CLASS WILL

Part I

We, the Senior Class of 1952, being of unsound mind, weak from 12 years of school work, foolish, dull-witted and the class of best school spirit ever to graduate from P.H.S. do hereby bequeath to our friends and enemies the following.

Part II

To Miss Stevens we leave the thought, "Now maybe my Senior English and Study Hall will be quiet."

To Mr. Johnson we leave our thanks for his patience at our class meetings.

To the remainder of the faculty we leave the knowledge we should have acknowledged.

Part III

To the Junior Class we leave the right and honors to be Seniors.

To the Freshmen and Sophomores we leave all the fun the Class of '52 has had.

Part IV

I, Gordy Sinclair, leave my crew cut to Mr. Janeway.
I, Ronnie Routson, leave my Santa Claus suit to Leroy Hauff.
I, Bill Kiehn, leave Margie, but boys beware.
I, Rex Ivins, leave my ability to drive in and out of snow banks to Jack S.
I, Bob Gere, leave my modesty to anyone who likes to brag.
I, Leroy Putnam, leave my Sousaphone to Dick Fischer.
I, Fritz Gere, leave my week-ends to Terry Kuch.
I, Carol Smithson, leave my nickname "Stretch" to Betty Retzer.
I, Arlyce Morrow, leave, by the nearest exit.
I, Janice Coiell, leave my remarks to Donna Gray.
I, Jean Thrift, leave my ability to go steady with one man at a time to Ruby D.
I, Ruth Ownby, leave for the nearest door, but fast.
I, Marie Nelson, leave my glasses to anyone.
I, Ina Rose Valentine, leave my quiet ways to my brother Fred.
I, Dee Fischer, leave my angelic look when a teacher catches me to Freddy H.
I, Joyce Barnes, leave my ability to wash windows to Jerry R. and Jim.

Part V

We the Senior Class are leaving battered books, beat up lockers and a few unsteady desks. We are leaving but the memories of the fun at P.H.S. will always be with us.

Part VI

We hereby declare this our last will and testament in the year of Nineteen-Hundred and Fifty Two.
Prophecy

I gasped when I saw the future of the class of 1952 in my crystal ball. As I sit there gazing into it, I see myself visiting some of my classmates.

Fritz Gere is now a lawyer. He has a wife, money, and a good business, for he handles only criminal cases.

In the same city I see Bob Gere sitting in his office. He is the President of the Planetary Space Ship Lines and owns two planets. I'm sitting and talking with Bob when Rex Ivins walks in. Has he changed! He's 7 feet and 1 inch tall and is a pilot for Bob. Rex agrees to fly me back to New York in a Space Ship. Before I go I find out that Gordy is running a trap line deep in Alaska, fur away from all women. His first four wives left him.

On the way down the street as we leave, I see Joyce Barnes name in lights. Rex says she is a Bubble Dancer and hands out pins at the door. Rex says he broke 3 in a row once.

I have to mail a letter in the Post Office before I go and guess whose picture is on the stamp? Arlyce Morrow. Yes, she now poses for 3 cent postage stamps. On the corner out side the Post Office, Jean Thrift is lecturing on the bad effects of liquor and cigarettes. We ask her why, and she said that she is working her way through a mission school. SHOCK!

We find out from Jean that Ina Rose Valentine is down in Hooten Holler, Tennessee, where she runs a beauty of a saloon, I mean a Beauty Salon. Ruth Ownby works for her by picking up hair pins.

As Rex and I fly out of town we see a big brick building on top of a hill where Mr. Johnson is a speech teacher to hair-lip Southerners without a southern drawl.

We land at New York City and immediately buy a paper, the Daily Tribune, of which Janice Coriell is editor. She's come quite a ways hasn't she? Reading the society page we see that Dee Fischer has become engaged. She is going to give up her career as an English Teacher.
PROPHECY

In the movie ads we see that Marie Nelson is now starring in a Western Picture. She’s now playing in “Two Gun Marie Rides Again.” The second feature is Spike Jones Band, featuring LeRoy (It ain’t pretty but it’s loud) Putnam and his Suzaphone.

