We, the Lomoa Staff of 1953, dedicate this annual to the Memory of Earl Smith, the classmate and friend of all, who died April 5, 1953, a polio victim.
Earl had been a member of the class of '54 since the third grade.
Among his achievements during his three years in high school were:
  Member of the Lomoa Staff 2
  Assistant Editor of the Hi-Log 3
  Assistant Manager of Athletics 2
  Manager of Athletics 3
  Furnished entertainment at various school activities with his Spanish guitar and harmonica
Mr. Harold L. Janeway, Superintendent, has been with Peshastin High School since 1943. He graduated from the University of Washington, with BBA degree, in 1936, and he received his Normal Diploma from the U. of W. in '36. He teaches the commercial subjects at PHS.

SUPERINTENDENT

The first Peshastin High School students were housed in the old grade school building which was built in 1908. In 1916 the building was gutted by fire and, besides being repaired, it was added to. The quarters got quite crowded as time went on so the present high school building was constructed. The dedication of the new building was held November 15, 1931.

That first year (1931-32) the graduating class consisted of eight students and, as the years rolled by, many students crossed the threshold of Peshastin High School, 1953 sneaked around and sixteen students proudly received their diplomas on May 25, adding to the list of P. H. S. alumni and leaving the memorable building.

During the 1952-53 school year the school business was under the able direction of Superintendent Harold L. Janeway, Principal J. B. Johnson, and the School Board composed of the following: Gus A. Rudolph, Chairman; Donald W. Nicholson, Clerk; Alfred A. Pflugrath, Alfred N. Fuller, Roy D. Evans.

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of '53, being of sound mind and body, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I
To the Juniors, we leave the right and honor of being "Big" Seniors.

ARTICLE II
To the sophomores and freshmen, we leave poor old battered up P. H. S., hoping they will take better care of it.

ARTICLE III
To Mr. Johnson, our principal and advisor, we leave memories of our perfect class, and the admit slips and tardy slips we never had. Gosh, won't you miss us!
To Mr. Warman, we leave sixteen more characters for his stories.
To Miss Stevens, Mrs. Stephens, Mr. Janeway and Mr. Kapral, we leave the happy thought that we are gone.

ARTICLE IV
Jerome (Jerry) Reister leaves his "Romeo" ways to his brother Arlo.
Carol Snyder reluctantly leaves Fred, but hands off, girls.
Virgil Rosenquist leaves his crazy ways to anyone who wants to act that way.
Doretta Larson leaves Gary at the mercy of Miss Stevens.
Mary Ann Gray leaves her ability to skip school without getting caught to her sister Donna, and her sweet smile to all the sour-pusses of P. H. S.
Dorothy Ownby leaves her quiet ways to Carol Valentine.
Margie Rhodes leaves all the boys' hearts a flutter.
Norma Classen leaves graduation night to unknown places.
Duane Flick leaves his mischievous ways to Neil Jeske.
Jimmy Weaver leaves his night life to Dale Snyder and Darold Hauff.
Toni Farris leaves her sense of humor and eighteenth birthday party to Deanna Hauff.
Donnie Radke and Dennis Paulsen leave their ukeleles to Chuckie Gettman and Dale Larson and warn them not to play in study hall.
Ruth Ann Cowan leaves all her good times with Betty Retzer to Ruby Daniels.
Nola Rankin leaves all her headaches as Lomoa Editor to Jean Miller.
Mary Lou Cowan leaves Freddie to any girl who wants him.
I was driving through Tennessee, after a visit with Mr. Johnson, who is home on a vacation from Africa where he teaches Social Problems to the aborigines, when I heard shots coming from the hills, and then I saw Jimmy Weaver running out of the trees. He jumped in beside me and said, "Step on it, Babe, them revenuers done found my still." Jimmy said he guessed he'd ride with me as far as the border and we stopped on the way to say goodbye to his wife, the former Carol Snyder, and their seventeen kids.

Jimmy really was surprised when I told him about Margie Rhodes, I lost a lot of money at Margie's on the way to Tennessee from California. She runs a crooked gambling joint in Reno, and I was quite shocked to see her there, cranking the roulette wheel and dealing out Black Jack between spins.

After dropping Jimmy off at the border, I went on to New Orleans, where I stopped at a night club called "Denny's. I soon learned that it was one of a chain of night clubs owned by Dennis Paulsen, the multi-millionaire. Dennis made his first million when he discovered the dancer, Mary Lou Cowan, who stars in his shows under the name of "Denny's Dancing Yankee, the Southern Beauty from the North Road."

After the show, I went down to the waterfront and was watching the boats come in when I heard a booming bass voice shout, "Ahoy, there, stranger." It took me a while to recognize Norma Classen, who, inspired by Ruby Gentry, had become captain of a shrimp boat. Norma told me she had just seen Nola Rankin, who is making a fortune diving for pearls off the Florida Keys. I left Norma mending her nets and set off for a visit to Miami before I headed North.

