Foreword

With the passing of time, the echoes of our school life will grow fainter and fainter, and then die away. Gone forever will be the routine of school life, the fun we had, and the friends we made. It is the hope of the 1955 Lomoa Stall that, as you glance through this book in the years to come, you will recapture those moments--and the echoes will begin again.

It was 5:30 in the morning on board the USS Peshastin, the biggest aircraft carrier the US owns. As Admiral of the fleet the bridge had told me that one of my friends, Dale Snyder, was landing in his atomic powered Flying Saucer. His crew consisted of Darrel Deeg, Chief Pilot; Phillip Latimer, the gun and atomic plant polisher, and Ruby Daniels, his wife. They were having trouble landing a smaller saucer which held their 10 children. They landed and started talking to one of the sailors, which is against the rules but this was an exception. He was Leroy Hauff chipping paint off the deck. (Leroy didn't know that would be his job when he signed for 20 years of active duty.)

I came down to meet him and we were walking along the deck when Dale saw someone he knew. It was John Jeske trying to tie the square knot which he must learn before he can get out of the Navy. He didn't recognize us.

We met a nurse walking on the deck and it was hard to believe that she was Pearl Smith. She looked very well and she said that she is enjoying herself traveling the seas.

After we left Pearl we saw two recognizable but sad faces. Why, they were Bill Folden and Gary Routson, the sharp-shooters of the Navy. It seemed that Lillie Mae Rayfield, the modern Annie Oakley and Dick Fischer, a second to Buffalo Bill, had just out shot Gary and Bill in a shooting contest which was quite surprising for Lillie hadn't done much shooting since she left Tennessee and their feuds.

Dale said it was almost time for him and his family to set off for Mars but I suggested he stay and see some of our visitors before he left. The visitors had been our faculty when we were in high school. They were Miss Stevens, Mrs. Burnett, Mr. Warman, Mr. Janeway and Mr. Johnson. The school board decided they needed a vacation after teaching for 34 years, but they still hadn't recovered from the shock of seeing the dear, quiet class of '55 graduate.
Last Will And Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1955, being in our right mind do bequeath, and bequit, leave, give, and get rid of the following things to all of the lowly creatures left at P.H.S.
To next year’s Seniors we leave battered equipment and a weary Miss Stevens.
To next year's Sophomores we leave our wits and manners with hopes they will use them as well as we have.
To next year's Freshmen we leave a promise of lots of fun in their four years of High School.
I, Darrel Deeg leave my big feet to Arnie Tucker and my basketball ability to Delmer Smith.
I, Ruby Daniels, leave my ability to go with one man to Sharon Shales.
I, Pearl Smith, leave my shorthand book to anyone who wants it.
I, Lillie M. Rayfield, leave my quiet ways to Deanna Hauff.
I, Dale Snyder, leave Bonnie but hands off boys.
I, Melvin Morrow, leave my whiskers to Tim Boswell.
I, Leroy Hauff, leave my ability to stay away from girls to Mike Timpe.
I, John Jeske, leave my ability to get along with Miss Stevens to Wesley Jeske because he needs it.
I, Bill Folden, leave my ability to crack a test without cracking a book to my brother Dick.
I, Gary Routson, just leave by the nearest door.
I, Richard Fischer, leave the east corner of the building to all the up coming lovers.
I, Phillip Latimer, leave my wavy hair to Mr. Johnson.

Princess Joanne
"By Lillie Mae"

It has been a real thrill to represent the Peshastin community; in the Washington State Apple Blossom Festival.

One of my first experiences was an interview with KPQ's reporter, Mrs. Merle Thompson. There were three other princesses interviewed the same afternoon. I was interviewed second and for about five minutes. It was an interesting experience because it was my first visit to a radio station.

About noon Friday, of the Festival, all the princesses checked in at the Y.W.C.A. I was fortunate to be with Rose Alyce Mahoney, Princess Leavenworth, for she seemed more familiar with Wenatchee than I and helped me find my way.

After hanging up our clothes and making our bed all the princesses had arrived. We were then taken in buses to the Apple Bowl where we practiced for the Coronation and Queen's Ball.

The practice was quite tiring as there was much to learn.

At 6:30 all the princesses and escorts attended a Banquet in the Cascadian Hotel. My escort was Melvin Morrow. The Banquet program included an excellent teen-age male quartet from Seattle but part of the program had to be cancelled because of time.

At the Coronation each princess was introduced and Queen Sharon was crowned by Governor Anglie. Last year's Queen, Carol Jessup, assisted the Governor by pinning on the Royal Ribbon.

Following the Coronation in the Apple Bowl, we were taken in buses to the Junior High Gymnasium for the Queen's Ball. Again we were spotlighted in an individual introduction.

All the princesses were so tired that we couldn't dance but we enjoyed it anyway. At one o'clock we returned to the Y.W.C.A. for the night.

We didn't sleep much that night thinking about the next day. We had to get up the next morning at 6:15 and at 9:00 were taken to our floats. Riding on the float was more thrilling to me than anything else. This is something that I will never forget. I will always remember the streets lined on both sides with applauding friends and the thrill it was to carry in my hand the Community Sweepstakes' Trophy for Peshastin.

All of us should be very proud of the community spirit and work that built such a beautiful float, and I want to express my deep appreciation for the privilege of riding on it as Princess Peshastin.
