CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1944, 60 six year olds toddled to the old school building, that has since been torn down, to begin the first grade. Among them were Bob Avey, Ned Kuch, Leroy King, Leonard Larson, Bruce Maddux, Bill Stegeman, Roger Van Brocklin, Norma Harrison, Peggy Henderson, Sharon Brown, Joyce Moore, Donna Rembold, Ann Parsons, Velda Sweat, Kay West, and Pat Smith.

These students remained to play host to the students who came and left over the period of 12 years. Eventually 32 graduated from LHS.

Sharon Brown, Donna Rembold, Grant Clouthier and Leroy King spent a year or more in different schools, but graduated from LHS with the class of "56."

From the second through the seventh grade seven more students came to graduate from the eighth grade and stayed through high school. They were Nile Reece, Marilyn Custer, Mary Tyler, Greselda Strasner, Carolyn Wilcox, Fay Jones and Terry MacDonald. At eighth grade graduation Ann Parsons and Bruce Maddux were awarded the American Legion Award for the outstanding boy and girl. Fay Jones received a special award for the highest grade average, and Greselda Strasner was announced honorary captain of the school patrol.

A memorable event of our second week in high school was Freshman Initiation. During the year Dee Strausbaugh, Gordon Burlingame, and Pat Whitehall joined our class. Sharon Brown was unanimously elected President for the year and Greselda Strasner was our Homecoming Princess.

One of the last events we enjoyed as Freshmen was the Freshman-Sophomore Picnic.

Gary Dyment, Jim Schattenkirk and Karen Estabrook joined our Sophomore class; Fay Jones was placed at the helm as President, and Pat Smith was chosen Homecoming Princess.

Our Junior year under the leadership of Ann Parsons, we transformed the gym into a scene from Paris for our Prom, "Gay Paree." Preceding this was the Junior-Senior banquet. Then came our Junior play, "Desperate Ambrose," with a cast straight from the old west.

Turning to more sophisticated dramatics, some of the class joined in an Operetta composed of a cast of juniors and seniors. This ended our year of activities except for Student Body elections, in which Bruce Maddux was chosen to lead the Student Body for our senior year.

At last we entered the halls of LHS as the almighty Seniors. Under the leadership of Don Bates, we had a chance to do to the class of "59" what had once been done to us at Freshman Initiation.

On the royal side of our activities came our annual Homecoming, reigned over by Queen Fay Jones, The Tojo gave us more delightful memories and royalty. Queen Ann Parsons and King Bruce Maddux and their attendants made up the ruling party of "Japanese Gardens." During the winter the ski royalty was chosen to tour the valley and advertise our silver anniversary tournament. Ann Parsons, Fay Jones, and Sharon Brown were given the honor.

Then again our dramatic abilities were displayed in our Senior play, "If Mother Only Knew."

"Southern Mansions" was the theme of the Prom given to us by the class of 1957. Greselda Strasner and Terry MacDonald ruled over the Old South for the evening.

The much awaited date came on May 29, when unknown to the student body of LHS the seniors did not appear in school, but instead were enjoying fun and frolic on the sunny shores of Lake Wilderness and at Playland in Seattle. This of course was our Senior Sneak.

June 3, 1956, was Baccalaureate, and the following night was our graduation. There was a mixture of sentiment as we walked up the aisle; some went with tears and some with smiles, but the most important thing was that we all came back down that aisle with diplomas.

Class of 1956

OFFICERS: President, A. Ellis; Vice President, S. Larson; Secretary, S. Bon; Treasurer, C. Kaufman; Council Representatives, S. Pendleton and J. Parker.

Anne Ellis led the class of 1957 during their junior year. This energetic class held two dances, and presented the play, "The Clutching Claw." Also a high light of the year was the Junior Class Talent Show which was held in March.

The Juniors honored the Senior Class with a Banquet and Prom in the Spring. The theme was "Southern Mansion."

SOPHOMORES

OFFICERS: President, M. Koehler; Vice President, S. Speer; Secretary, L. Schulsen; Treasurer, G. West.

FRESHMEN

OFFICERS: President, R. Seaman; Vice President, G. Maddux; Secretary, M. Gillespie; Treasurer, L. Schon; Council Representative, J. Babbitt; L. Southwick.

Under the capable leadership of Rocky Seaman, the Freshman Class sponsored two successful dances during their first year in High School.

BAND

Judy,
Good luck to you in the future. I hope you are very successful in life.

