1952
DEDICATION

Members of the 1952 LECAPI staff wish to dedicate this annual to the Band Mothers' Club and other community organizations who contributed to the band project.

Newly organized this year, the Band Mothers' Club had as their main project, raising money for the new band trousers. Under their leadership, much enthusiasm was raised throughout the community which lead to the purchase of the attractive trousers.

Special commendation goes to the basketball boys, students, and spectators who, through their cooperation, succeeded in winning a sportsmanship trophy for the fourth consecutive year.

We of the LECAPI staff extend a special thanks to everyone who so unselfishly contributed their time and energy to help make this 1952 yearbook possible.

MRS. J. T. WEST

Completing his second year as superintendent of the Leavenworth Public Schools, Mr. M. C. Strauss has seen the new elementary building progress from rough sketch to reality.

Supervising the entire school system as well as co-ordinating all agencies in connection with the construction of the new John H. Osborn Elementary school have kept Mr. Strauss busy this past year.

Mrs. J. T. West is his personal secretary. She has been with the school district for seven years.

MR. C. C. SCOFIELD

For the past six years, Mr. Scofield has been principal of Leavenworth High School. This year, Mr. Scofield had six capable assistants to help him in the administrative duties of the high school, LEFT TO RIGHT, they were: Jody Parkins, Betty Jo Nelson, Mary Jo Boring, Delta Telford, Marilyn Haugh, and Imogene Parton.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

On a bright, sunny September 3 in early fall of 1940, forty-seven shy, but determined children, began their first step up the ladder of education. Of these, there are eight students of the 1952 graduating class who have attended all twelve years of school at Leavenworth: June Stegeman, Mary Jo Boning, Carol Chard, Jerry Franklin, Mary Zoe Matteler, Bob Duncan, Bob Titchenal, and Byron Dickinson. Although Ilene Stevens, Marilyn Haugh, and Byron Reece also began with the 1940 class, they left at various times to return at a later year to graduate with the class.

During the next eight years, these students went about their various methods of learning the basic fundamentals of their education: reading, 'riting, and 'rithmetic. Many new students came during these hectic, but enjoyable, years. Those who continued were: Imojean Parton, Bruce Gregory, Jay Delzer, Jack Manning, Mike McKinney, Matt Shore, Betty Jo Nelson, Betty Custer, Delta Telford, Shirley Benedict, Shirley Miner, and Gladys Porter.

Jody Parkins came to Leavenworth in the fifth grade but left in the seventh only to return in her senior year. Bob Hanson entered the Leavenworth schools in the seventh grade, withdrew in the ninth and returned in his sophomore year.

Mary Jo Boning and Bob Burrows were awarded the American Legion award when the class held their eighth grade graduation exercises.

Upon entering the institution of higher learning, forty-one freshmen received the annual welcome (?) into high school. Of the new students that year, Lecil Dull, Duane Easterly, and Jim Morgan remained to graduate this year.

The next year found the new sophomore class with forty-four members. Just two of the new students that year, Mary Monesmith and Lou Van Gelder, continued the grind with the '52ers. To our disappointment we found that we were still considered underclassmen. In the spring of that year we sponsored the freshman-sophomore picnic at Recreation Park.

We greeted Leavenworth High the following fall with thirty-eight students. We were juniors now, and finally considered as upperclassmen. Our junior play, "Galloping Ghosts" was an outstanding success. We sponsored the junior-senior banquet and prom, which was added to our list of "successes of the year." Of the new members that year, Marcia MacDonald and JoAnne Spokely graduated with us.

And then on the twenty-seventh of August, 1951, we finally acclaimed ourselves seniors, "Big Wheels of Grizzlyville." Thirty-three students started the last lap of their high school education. We gained two new students this year, Myrna Reser and Jim Nelson.

To start the year in a big way, we gave the class of 55 a royal welcome into that wonderful life as high school students.

We presented our second dramatic production, "One Foot In Heaven," which continued our laurels in the drama line.

In the spring we were honored by the traditional junior-senior banquet and prom. The senior sneak was on May 23, this year, Seattle being our destination. Sunday June 1, marked the date of Baccalaureate which was held at the Methodist Church and on June 3, Commencement exercises were held in the high school gym.

We now say farewell to a wonderful life which we have left behind, but will never forget.

JUNIORS

Big events for the class of '53 were the play, "Arsenic and Old Lace," and the Junior-Senior Prom. With Miss Schnackel and Mr. Boyd as sponsors, the class also held the "Pumpkin Prom"—Halloween dance, and came in first in the March of Dimes and Red Cross drives. Class officers were: Arne Bradshaw, president; Knute Bakke, vice president; Joanne Nelson, secretary; Beverly Norris, treasurer; Barbara Houston and Bob Earl, council representatives.

