THE 1954 LECAPI

Published by Senior Class
LEAVENWORTH HIGH SCHOOL
Leavenworth, Washington
DEDICATION

We, the staff of the 1954 Lecapi, take pleasure in dedicating our annual to the football and baseball teams because of their outstanding performances in their respective sports this year.

The football team was the most talked about team in the league this year, as they upset both Chehal and Cashmere, an almost unheard of thing in the history of LHS football.

The baseball team was also a credit to Leavenworth's sport program this year. After a very successful regular season, the team went on to win the district championship, beating the Wenatchee Panthers by a score of 7-6 in a close, hard-fought game.

Special commendation goes to the Lions Club, The Chamber of Commerce, and the Band Mothers Club, who have done so much for the betterment of school life at Leavenworth High.

FOREWORD

In putting out this annual, we have tried to recapture the memories of school life this past year. As you read through this book, may you relive all your happy memories and enjoy the 1954 Lecapi as much as the staff has enjoyed working on it.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Of the fifty-one bewildered youngsters who crossed the threshold of education on August 31, 1942, only thirteen members of the original class remained to graduate. Those included in this group are Judy Kuch, Fred Harrison, Marion Harrison, Gordon Blaskowsky, Bob Root, Al Lake, Mary Bradshaw, Dolores Boning, Claude Egbert, Richard Dietsch, Ellen Hendrickson, Sally Guy, Duane Brown, and Marilyn Hauck.

Through the passing of the grades, the future class of '54 acquired eight more students, consisting of Ruth Nelson, Earlene Custer, Betty Plummer, Bruce Dickinson, JoAnn Putnam, Norman Miner, Wayne Roe, Mary Coffee, and Keith McGregor.

Five students moved away, only to return to graduate with the '54ers. They include Kenneth Brown, Shirley Morrow, Kermit Delzer, Jim Tedford and Walter McGahuey.

After eight years of learning methods of various education fundamentals of readin', 'ritin', and 'rithmetic, the big day finally arrived. Eighth grade graduation, with many proud parents watching their young "men" and "women" receive diplomas and various honors. Marilyn Hauck and Wayne Roe received the American Legion award as the outstanding girl and boy.

These students entered high school on September 5, 1950. Within a short time the lowly freshmen were seen pacing the halls with stacks of books, green bows, shoe polish, beautiful costumes of gunny sacks and short dresses. The Freshman Mixer, as usual, proved quite embarrassing to a number of the students. New members this year were Carol Mitchell, Harry and Louis Lowell, and Charles Lemons. This brought the attendance up to 46.

As sophomores, we could relax and laugh at the unsuspecting freshmen, for we were old members around LHS by now. The main event sponsored by us this year was the Freshman-Sophomore picnic held at the Golf Course. Hank Parkins was a new addition this year.

At last! We were upperclassmen. Shirley Morrow moved back to Leavenworth this year. Our tour of the Alcoa plant, the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom...the theme being "Moonlight and Roses" with Miss Schnackel and Mr. Millison as class sponsors. We also presented our class play "Henrietta the Eighth" under the direction of Mrs. Peterson. These were the main events of our junior year.

Fall brought the class back as seniors. After twelve years of agony (we thought) we could finally look back and really dread the thought of graduation. Newcomers this year were June Ehlers and Ray Russell. Jim Telford returned after a years absence to graduate with his class.

The Junior-Senior Prom, sneak day, Baccalaureate, and Commencement brought to a close our last and most interesting year of school.

SENIOR SNEAK

Bright and early on May 25, the seniors met at the Forest Service and set out on their sneak. The first stop was to tour Grand Coulee Dam, and from there, they went to Sun Lakes State Park. In spite of the cold weather, they enjoyed swimming, hiking, and golfing.

Entering the ranks of the upperclassmen, the junior class worked diligently throughout the entire year.

