldine Martin as student director.

Third row: Mr. Youngberg, Deitsch, Vincent, Bakke, Six, Wisemore, Haugh, Booth, Scofield, Willet, Griffith.

Front row: Stage, Boning, Farrimond, Ostella, Burgess, Couch, Carroll, Tuttle, Rodgers, Farnsworth, T. Murray, Mulkey.

MIXED GLEE CLUB

Hours of tedious practice went into the two concerts given by the mixed chorus this year. In addition to these performances, the students sang for baccalaureate and in competition at the Ellensburg music festival where they received an excellent rating. This year’s chorus, under the direction of Mr. Youngberg, was composed of junior and senior students.

SENIOR SEXTETTE

Coming home with a superior rating in singing highlighted this year’s performances for the six senior songstresses. During the year the girls sang at various community affairs and commencement. The success of the sextette can be credited to Mr. Youngberg’s patient direction and supervision.

Frances Wisemore, Norma Stage, Hazel Farnsworth, Thelma Murray, Peggy Perry, Naoma Stage.
One of the most active and hard-working organizations in the school is the band. Decked out in their snappy red and white uniforms, the band performed at two concerts, special assemblies, at football and basketball games, and marched in the Apple Blossom parade. The big highlight of the year was going to Ellensburg and winning a superior rating in the music festival, rewarding their long weeks of special practice.

A few of the deserving band students periodically went to Chelan to play in the 100-piece honor band.

Mr. Youngberg is certainly to be given much credit for his hard work, and ceaseless, tireless effort that he put forth in order to raise the band to such a high standard.

Preceded by the Leavenworth marching band and thirteen, highstepping majorettes, Princess Hazel Famsworth proudly graced her throne on the beautiful green and white float, which described Leavenworth as the beauty spot of Washington. This year's float was awarded the Community Sweepstakes prize, and received a beautiful trophy.

A night to remember began in the Methodist Church basement when the juniors served a delicious banquet in honor of the Seniors of 1950. Kjell Bakke officiated as toastmaster. Earl Johnson welcomed the Seniors, and Dave Monesmith gave the response. Two numbers by Sheila Murray and Betsy Hawver added musical variety to the program. The farewell speech was given by Mr. Wyngarden.

Following the banquet, the prom began with the Grand March led by Jody McKinney and Allan Six. Many couples enjoyed dancing under a multi-colored canopy, carrying out the theme, "Over the Rainbow". A decorative, chalk landscape picture hung at the west end of the gym.

Dancing until midnight completed the evening.

Ready to leave at the crack of dawn, thirty-nine sleepy seniors and their chaperones were eager to undertake their strenuous jaunt to Seattle.

The caravan of cars arrived in Seattle in time for breakfast at the Hub, although there was the usual run of mishaps, such as snow on the Pass, a flat tire, and misinterpretation of directions.

The seniors divided into two groups and toured the University campus until noon. The group proceeded to Woodland Park where lunch was soon served. Many of the seniors toured a submarine and a mine sweeper at the water front, while others chose to remain at the park. The route home, via Everett, allowed the group to eat and dance at Lake Stevens.

The welcome lights of home greeted most of the weary travelers at ten o'clock.

This year's VOICE staff was very efficient in the production of the weekly school paper, which contained the latest news of school events and activities. The paper was distributed to both junior and senior high schools every Tuesday.

Back row: Mr. Scofield, Naoma Stage, Norma Stage, Keny McGregor, Peggy Perry, Lavon Slaughter, Lawton Griffith, LeRoy Meister, Dave Monesmith.
Front row: Thelma Murray, Margaret English, Hazel Farnsworth, Jim Burgess, Frances Wisemore, Clyde Satterfield, Allan Six.

With Mr. Scofield as the advisor, the Lecapi staff was organized early in the second quarter and began the task of writing the '50 yearbook. The staff has continued the summer-delivery plan started in 1948. This enables them to present a more complete record of all school events. Later in the winter, a free annual was awarded to Louise Moore, holder of the lucky ticket at the Lecapi dance.
GRIDIRON

On August 29, the first practice of the 1949 football season got underway with forty-two boys attending this initial try out. Included in these were thirteen returning lettermen: Allan Six, Craig Booth, Lawton Griffith, Dave Monesmith, George Putnam, Lavon Slaughter, Bob Plummer, Herb Dye, Ken Wood; Calvin McGahuey, Jack Haugh, Kjell Bakke, and Hugh Parton.

With these as a nucleus, Coach Adamson built a small, fast-moving, scrappy eleven.

The team's average weight was only 144 pounds, and played opponents who out-weighted them by twenty pounds per man. The boys, while out-weighed most of the time, were never out-fought.

Ken Wood and Bob Hanson were our ground gainers this year with Ken doing the biggest share of the running. Kjell Bakke did most of our punting, and co-captain, Dave Monesmith, threw most of the passes. Herb Dye was our spark plug at the blocking back position; Allan Six and Lawton Griffith were the two top pass catchers. Kjell Bakke and Byron Reece were the hard-charging tackles; co-captain George Putnam and Calvin McGahuey were our scrappy guards, and Jack Haugh was our pivot man and place kicker.

The highlights of the season were Ken Wood's magnificent runs all through the season and Jack Haugh's place kicking.
SEASON

Ken Wood led the scorers with 30 points followed by Bob Hanson with 18, Jack Haugh 7, Dave Monesmith 6, Jim Vincent 6. The Grizzlies out-scored their opponents 75-59. L. H. S. lost four games and won three.

