Officers
A. S. B. Council has a busy year

With many and varied activities to organize and supervise, members of the student council found themselves deep in work and fun this year.

First on the agenda this year, the members studied the constitution that was tentatively set up the previous year and put it into the final form to be voted on by the students. Several members of the council were voted to serve as committee members to meet with the faculty and discuss detention as well as lunch-line problems that had arisen.

All activities scheduled by any club or organization must first be approved by this group of people. They see to it that sufficient plans have been made by each group so that the activity scheduled will be as successful as possible.

A new juke box was also purchased by the student body. Members on the council are appointed to serve on a committee to supervise the operation of the juke box and see that all rules and regulations regarding it are enforced.

It's Apple Blossom time. In a Japanese setting of lanterns and blossoms Joyce Coriell was crowned Queen of the Senior Ball. Queen Joyce looked forward most of all to the Big Parade on Saturday, May 3, where she highlighted the Peshastin and Dryden communities float.

Queen Joyce is very happy for her priviledge and she expresses deep appreciation in her sincere "Thanks" to her friends and schoolmates.

Joyce was born in Idaho to Mr. and Mrs. William Coriell. After moving at the age of four years Joyce attended all her twelve school years here.
Scenes from the two one-act plays, Nobody Sleeps and Old Skinflint, and the one three-act play, No More Homework, are pictured.

When the whip cracks, these are the girls who head for the typewriters to hurriedly dash out that assignment they forgot about, or begin typing on a stencil for the paper. They are: Betty Pearson, Arlene Schacht, Arlene Voss, Millie Pearson, Judy Hembery.
EDITOR, Priscilla Nelson checks senior pictures before they are sent to publisher.

Gets ready for deadline

The PUMA staff chose to publish this year’s annual with a company that was new to them. With the change in publishers, the staff had many new ideas and ways of doing things with which to become acquainted. A bigger and better yearbook with a composite picture of the year’s events was the goal. Many hours of hard work, as well as disappointments, were experienced by the entire staff.

ASS’T BUS. MGR., Ardalana Danford, BUS. MGR., Bill Osgood, ASS’T EDITOR, Sara Dodge discuss probable layouts for the annual page.

Cougars are Chelan-Douglas County League Champs

The Cougars had a season record of 18 wins and 2 losses. Only one of these was in league play. The team showed a lot of teamwork, height and rebounding, but greatest of all was spirit. They, along with all Cougar fans, brought home the Sportsmanship Trophy Award.

The Cougars will miss seniors--Tlp, Chuck, Fritz, and Rich--next year; however six juniors are here to fill their places.
