Beyond this page is a brief sketch of that period of our lives which shall live longest in our memories.

We, the annual staff, hope that this will help us remember when we are old and gray, the things that Peshastin-Dryden High School students did back in nineteen hundred fifty-nine.
to Coach Kapral

We, the Puma Staff of 1958-59, are dedicating this annual to Mr. George Kapral. "Kap" (as he is known to most of us) is a friend as well as a teacher to the students of Peshastin-Dryden High. He is always ready to help with our problems and share in the work of our projects. We, the students, hope that he will be with Peshastin-Dryden for many more years and that his future will be a long and happy one.

"Kap" attended high school at CleElum, Washington and was graduated from Central Washington College of Education at Ellensburg in 1950. Mr. Kapral has taught Boys Physical Education and Health, Driving, Industrial Arts and has coached baseball, but perhaps the most outstanding contribution to our school has been his superb coaching of our basketball team. During a seven year period under his coaching we have had 127 wins and 47 losses and have taken many trophies.
SCHOOL BOARD HAS AN ACTIVE YEAR

The 1958-59 school year was a most active one for the school board members of the Peshastin-Dryden School District No. 200.

The year starts long before September 1, for these busy people. When we arrived at PDIS on September 3, we at once noticed that the halls had been repainted and the floors washed and waxed.

The next thing that caught the students' eyes was the newly planted baseball field.

Arrangement of a new parking system was also a new innovation.

As far as the academic field goes, this was the first year for any foreign language offered at Peshastin-Dryden High School.

In the athletic field, many of the students enjoyed jumping on the trampoline for the first time.

These were all projects of the school board which was made up of DON NICHOLSON, FRED NIERMAN, CARL BERGREN, HERB KIEHN, AND EARL WYNN.

PRESIDENT HAUFF

Dennis Hauff, ASB President, is a twelve-year senior who has been active in school. "Swede" as most students call him is a four-year letterman. He has lettered in basketball, baseball, and football. During his freshman year he was class president and was also on the executive board. "Swede" was ASB Vice President his junior year and ASB President his senior year, both years serving on the student council.

MARCIA

Marcia Weedman, secretary of the student body, has the job of keeping the minutes of the student council and student body meetings.

VICE PRESIDENT
BERNIECE

Student body vice-president, Berniece Umbarger, has worked closely with Dennis Hauff in running the business of the student body. This was her second year of serving the student body. Last year she was secretary.

TREASURER
FRED

Fred Pflugrath has completed his second year of being ASB treasurer. The responsibilities of the treasurer are to keep count of the incoming and outgoing money of the student body and to give financial reports to the school board.
COUNCIL COMPLETES
ACTIVE YEAR
IN STUDENT AFFAIRS

The Student Council of Peshastin-Dryden High School has had a very active year during 1958-59.

One of the most controversial measures passed by the Council this year was the ruling that any class could sell concessions at athletic contests. Previously this had been done only by the Junior Class.

The Council also worked on two new amendments to the school constitution; these were brought before the Student Body and were passed.

The new baseball field was another of the many things that the Council helped to bring about. The seeding and working of the new field was one of their major concerns.

All-in-all the executive branch and the representative body did a lot to better our old Alma Mater.
OFFICERS

The Senior Class started off their last year in high school with a dance on September 13, 1958. A second dance was held December 13, after the Chelan basketball game.

Baccalaureate was held on May 21, 1959. Graduation followed on Friday, May 29.

The Seniors also went on their annual Senior Sneak.

As we look into our crystal ball, we see Comrade Joe Samuels, Commodore of the Ninety-Sixth Submarine Fleet of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, patrolling the Formosa Straits.

Turning the crystal ball upside down, we see former Lieutenant-Commander-in-Chief of all U.S. Navy Personnel, Darrell George, on the bottom of the ship scraping off the barnacles.

Fifty years later we see Bud Boswell running down the street yelling, "It's mine, it's mine!" He has just made the last payment on his Impala.

We now hear a plunking sound, and then we see a one-room cabin sitting on top of Old Smokey. Here is Ray Valentine close to a pot-belly stove trying to type the autobiography of his childhood life. At his typing rate of one letter every hour (due to the fact that his typewriter has no letters on the keys) we predict that this fine story will come out two years after his death.

Now we see Bob Coriell with a fifty-pound pack trecking through the drifted snow tracking a huge cougar. For the last thirty years he has been under contract to the PDHS Student Body to catch a live cougar for the school mascot. We find he has been tracking for several days without luck—No, wait—Ya—Ya, No—Darn—just a flea from his great tracking dog—Mr. Magoo.

After 13 years of scholastic labor, our Student Body President, Dennis Hauff, has finally attained the position of BMOC at the University of Washington. By the way, BMOC stands for Big Man on Campus.

Gordon Miller has proved to be quite successful. He has inspired many Hollywood critics to tag him "a second Jack Benny." It seems they both have the same motto, "A penny saved is a penny earned." Believe me, he has certainly lived up to his saying.