They were having the Clam Diggers' Convention in Miami, and as I was surprised to see a picture of Ruth Ann Cowan, with a shovel in one hand and a clam in the other, on the front page of the paper. She had been elected "Miss Clam Digger of 1973."

I drove north, then, and as I neared New York, I saw a very familiar looking person putting up posters on telephone poles. I could hardly believe it when I recognized May Ann Gray. She told me she was now publicity manager for the Washington Huskies and was advertising their next game in Madison Square Garden.
CLASS PROPHECY CONT'D.

I went on into New York and stopped to see my old friend, Duane Flick, who is head waiter at the Stork Club. While Duane was showing me the town, we saw a big black Cadillac sedan run through a stop light and Duane said that it was "Pinky" Rosenquist, alias "The Mad Swede," who is a big time racketeer in New York and smuggles stuff in from Copenhagen.

Duane then took me down to the docks to see Jerome Reister off for Siam. Jerome is a retired 8-star general, and is planning on starting a Siamese cat farm.

I was tired after so much excitement so I went back to my hotel room and turned on the television set. The first person who flashed on the screen was none other than the great new T.V. star, Tsa Tsa Farris, who is rapidly taking the place of Dagmar.

I decided I had seen enough of the East, so I headed west again, and stopped only for a short visit in my old home town. And, who should I find teaching English at old P.H.S., but Dorothy Ownby, the most popular English teacher yet.

When I finally got back to California, I went out of my way to take some provisions to Donnie Radke, who is living in a shack at the bottom of Death Valley. Donnie joined the army right after he graduated from high school twenty years ago, and has been A.W.O.L. for about nineteen and a half years now.

"SENIOR CLASS SONG"

(Tune: "Sentimental Journey")

When we entered school at old Peshastin
We were sure we'd never be
Brilliant, studious, clever upperclassmen
But, we made it gloriously,
We have hurdled every ob-stacle;
Solved each problem deep and hard,
How we got here is a pure mir-a-cle,
Must have been 'cause we worked so hard,
Schooldays, busy, happy, bygone schooldays,
We found out that working hard pays
In a lot of fun for everyone beneath the sun,
This advice to all you little freshmen
We hand out gra-tuit-ously:
Work and slave from dawn to after midnight
Then, you'll be as brilliant as WE.

We can spell these two-buck words we're singing,
Of such stuff our brains are full,
We can boast that we can spell a hundred
Words of just one syll-a-bull,
We could give you facts that would amaze you
But, our modesty forbids,
We will tell you now in deepest secret,
We're Peshastin's famous Quiz Kids!
Schooldays, busy, happy, bygone schooldays,
We found out that working hard pays
In a lot of fun for everyone beneath the sun,
We all know our hearts will be a-yearning
Any place we chance to be
For the old schoolhouse beside the river
And the Class of Fifty-three.

The members of the Class of '54 were pretty busy during their Junior year. Almost as soon as school started, it became their solemn duty to plan the Freshman initiation. During the year they sponsored two playnights. Then, in order to have money for their activities, they put on three dances, two benefit basketball games, and sold pop and candy at all high school basketball games, and also at some of the Lumberjack games. For the good of the school, they put on an assembly program, and for their own fun, had some class parties. Then, last but not least, they planned, decorated and put on the Ball that honors the Seniors, the "Senior Ball."

CLASS OF '56

The freshmen had a few class parties this year. One of them was in the high school auditorium and one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Boswell. One dance was sponsored by them. Another party was held at Boswell's after the Senior Ball.

Recognition is due the freshmen for their good job of cleaning up after the various activities which was their solemn duty by tradition.

Leavenworth
This year was a very successful one for the band which was under the able direction of Bill Jaeb.

The events participated in were: Music Festival, April 18; Band Concert, April 24; Manson Festival, May 2; Washington State Apple Blossom Festival Parade, May 9.

They should also be congratulated on their fine music they furnished at the basketball games played at home and at the Chelan County B basketball tournament, February 19, 20, 21.

Besides furnishing entertainment they enjoyed several social activities including a skating party at the Leavenworth Roller Rink and a wiener roast at Tumwater Recreation Area.

The people of the community deserve recognition for their help in obtaining the band uniforms. Contributions were made by various organizations, "a mile of pennies" drive was sponsored, and benefits were sponsored to secure these maroon uniforms trimmed in white and gold.
At approximately 7 a.m., the Senior Class met at the top of Blewitt Pass on their way to Seattle for their annual "Senior Trip."

The class went in three cars chaperoned by Mr. J. B. Johnson, Mr. Perry Flick, and Mr. and Mrs. George Cowan.

North Bend was the first stopping place where several ate their breakfast at a Cafe.

Snoqualmie Falls was the next stop where the beautiful sight of the falls was taken through the mist.

As we neared Seattle we stopped outside the gate of Sand Point Naval Air Base. There was a sign posted, "No Visitors Admitted," but, thanks to Mr. Johnson, we got permission to tour the base. A marine from Kansas guided us around the grounds. Most of the students and chaperones went through a P. B. M. Patrol Bomber and all went into the Control Tower. After watching planes take off and land we left the base and stopped at a restaurant for lunch.