On the advertisement page I read that there is a circus in town. I go down because I haven’t seen a circus in a long time. Walking a long I hear “Shrimp Boats” in clear deep bass notes. It’s Carol Smithson blowing through her nose in an odd way. We talk to her awhile and find out she is married to Ron Routson who wrestles in a side show, too. He weighs 250 and takes on all comers. Ron and Carol have two little wrestlers and two little shrimpboat players.

I then hail a cab and hurry to Madison Square Garden where my Basketball team is playing. They are my wife and my quintuplets known as “Kiehns Little Dividends.” They average 6’8” in height.

I guess all in all the class of 1952 is doing all right.
SENIOR TRIP

The Class of 1952 decided to go to Olympia for our trip, so on the evening of April 3 some of the senior boys put up our letter on Mr. Bergren's shed and at 6:00 A.M. Friday morning, April 4, a bunch of eager seniors met at the school and started over Biewett and Squealmie Passes for Olympia.

We arrived in Olympia about 10:30 and after the girls changed their clothes, we went to lunch then toured the Capitol building. Some of the boys even talked to the Governor.

About 2:00 we went to Seattle, where we visited a Curio Shop and an Aquarium. The girls then went shopping for a while, then we went to Crawford's and Skipper's for supper then to a show.

At about 12:30 A.M. Saturday, we started home and after no trouble at all, we arrived back in Peshastin about 4:00 a very tired, but happy class.

The Loggers had a record of seven straight wins when they lost a heartbreaker to Dryden by four points. After the Dryden game the Loggers went out loaded for bear and proved that they still had what it took by thoroughly spanking the Cashmere Bulldogs. The Loggers played their best game of the year when they beat Leavenworth for the first time in seven years on their own floor.

The Loggers went into the tournaments determined to make a good showing. They captured first place in County by beating Dryden in a close game and then winning a thriller from Chelan. They didn't have too much trouble at the District tournament and came out ahead with first place and a trip to the State tournament at Tacoma. On February 15, 1952, one of the most important school elections, especially to the senior girls, was held. This election was for the purpose of choosing a girl to represent the community of Peshastin in the 33rd Apple Blossom Festival to be held in Wenatchee, May 1-2-3. I was the lucky person chosen and I want to say that it is indeed one of the happiest memories that I shall ever have.

With Arlyce Morrow and Carol Smithson as my attendants, we reigned over the annual Senior Ball which was held Saturday, April 19, in the high school gymnasium. This was a very exciting moment for the three of us. The gymnasium was decorated to the theme of "The Desert Song." The throne was a large white and gold oriental turban with "Queen Janice" written on it in black letters. Punch stands, representing rock wells, were placed at either end of the gymnasium. Orange and yellow crepe paper streamers covered the ceiling, and desert scenes of an oasis, camels, sand dunes, and moslem cities decorated three of the four walls. Opposite the throne, there was a raised platform for the orchestra. The grand march was led by Ron Routson and Shirley Kinscherf to the music of Jack Brownlow’s band. After the grand march, I was crowned Queen of the Senior Ball by Mr. Johnson and presented with a bouquet of red roses, compliments of the junior class who did all the work and deserve the credit for the decorations.

During the festival, May 1-2-3, I and 46 other out-of-town princesses stayed at the Y.M.C.A. and had the use of all the facilities within.

Events that I and the other 46 girls attended during our stay in Wenatchee were: a tea given at an East Wenatchee residence, the Coronation program where Virginia Click was crowned Queen Virginia II of the Washington State Apple Blossom Festival, a banquet given at the Cascadian Hotel in honor of the out-of-town princesses and the Queen’s Ball, held in the high school gymnasium. At the ball each princess walked the length of the gym under a spotlight, bowed to Queen Virginia, and then spent the rest of the evening dancing to the music of the Harvey Boys.

Saturday summed up about the happiest moment of my being Princess Peshastin when I rode on our float and displayed our second place ribbon.