In March they combined their talents to present their class play which was entitled "The Cannibal Queen." This comedy in three acts proved to be one of the most successful productions in LHS in many years.

As money raising projects they sponsored the movie "Rhapsody in Blue," sold concessions at a football and basketball game, has a candy sale, and sponsored a dance.

For their final project, they honored the seniors at the annual Prom and Banquet. The theme of "South Pacific" was beautifully carried out in the decorations.

They also had charge of the high school Christmas program. They provided entertainment at a meeting of the local PTA and they were also invited to present the same program at Cashmere.

GIRLS' CLUB CABINET

"Meet Me Tonight in Dreamland" was the theme of the annual Tolo. The Mother's Tea wasn't held this year with the idea that it will be alternated with the Tolo in the future.

BOYS' CLUB

CONCERT BAND

Again the music department was one of the most active groups in the school. With the aid of the Band Mothers, the nine months of school proved very successful.

The band marched at all of the football games, the County fair, our Winter Carnival, and the Apple Blossom Festival. Band Night was also on the agenda this term and was the best one ever.

The chorus, although not very large this year, added much in the way of music at the concerts with their varied musical selections.

Both the band and the chorus participated in the NCW Music Festival at Wenatchee in April.

For the first time this year we had two flag twirlers marching with the band.

NONETTE

Ellen Hendrickson and Ken Brown reigned as king and queen of the annual Tolo. Attendants were June Ehlers and Clayton Johnson, and Sally Guy and Wayne Roe.

Preceded by the marching band and the majorettes, Princess Ruth Nelson graced the Leavenworth float at the 35th annual Washington State Apple Blossom Festival. The theme for this year's decorations was "The Shortest Route Between Seattle and Spokane."

Queen Ellen Hendrickson welcomed all of the alumni to Homecoming. Princesses were Pat Smith—sophomore, Ruth Nelson—senior, Sharon Coffee—junior, Ann Ellis—freshman.
Shirley Morrow and Gordon Blaskowsky were crowned by Sherry Speer with orchid leis flown from Hawaii, and re-crowned by Mr. Strauss as King and Queen of the Junior-Senior Prom “South Pacific.”

Queen Sally Guy and Princesses Ruth Nelson and Ellen Hendrickson made up the royal party which ruled over this year’s Winter Carnival.

LIBRARY STAFF

Edyth Hendrickson was elected head librarian this year and the staff again made posters and helped make the library a peaceful and quiet study place. Miss Osborne was the new librarian this year.

PROJECTION CLUB

The duty of the Projection Club is to show movies and slides to the various classes and organizations. Although the group wasn't as large as in previous years it was just as efficient. Dolores Boning was manager of the group and Mr. Rembold was the advisor.

ATHLETICS
FOOTBALL

Coach Norland King, in his first season as coach of the LHS eleven, gave his team its most successful season in many years. The Grizzlies scored two big upsets in as many weeks by downing their arch rivals, The Cashmere Bulldogs and the Chelan Goats; thus getting the season off to a good start.

The team lost to the Alumni in a preliminary game, but the only major defeat of the season was suffered at the hands of the Ephrata Tigers, who scored the winning TD's in the last four minutes of play.

Gene McGahuey was elected honorary captain of the season and Jack Mayfield was voted as the Inspirational Player.

In spite of the advantage of having five returning lettermen—Gene McGahuey and Ken Brown, Bob Root, Jack Mayfield, and Gordon Blaskowsky—plus the addition of Wayne Roe at Center, the Grizzly quintet had a hard time bringing many wins to LHS. However, in spite of the unimpressive record of 6 wins and 16 losses, they showed spirit and drive usually losing the game by a margin of less than 10 points. Gene McGahuey was high-point man, followed by Wayne Roe and Jack Mayfield.

SKIING

This year's ski team was not sponsored by the school, but was under the joint sponsorship of the Leavenworth Winter Sports Club and the Junior Ski Club with Mr. Cave as their supervisor.