The juniors chose as their class colors, aqua and silver, with the class flower being the white rose. The motto is "Semper Fidelis to the class of '53."

Senior Grizzlies

Playing their last season for the Leavenworth High School Grizzlies, were eleven seniors:

BOB HANSON, mainstay of the team for three years, sparked the squad with his running, passing, and punting.

BYRON REECE, one of the heaviest backs in the district, stood out for his tackling ability and was the powerhouse of the Grizzly eleven.

BYRON DICKINSON was a hard, charging guard both on defense and offense during the '51 season.

LECIL DULL, though plagued by injuries, was valuable for his running ability and team spirit.

BOB DUNCAN, right end on the Grizzly squad, alternated also as defensive halfback.

JERRY FRANKLIN, blocking halfback, was the fastest man on the squad and also helped in spirit.

JACK MANNING, playing his first year for LHS, was offensive end and stood out in his kicking and blocking.

DUANE EASTERLY, hard-tackling defensive man, played his first season for the Red and Black.

JAY DELZER boosted the team along with his fine spirit and hard-hitting line work at left guard.

MIKE McKINNEY kept the team going with his energy and morale. He substituted for the quarterback spot and helped on defense.

BRUCE GREGORY, although he didn't play much, was full of jokes for his team and was always ready for action.

There were seven seniors on the first ten of this year's basketball squad. BYRON REECE, playing during his senior year, set a new season record by scoring 361 points. BOB HANSON was starting guard for two years and a forward during the past season. He set a new single game scoring record with 29 points. JACK MANNING was guard on the first five and was noted for his all-around ability. DUANE EASTERLY, forward, stood out for his scrapiness and good work on the backboards. JIM NELSON, a six foot five transfer from Highline, helped considerably on the backboard. JERRY FRANKLIN was the substituting guard on the first ten. MIKE McKINNEY played his last season at LHS as a guard for the first ten.

"B" SQUAD

SKIING

Coaching his team to a successful season was Mr. Glenn Young, a newcomer to LHS, in his first year as ski coach. Magnus Bakke, Junior Ski club advisor, assisted Coach Young with the ski team.

The traveling ski team consisted of Knute Bakke, Duane Brown, Byron Dickinson, and Bob Duncan. Byron Dickinson and Duane Brown were chosen to represent Washington State on the American Legion Ski Team at Sun Valley, Idaho.

In the first meet, a four-way event against Wenatchee, Leavenworth lost out by a fraction of a point. The next week end at the Walla Walla four-way, the boys took third behind Walla Walla and Wenatchee. February 2-3, the State four-way meet was held at Leavenworth with the Grizzlies taking second in the ski fest by coping three firsts and other honors. Duane Brown was State downhill champ, Knute Bakke, State jumping champ, and Byron Dickinson, State slalom and four-way champ. In the PNSA Combined, Dickinson placed third, Brown fifth, Duncan seventh, and Bakke eighth. The team as a whole took second place. At the West Kootenay Inter-High school ski meet, LHS took second in the Nordic Combined and eighth in the four-way. The highest score was second in jumping. At the Beta Cup meet at Stevens Pass the team came in eighth. Later on, at the Wenatchee four-way, Knute Bakke placed first in jumping and fourth in combined. Byron Dickinson took third in the cross-country and second in combined. In the last meet of the year, the Walla Walla PNSA, the Grizzlies took fourth place.
Leavenworth won half their games during the 1952 baseball season. They tied with Dryden for the National league championship only to lose out in the play-off, which was held at Cashmere.

Four of the boys will be gone next year by way of graduation. Byron Reece played first base and had a .259 batting average. Bob Hanson at short stop and Jack Manning at second base held down the center of an alert and quick-thinking infield. Duane Easterly pitched camp in center field for this, his final season at LHS.

TRACK

Track in LHS, under the expert coaching of "Link" MacPherson, was quite successful this year. In the first meet of the year at Moses Lake, the thinclds took only a few of the lower place ribbons. They did much better in the next meet at Cashmere, placing second as a team and taking firsts in the 440, mile, and the shot-put. The next week the Grizzlies were nosed out by Wenatchee at Cashmere to take second place. They captured six firsts: 440, mile, shot, discus, javelin, and the pole-vault. The following week, LHS took second place in a meet at Wenatchee, copping firsts in the javelin and pole-vault.

At the Apple Blossom Invitational, the team placed sixth. Duncan and Easterly tied for fourth in the 440. The boys took second in the pole-vault, third in the shot, fourth in the mile, fourth in the javelin, and the relay team placed fourth.