Leonard
The 1956 football team improved its previous year’s record with a three win and six lost record. The hustle and fire on the squad was a remarkable feature in Coach Furseth’s team. Outstanding players on the team included senior Bob Avey who was the second-team all-district end. Don Merry was honorable mention for all-district lineman, although he played only three games. Leonard Davis was honorable mention all-district backfield man.
COACH ELWOOD FURSETH

COACH ELWOOD FURSETH has been the head football coach at Leavenworth High School for two years. He was the "B" squad basketball coach and track coach this year also. Mr. Furseth attended three years of college at Pacific Lutheran and then entered Whitman College on his football ability. He was all-conference tackle his senior year and was the defensive captain. He taught two years of junior high sports before coming to Leavenworth to start his high school coaching career. Mr. Furseth has played nine years of football including the high school, navy, and college. His other sports were weight lifting, track and wrestling.

BASKETBALL

The basketball team under the coaching of Jim Doherty had a record of five wins and fifteen losses. The team had a lot of hustle and fire. Height was the main problem as there were only one or two players that were barely over six feet tall. Many of the games were lost by less than five points because the team just couldn’t quite pull through in the last minute or so of the game. All of the boys worked hard and put out as much as they could and with Coach Doherty doing the best to find the right combination, the games were always close and exciting.

COACH JIM DOHERTY is the head basketball coach and assists in football and track. Mr. Doherty started his college career at the University of Minnesota in Duluth. It is here that he started his basketball career. He entered Whitworth College in Spokane and was granted a scholarship in basketball. Here he set many scoring records and his senior year he was named to the All-Conference team and given regional honors on Associated Press and United Press teams. He was named to an honorable mention on the All-American team by Colliers Magazine. He also was awarded the Helm’s Athletic Foundation Award. Another of his many awards and honors was being named as the Inland Empire Athlete of the Year in 1953.

CUBS

The Grizzly "B" squad, under coach Elwood Furseth, did a very commendable job with a record of 8 wins and 19 losses. At the close of the season they were winning and were a team of hustle and fire. Some top prospects were cited by head coach Jim Doherty. Leavenworth will be looking forward to a good team in the future.

This year's ski team was sponsored by the school with financial help from the Leavenworth Winter Sports Club and the Junior Ski Club. The Lions Club also donated $100 for equipment. Mr. Sauve was the coach and advisor of the team.

The team participated in meets at Wenatchee, Yakima, Rossland, B.C., Leavenworth, and the Beta Cup Race at Stevens Pass.

Jumping was the strong point for this year's team with Jim Brennan setting the pace. Jim won first place in the Nordic Combined meet at Leavenworth, first in jumping at Wenatchee, first in the junior division in the Leavenworth Jumping Tournament, and traveled to New Hampshire where he won first in his division in the Junior Nationals.

Also bringing recognition to the team in jumping was Jimmy Hodgen, and in cross-country, Ned Kuch. Jim won second place at Wenatchee, third place at Leavenworth in the Nordic Combined and also third in the Jumping Tournament, and fifth place at Rossland, B.C. Ned came in fifth in the Leavenworth Nordic Combined, fourth at Wenatchee, and sixth at Rossland in cross-country.

The remaining members of the squad were Larry Southwick and Roger Van Brocklin. Although they didn't place they gained experience that will help them in their remaining years of skiing.
This year the wrestling team, under the coaching of Lincoln Mac-Phearseon, showed much improvement from previous years. The team competed in meets in Ephrata, Wenatchee and the district meet in Moses Lake. In the first meet at Ephrata the team collected four wins. At Wenatchee they won two matches and tied one. At the district meet at Moses Lake they won one match.

This year’s track team, under the coaching of Elmo Furseth, was quite successful. Because of heavy snow the team didn’t have much time to practice before their first meet, which was held at Moses Lake. In this meet Leavenworth placed fifth. They did much better in the next meets by placing first at Quincy and Cashmere. At Wenatchee they went down to seventh place then again came back to place first at Leavenworth in the Chelan and Douglas County "B" meet, first at Cashmere, second in the county meet held at Cashmere and fifth in the District meet at Omak.

The team also added a trophy to the school trophy case when they won the Chelan and Douglas County meet.
G.A.A. was again organized this year under the leadership of Miss Schnackel. The girls participated in various competitive sports.

ATHLETIC CLUB

This year's Athletic Club, under the advisement of Mr. Furseth, and leadership of Sam Pendleton, bought new track, basketball and football uniforms.