The luminous strategist, the most indispensable man in football today, orginal and undefeatable, is Larry Fox. He is noted for his introduction of football to Russia and is now coaching the unconquerable Moscow Max-Mad's.

Wow! What's this—Diane Smith and Judy Hemberly playing basketball for the Garfield Girdles. They are expected to be sold to the Tokyo Yoyo's, a team new to the N.B.A.

On the coast of Puerto Rico we see Bill Kuest trying to teach Arda Danford how to catch the big fish. "Bill, how is she doing?" "Not so good; she just caught a little one... would you mind helping us reel it in?"

Here we are at Carnegie Hall. If we can peek past the President there, we can see who is the guest star of the evening. Why, if it isn't Mary Lattimer playing her piano machine.

Looking in on the Indianapolis Five Hundred Mile Marathon, we see Bob Wynne still trying to prove that his 1937 Cadillac is the hottest car on the road.

Here we are in Osaka at the third day of the 1909th World Olympics. Today is the day for the discus and javelia throwing. There is a capacity crowd on hand due to the enthusiasm built up between the U.S.A. and Russia. Now let's go down and interview Jerry Franz. "May we have a word with you? In this classic third day of the Olympics, how do things look for you?" "I think I'm going to have a great day today; we've got a great crowd and terrific weather. Excuse me, I'm being called. I must rush." Imagine the courage of the fine red-blooded—American boy facing this crowd here today. Now as we see this fine masculine form fading, we here his call, "Peasants! Peasants!"

Robert Ewing has returned to the South to aid his fellow countrymen by taking Leadership of the Ku Klux Klan. Here we see the famed Marie Price being welcomed back to the U.S. in a grand parade down Fifth Avenue after capturing the fiftieth annual hula-hoop championship for the fifth time.

Being a secretary for a big corporation has kept Sharon Day in shape as she has to keep on the move to stay out of the reach of the executives.

WHAT'S THIS! Bernice Unharger disqualified from the Miss Universe Contest because of a secret marriage. Sophia Loren is worried about her movie career as Pam Morden is taking the world by storm since the release of her new picture.

Kay Darlington has just recently given up her job as a school teacher to marry the international play-boy, Jerry Hojo.

Here we see ElVera Goenner working in the back of her dad's barber shop, giving hair cuts and shaving trying to earn enough money to support her and her fourteen under-privileged kids.

As we look into the crystal ball we see Bill Osgood, the lady killer of the gay old days, still trying to work his way up by feeding the here a line or two.

As our crystal ball rolls into a manhole, we are saved by a hair, --a golden hair, from the stocky torso of Louie Wagner. We find he has gotten out of the spotlight of things since he took a somewhat dim outlook on life.

Phyllis Goenner, her aim is to be a famous second Florence Chadwick and her goal is to swim the Pacific Ocean. Although—starting from the bottom—she is now attempting Peshastin Creek.

As we walk into the New York Stock Exchange we see that Fred Pflugrath is one of the oldest men on the staff. With his influence in the exchange during past few years, things are looking up for Fred, who was elected the most likely to succeed by his class. We see him now working (sweeping floors) through the head office of the exchange.

All of a sudden our crystal ball jumps back to the University of Washington. As we look into the different rooms all of a sudden the picture stops on one of the lady professors. As we listen in on the class, we hear one of the students say, "Professor Andersen," Why, that's Marie! We stop and ask Marie how long she has been at the University of Washington and she says "Around 30 years."

Now our crystal ball turns back to Peshastin-Dryden and here we see Arlene Voss. She has taken over a Pine Flats Dairy which her parents owned back in 1939. As we look in the garage it looks like she has made a good living because we see two Corvettes parked in the garage.

As we travel up the valley we see John Alexander teaching school at PDHS. I guess John just couldn't stay away from Peshastin-Dryden High.

So all in all the Class of 1909 has done real fine.
The seniors of 1959 started school twelve years ago back in 1947 with twenty-seven first graders at Peshastin and twenty-one first graders at Dryden. The first grade teachers were Mrs. Lydia Foster (who taught the first grade this year) and Mrs. Deach.

Raymond Valentine joined the class of '59 in the second grade.

In the third grade the class at Peshastin had increased to over forty students. That year Kay Darlington, Sharon Jay, and Jerry Franz were welcomed into our class.

The fourth grade was an especially enjoyable year for the students at Peshastin because the first classes were held in the new grade school building. That year Berniece Umbarger moved from Dryden to Peshastin. The same year Joe Samuel joined the class at Dryden.

Marie Andersen left our group and went to Oregon in the fifth grade and Berniece moved out of the district, but was back with us for the sixth grade.

At the beginning of the seventh grade Arlene Voss and Robert Ewing joined the class of '59.

Finally we entered the eighth grade, and with delight, because in June we graduated from grade school and were ready to start our high school years.

That year Bob Wynne joined our troop. There were twenty-two students from Peshastin and ten from Dryden who graduated in the class of 1959.

On March 16, 1956, our parents and friends voted that our high schools should be combined into Peshastin-Dryden High School. At the beginning of our sophomore year, Bill Osgood joined the class with Judy Hemberry coming later.