Jumping was strong point for this year's squad with Duane Brown, a senior, setting the pace. Duane brought back a first place from Leavenworth and Kamloops, B.C., a second place from Wenatchee, and he also won the B-2 jumping event at the annual Leavenworth Ski Tournament.

Also bringing recognition to the team was another senior, Clayton Johnson. Clayton brought back a fourth place from Wenatchee, Kamloops, B.C., and Spokane, and a sixth place from Leavenworth.

The remaining members of the squad were Bruce Dickinson and Louis Lowell, seniors, Clarence Ostello, a junior, and Wade Detilllan, a freshman. The two other skiers were eighth graders Jim Brennan and Jim Hodgen. Although they did not place, they showed much promise and big things are expected of them in years to come.
BASEBALL

This year's diamond squad proved to be a real asset to Leavenworth High School sports this year. Coached by Mr. Rothnie, they lost only one league game. After winning the league championship, the Grizzlies went on to defeat Bridgeport for the bi-county championship, earning the right to play Pateros in the semi-finals of the district. After downing the Billygoats, they went on to win the district championship by beating the Wenatchee Panthers in a close game with the Grizzlies coming out victorious after two extra innings. We're proud of you, boys and Coach Rothnie.

TRACK

With returning lettermen the Grizzlies did comparatively well with many promising underclassmen coming up. The track squad captured seven firsts, 15 seconds, 16 thirds and 11 fourths.

Two members went to district. They were Walt McGahuey and Clayton Johnson.

Kermit Delzer .......... .440 Walt McGahuey .......... 880-Javelin
Frank Gratz .......... Broad jump Keith McGregor .......... Mile
Larry Ward .......... .880 Jack Mayfield .......... Javelin

MARBLE CHAMP
Leo Clothier, a freshman, won recognition for himself in a way unusual to high school sports. The VFW sponsored a marble tournament which Leo entered. He won first place in both the local and district play, and came in sixth at the state meet at Ellensburg.

SMOKER
The Athletic Club again sponsored their annual "Smoker" to raise money for the athletic fund. It was held on March 20, and featured boxing, wrestling, and tumbling. A special feature this year that had a lot of audience appeal was tag-team wrestling.

JUNIOR HIGH INTRAMURALS
LETTERMEN

KEN BROWN lettered in three sports—football, basketball, and track. In the latter he lettered four years as a pole vaulter.

WALT MCGAHUEY has proven to be one of LHS' better athletes. He was high point man in basketball, was on the football team, and ran the mile in track.

WAYNE ROE is the only boy who has lettered in all four sports during his high school career. Football and baseball have received most of his attention. This year he was named on the NCW first eleven.

GORDON BLASKOWSKY will be long remembered by Leavenworth sports fans because of the many games he pitched for the baseball team. He also lettered in football and basketball.

BOB ROOT, who has been the baseball team's catcher during his high school years, has set a high standard for oncoming aspirants. He also lettered in basketball and football.

KEITH MCREDGER is another miler on Mr. McPherson's track squad. This is the first year he lettered.

CLAYTON JOHNSON has spent most of his time with the ski team, but has also contributed to track and football.

HANK PARKINS during his high school career, has lettered in both football and track.

CHARLES LEMON, better known as Chuck, hasn't participated in sports very much, but he did letter in track as the shot-putter.

DUANE BROWN has set the pace for the ski team and brought home most of the points. In the fall he devoted his energies to quarterbacking the football team.

NORMAN MINER participated in sports this year for the first time and lettered in football.

KERMIT DELZER has been a mainstay on the track team and also managed to letter in football.

BRUCE DICKINSON was a skier for LHS as well as charging lineman in football.

RICHARD DIETSCH has devoted his athletic energy to football.

CLAUDE EGBERT turned out faithfully and this year lettered in football, basketball, and baseball.

JIM HARRINGTON came to Leavenworth from Bellingham this year and lettered as a member of Coach King's football team.