Under the guiding hand of Advisor Bill Sauve, and President Terry MacDonald, the Boys' Club had a very successful school year. The Boys' Club increased their treasury from $25 to $180 by putting on two successful club projects. A booster ribbon sale at the beginning of the school year for the football team was one of the clubs' projects. The other was a carnival put on in February, which raised a total of $170.
Freshman Initiation, sponsored by the Girls' Club of L.H.S., proved to be an opportune time to acquaint the new students with the older ones in school, and it also gave the seniors a chance to show their "authority."

It is the Club's responsibility to select big sisters for the freshman girls, to help them with their problems the first year, and this tradition was again carried out.

"Japanese Gardens," our bi-annual tolo, was the first formal dance of the year, and we chose three couples from the senior class as Royalty.

About the middle of the year, a panel discussion on, "How To Say No And Still Keep Your Friends," was presented to the Student Body. A boy and girl representative from each class, and our president, acting as moderator, composed this panel.

During the basketball season, we planned and presented a pep assembly.
All four classes were represented with a cheerleader this year. Helen Rayfield, freshman, was an active alternate; Suzann Speer, sophomore; Ann Ellis, junior; and Fay Jones, senior. Fay was head cheerleader.

LIBRARY

Sandra Ferrel, LeRoy Fletcher, Miss Joy Ashton, Assistant Staff Librarian, Christine Baird, Charlotte Mink, Elsie McGaha, Pauline Tyler, Peggy Henderson, Miss Jean Osborn, Staff Librarian; Gail Moore, Carla Plass.

Miss Osborn, Staff Librarian, takes care of the Library. She is assisted by Miss Joy Ashton. The duties of the Librarian are to check out books to students, keep order in the Library, and replace books on the shelves when they are returned.

DRAMA

Judy West, Treasurer; Gary Caster, Council Representative; Miss Joy Ashton, Advisor; Sandy Ferrel, Secretary; Karen Sue Estabrook, President; Anne Ellis, Vice President.

The Drama Club had a busy year under the leadership of Karen Sue Estabrook. They sponsored the Twin Dance and planned a Christmas program, but due to bad weather, were unable to give it. A float was entered in the Ski Parade and a skit was given at the PTA Mother’s Day Program. Donna Rembold revised the play "Cinderella" to a modern version and the Drama Club presented it to the Grade School.

PROJECTION

Christine Kaufmann, Robert Henderson, Assistant-Coordinator; Mr. Rembold, Advisor; Larry Southwick, Dee Strausbaugh, Bernie Houden, Kenny Hildebrand, Paul Gray, Don Turner, Dale Rembold, Leo Bodvin.

The purpose of the Projection Club is to teach students how to operate the projector and care for it. Reliability is stressed by Mr. Rembold, the Advisor. These students show movies to classes and for special occasions.

Fay Jones was crowned Queen of the 1955 Homecoming festivities on September 17. Her Royal party included Princesses Carolyn Wilcox, Ann Ellis, Sally Zachow, and Roberta Hatmaker. Open house was held in the evening with a dance following. This was the fifth annual Homecoming sponsored by the Senior class and it honored the classes of 1936 and 1946.

HOMECOMING ROYALTY

TOLO ROYALTY

Queen Ann Parsons and King Bruce Maddux were chosen by the student body to reign over the Girls' Club annual tolo. The theme of the Tolo was Japanese Gardens. Their attendants were Kay West and Gary Dyment, Sharon Brown and Terry McMahon. Crown bearers were Stevie Schwab and Peachie Greene.
Ski Queen Ann Parsons, and Princesses Sharon Brown and Fay Jones, reigned over the 25th Annual Leavenworth Ski Tournament. The royalty toured several schools, attended the Squilchuck Tournament, were honored at a banquet and dance, and presided over the Leavenworth Ski Tournament, on February 19.

Princess Kay West represented the city of Leavenworth this year at the Wenatchee Apple Blossom Festival. Kay was honored at various social functions, and a dance honoring her was held to raise money for the community float.
After a banquet consisting of southern fried chicken with all the trimmings, the Junior-Senior Prom was held in the Junior High Gym. The theme, Southern Mansions was carried throughout. Queen Greselda Strasner and King Terry MacDonald were the elected royalty.

On January 27, 1956 the Pep Club gave a dance honoring King and Queen Pep, Bob Fortner and Eleonor Dyment.