Pam Morden and Marie Price entered PDHS as seniors.

The students who are pictured above are the fifteen students who started and finished school at Peshastin-Dryden. They are: Ardala Danford, ElVera Goehner, Phyllis Goehner, Mary Latimer, Diane Smith, John Alexander, Bud Boswell, Robert Coriell, Larry Fox, Darrell George, Dennis Hauff, Bill Kuest, Gordon Miller, Fred Pflugrath, and Louis Wagoner.

All-in-all the class of fifty-nine is the class who says, "If I can not find a way, I will make one."
The Juniors started the year off with an Autumn dance. The theme was "Autumn Leaves".

Following this they had a Christmas Tolo, which was held on December 27th.

In the spring they sponsored the traditional Junior-Senior Prom.

SENIOR PROM

On March 9, 1969, I, Berniece Umberger, was chosen Queen of the Senior Ball and Princess Peshastin-Dryden to represent the Peshastin and Dryden communities in the 40th annual Washington State Apple Blossom Festival.

One of the happiest events during my reign was being crowned Queen of the Senior Ball along with my two attendants Kay Darlington and Diane Smith which was sponsored by the junior class.

The theme of the Senior Prom was "Blue Hawaii". It was decorated beautifully with scenes of Hawaii drawn on the walls and the stage decorated appropriately. The lunch room was decorated as a Hawaiian hut.

The afternoon before the festival in Wenatchee, I registered at the Y, M, C, A., we (this includes the princesses from each community) dressed and practiced for the Queens' Coronation and the Princessess' Ball.

In the evening, I attended the Princesses' Banquet and it was immediately followed by the Coronation, I, along with my escort, Fred Smith, attended the Queen's Ball.

On the day of the festival, I arose at 6 a.m. for the thrilling experience of riding on the Peshastin-Dryden float. It was truly the most wonderful feeling I have ever experienced.

I would like to thank everyone in both communities for all the wonderful things they have done for me; the beautiful float and the lovely gifts were appreciated. I would also like to thank the junior class for the presentation of the Senior Ball.

Football Season Successful

The 1958 football season was very successful as the Peshastin-Dryden Cougars came out with a 7 win and 1 loss record for the season. This was a good enough record to secure them 2nd place in the Chelan-Douglas League standings.

The high light of the season was when the Cougars traveled to Leavenworth to play their arch-rivals the Grizzlies. The Grizzlies were favored by 2 or 3 touchdowns but the Cougars showed their strength and class by soundly trouncing them 32 to 6.

All-in-all it was a very successful season and the school is justifiably proud of them.

This year Peshtatin-Dryden Student Body supported a new sport, wrestling.

Bill Burvee who won third place in the state wrestling tournament, was the top point collector of the PDHS squad.

The team will lose only one member this year and so next year they should do as good or even better than this year.

The Peshastin-Dryden "A" squad led a very active season this year.

Among their trips, they had a two-day stay in Oak Harbor and Langley winning both games by a score of 42 to 41. This was only two of the three they won by this score.

The Cougars won 1st place in league play and 2nd in county play.

They traveled on to district only to lose to Wilson Creek by two points. This ended the 1958-59 Cougar’s career.
Dryden broke away from an early 3-7 lead to build a 27-13 halftime advantage. By the end of the third period, the margin was 36-30, but the Shockers soared back to apply the pressure in the last stanza as the Cougars were collecting only seven points.

Dennis Haufler, who accounted for 10 of the Cougars' second-quarter points, wound up with 16. Phill Rock, giving the P-D defense some troublesome moments with his dribbling, made only 12 of 33 attempts but contributed two and one.

A DOUBLE BARRELLED DETECTIVE STORY

PRESENTED BY

Arthur Stilman, a young man with the mysterious "third-dimensional" qualities of a human bloodhound, is sent by his mother to Hope Canyon, Colorado, to track down and punish his father's murderer, one Jacob Fuller. Here, "Archie" falls in love with Rosemary Hillyer, owner of the local hostelry; but he cannot propose to her until he has accomplished his mission of revenge.

Meanwhile, Petlock Jones—a cowardly young orphan who claims to be related to the English detective, Sherlock Holmes—has developed an ingenious plan to destroy his employer, Flint Buckner. Flint has so mistreated Petlock that the boy (under the urging of Sadie, a waitress with whom he is in love) decides to kill the greedy old miner. This he does—at the very time when Sherlock Holmes arrives in camp.

The play cast consisted of Paula Reister, Elvera Goehner, Nancie Hauff, Kay Cedarquist, Maudie Taylor, Marie Goehner, Barbara Goehner, Siri Alexander, Sandy Hills, Darrell George, Danny Hauff, Bud Boswell, Fred Pfugrath, Delbert Goehner, Joe Samuel, Bill Osgood, Dennis Hauff, and Louis Wagoner.

The play cast would like to thank Mrs. Kile for all of her time and patience she has given for the play "A DOUBLE BARRELLED DETECTIVE STORY".