Letter winners were Allan Six, Lawton Griffith, George Putnam, Dave Monesmith, Craig Booth, Neval Harris, Lavon Slaughter, Kjell Bakke, Hugh Parton, Wade Detillian, Herb Dye, Jack Haugh, Earl Johnson, Calvin McGahuey, Bob Plummer, Jerry Six, Jim Vincent, Ken Wood, Gerald Titchenal, Byron Reece, and Bob Hanson. The managers were Max Scofield and Gene Dull.

1949 FOOTBALL SQUAD

Front row: Allan Six, Hugh Parton, Bob Hanson, Ronald Chard, Bud Kelley, Howard Wisemore, Dave Monesmith, Kjell Bakke, Jerry Bryant, and Herb Dye.

The 1949 basketball season, while not a blazing success, was a good season in more ways than one. With only four returning lettermen, Bud Kelley, Allan Six, Dave Monesmith, and Howard Wisemore, Coach Adamson built a team which gave him 11 wins and 9 losses. Coach Adamson discarded the slow moving offense used by the '48-'49 squad and unraveled some fast breaking plays, which scored many points for the Red and Black.

The squad had its hot and cold nights, but for the most part the fellows played crowd-pleasing ball. LHS could never manage to start a winning streak; most of the games were won in singles and doubles. Their longest winning streak was the last four games.

The highlights of the season were our two wins over Peshastin's powerful Loggers and the win over Chelan's Goats. A most enjoyable and profitable road trip was made to Ephrata and Moses Lake in the latter part of the season.

The scoring was fairly well distributed among the five starters, Kelley leading with 179 points; Hanson, 167; Bryant, 142; Monesmith, 117; and Parton, 78. Players winning letters were Kelley, Parton, Monesmith, Six, Chard, Wisemore, Hanson, Bryant, Dye, C. McGahuey, and the two managers, Leonard Wyngarden and Gerald Folansby.

SKIING - 1949-50

The 1949-50 ski team proved themselves to be one of the best in the State. Although the team was weak in Slalom and downhill events, it was very strong in jumping and cross-country. The team entered in four high school meets. They were first in the State four-way meet at Leavenworth, third in the Wenatchee meet, third in the Rossland (Canada) International meet, and second in the Walla Walla Pacific Northwest meet. Besides these school meets, the boys met in some junior events as well: Second in the Leavenworth PNSA, second in the Snoqualmie PNSA, third in the Spokane PNSA, and second in the Walla Walla PNSA.

The top skiers on the team were Kjell Bakke, Max Scofield, Wade Detillian, Jim Vincent, Ken Wood, Jack Haugh, Knute Bakke, and Dave Kuch.

The team had no official coach this year, but Mr. Bakke gave the boys much valuable instruction. Mr. Scofield, Mr. MacPherson, Mr. Brennan, and Mr. Vern Vincent all helped to make the ski team the success that it was.

FIRST TEAM

Ken Wood was high point man from Washington at the Rossland International meet.

Jim Vincent was the runner-up in the State meet in the jumping event.

CINDER DUSTERS 1950

Although the 1950 track team did not measure up to the 1949 squad, where four men represented Leavenworth at the State meet, the thinclads really gave everybody a run for their money. Max Scofield running the mile, Bob Norman in the pole vault, and Bob Plummer running the 880 were the outstanding performers and chief point getters on the team. Representing Leavenworth at the district meet in Wenatchee on May 13 were Max Scofield and Bob Plummer.

Those earning letters this year were Ken McGregor, Max Scofield, Kjell Bakke, Jack Haugh, Bob Plummer, Lecil Dull, Jerry Franklin, Bob Hanson, and Bob Norman.

The team lost only four seniors this year, so Coach MacPherson should still have a good strong nucleus back next spring threatening the best in the district.

BASKETBALL 1950

The 1950 baseball season started out with lots of hustling, experienced ball players. The team won only three games this season, beating Dryden, Wenatchee, and the town team. The scores of the games were usually close, but because of an error or failure to get a hit at a critical moment, it would cost the Grizzlies the game.

Around the infield it was Jerry Six at first base, Lavon Slaughter, second base; Earl Johnson, third base; Dave Monesmith, shortstop, with Jack Haugh catching, and Jim Burgess and Marion Calhoun handling the bulk of the pitching chores. In the outfield it was Hugh Parton in left field, Dick Martensen in center field, and Lawton Griffith in right field.
Intramural Sports

BASKETBALL

LEAGUE

This year, under the supervision of Mr. Williams, an intramural basketball league was formed. There were seven teams, with each team playing the others once. Booth’s Die-Hards, Wood’s Pole-cats, and Griffith’s Misfits all tied for first place. Other teams in the league were Haugh’s Cougars, Scofield’s Dead-ends, Johnson’s Punks, and Burgess’s Sourdoughs.

CLASS

In the interclass tournament the Seniors came out the victors once more. They defeated the juniors in the first game, while the sophomores downed the freshmen. The seniors then wrapped up the championship by walloping the sophomores.

TUMBLING TEAM

A tumbling team, coached by Mr. MacPherson, was organized for the first time this year. The boys performed many amusing and acrobatic stunts for basketball spectators, and also for those who attended the Smoker.