Lunch completed, we drove around the University of Washington campus then headed for downtown Seattle where we were given our freedom to do as we wished.

Some of the sights taken in were the Curiosity Shop and Aquarium on the waterfront, the Smith Tower, and shopping district. Also, some went visiting and some went to a movie.

Five-thirty p.m. flew around and all met at the New Washington Hotel racing to go out for dinner at Skipper's Seafood Restaurant on the waterfront. We all enjoyed our seafood dinners, Miniature menus were obtained for souvenirs.

Next on the program was the Ice Follies where we enjoyed the beauty. This was a wonderful finale to our trip after which we, weary and tired, arrived home in the small hours of Saturday morn.
Peshastin, Entiat, Win Chelan County 'B' Crown

Defeat Manson, Dryden In Last Seconds Of Play

Freddie Hauff and Clem Little of Entiat are clutch ball players. They proved it last night in a never-to-be-forgotten game ever played in Chelan County.

Hauff tossed in the last shot to give his team a 37-35 win, while Little canned 20 seconds later, entitling Peshastin to defeat Dryden 40 to 37.

The losses eliminated Dryden from the tourney and Entiat to the semi-finals, but in the semi-final Entiat will start at 7:30 in the High Gym tonight.

Winners tonight will play for third and fourth places in the tournament, which will be held at Chelan, starting tomorrow.

The Peshastin and Entiat games are as close as possible, with Peshastin leading 27-20 at the 40-minute mark. Entiat then started a 17-4 run in the last five minutes of the game, giving Peshastin a 37-35 win.

Cheerleaders were elected this year in November, just before basketball season. The three girls that were chosen were Margie Rhodes, Mary Ann Gray and Marietta Holt. Marietta Holt moved away before the season was over. Cheers were led by Mary Ann and Margie. Toward the end of the season, Margie Rhodes was unable to finish the season. Mary Lou Cowan was chosen by the Student Body to take her place.

Basketball

This year's basketball team won 11 games losing 12. Nine games were 1 pointers winning 4 and losing 5. The team was coached by Mr. George Kapral. The team's captain this year was Jerry Reister and manager was Earl Smith. High point man was Freddie Hauff with 197 points. Fred Valentine had the most fouls, 88. Peshastin made 44% of its foul shots. The team was guilty of 431 personals and 7 technical fouls.

Baseball

The Loggers didn't have too successful a season with a 5 loss, 1 win, record. They finished their baseball season the 11th of May. The player with the highest batting average was Freddie Hauff, with .412. Neil Jeske was high scorer for the season with 6 runs.

The Loggers will lose only one player next year, Don Radke. They say experience counts most, so we'll see what happens next year.

BY PRINCESS MARGIE

On February 13, 1953, an election was held by the student body to elect a senior girl to represent the Peshastin community in the 34th annual Washington State Apple Blossom Festival which was to be held in Wenatchee, May 7, 8, and 9.

I, Margie Rhodes, was really thrilled and excited when they announced that I was to be "Queen" of the Senior Ball and "Princess Peshastin" at the festival. Mary Ann Gray and Toni Farris were elected for my "Princesses" and "Attendants."

My first big event was the Senior Ball, April 18. The theme was "Paper Moon" and the grade school auditorium was very beautifully decorated for the occasion. The ceiling was draped with blue and silver crepe paper with silver stars hanging from it. The throne was a white trellis with red roses woven through it. In back of the throne hung a large silver half moon with "QUEEN MARGIE" on it in blue letters.

Darold Hauff and Shirley Kinscherf led the Grand March to the music of Don Lanphere's orchestra. After the Grand March, I was crowned "Queen of the Senior Ball" by Mr. J. B. Johnson, high school principal. I was given a scepter and a beautiful bouquet of red roses.

The Juniors deserve all of the credit for the very beautifully decorated ball. The next exciting event was on May 7, 8, 9. I went to Wenatchee and registered at the YMCA where all the princesses stayed for those three days.

After registering we went to the Apple Bowl to practice for the coronation. At 7:45 in the evening we departed for the Coronation Program in which all the princesses took part at the crowning of Queen Carolyn Ellis.

Friday we went to the Jr. parade. All the princesses wore their banners to show everyone they were princesses and what towns they were from. After the parade we went back to the "Y" and then went to practice for the Queen's Ball. From there we went to the Horse Show.

Friday night a banquet was held at the Cascadian Hotel in honor of the Princesses. After the banquet we went to the Queen's Ball.

The biggest thrill of all to me was riding on the float, which received second prize in Division D.

The theme of the float was "The Treasure of Them All." It was a very beautiful float and my attendants and I enjoyed every minute of it and were very proud of showing our trophy.

This has been one of the greatest experiences of my life and something that I can look back on with fondest memories, and with deep appreciation. I wish to thank all of those who have made this event in my life possible.