Leavenworth did well at the county meet, where they won second in the 440, third in the mile, fourth in the broad jump, third and fourth in the high jump, the first four places in the pole-vault, second in the shot-put, second and fourth in the javelin and third in the discus. Five boys went on to district. Haugh tied for second in the pole-vault; Duncan captured third in the 440; Reece got second in the shot-put; and Hauck made second in the javelin.
INTRAMURALS

This year's intramural teams played a five-game schedule, running three games every Wednesday night. The teams were: Delzer's Best, Morgan's Jackrabbits, Franklin's Jailbaits, Parton's Greenies, Couch's Hotshots, and Folansby's Vikings.

SMOKER

Moses Lake edged Leavenworth in the Spring Smoker. They won two bouts and two wrestling matches, while LHS took two boxing matches. There were several intramural bouts and tumbling tricks. Moses Lake featured a trampoline exhibition.

TUMBLING

Three boys composed this year's tumbling team. They put on exhibitions at several basketball games and participated in the Spring Smoker. This year, awards were given the team members for the first time.

Thirty boys and two managers made up the lettermen of LHS, with some of them lettering in more than one sport. A tumbling emblem was added this year. LHS garnered only two trophies, those being in basketball. Ski trophies won were all individual trophies with none going to the high school. Hail to the twelve senior lettermen who helped LHS win their share of victories and honors.

LIBRARY

Mrs. Kean and the student librarians began the year by thoroughly cleaning and repairing old books. Mike McKinney was elected head librarian at the beginning of the second semester.
Lecapi and Voice

VOICE Staff was composed of 12 seniors and 7 juniors during the first semester with Mary Zoe Motteler as editor and Marcia Lee MacDonald, Carol Chard, Imojean Parton, and Bob Hanson as assistant editors. Marlene Brender was editor during the second semester when there were 7 seniors and 4 juniors on the staff. Jerry Franklin, Betty Custer, Jody Parkins, and Bob Hanson were associate editors. Mr. Jack Boyd was advisor of the journalism staff. Four members of the VOICE were elected to represent the paper at the FSSP Clinic in Seattle. Those who attended were: Mary Zoe Motteler, Joanne Nelson, Bob Earl, and Gerald Folansby.

Seniors added another successful production to dramatics of LHS when they presented Hartzell Spence's "One Foot in Heaven," on November 16, under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Peterson and student directors, Marilyn Haugh and Ilene Stevens.

March 28 was the night of the junior play, "Arsenic and Old Lace." This three-act comedy was centered around the activities in the home of Abby and Martha Brewster who secretly poisoned old men, Mrs. Peterson also directed this play, with Arlene King as student director.

Leavenworth High School had their share of royalty during the past year. Imojean Parton reigned as the first Homecoming Queen of LHS. Attendants from each class were elected to complete the royal party. Her princesses were; Ruth Nelson, sophomore; Marilyn Haugh, senior; Beverly Norris, junior; Rose Alyce McGahuey, freshman.

With Jody Parkins and Bob Duncan as King and Queen of the Girls' club Tolo, "White Christmas" came early to those who attended the formal dance with music provided by the Mood Makers. Delta Telford, Jay Delzer, Byron Reece and Myrna Reser were attendants. Little Zoe Marie Rutherford and David Jensen carried the crowns.

Another first was added when Marilyn Haugh was chosen as Ski Queen. In the past it had been the custom to combine Ski Queen and Princess Leavenworth. Jody Parkins and Imojean Parton along with Queen Marilyn I reigned over the annual Leavenworth Ski Tournament.

Last, but by no means least, was the selection of Imojean Parton to represent the community as Princess Leavenworth at the Apple Blossom Festival.
PROM

Mary Jo Boning and Bob Hanson reigned at the annual Junior Senior Prom, which was held May 17. With a theme representing "The Gay Nineties," they were crowned atop a barber chair. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Mood Makers of Renton.

May 23 marked the date of the much anticipated Senior Sneak. Thirty-one seniors and their chaperones traveled to Seattle where they first had breakfast at the University of Washington. Visits to Woodland Park and Volunteer Park were next and then Lake Wilderness was the final destination. Swimming, boating, roller skating, and eating were the main highlights of the stay at the lake.
LEAVENWORTH BAND

APPLEBLOSSOM

Our peppy LHS band looked very snappy in their new black trousers and with four new pearl snare drums and a pearl base drum. The band was entered in the class C division of the Apple Blossom Parade in May. It received a gold ribbon which signified an excellent rating.

Princess Imojean rode on the Leavenworth float with a big white shoe as her throne. The float had as its theme, "Paradise in Your Own Back Yard," and featured several camp fire girls and cub scouts. It won third place in the community division of the festival.

Carol Chard served as the very capable band majorette this year. Carol will be remembered for her outstanding performance for many years.
