Leavenworth High School
Leavenworth, Washington
Volume 31
Foreword

This year we are celebrating the golden anniversary of Leavenworth High School.
Fifty years ago on February 15, 1912, the new school was finished. Contracts were let September 8, 1911, and about four months later, the first students crossed the threshhold to begin the long period of service LHS has given.

Time has marched on and left precious fleeting scenes stamped in the minds of students and teachers who have gone through its doors.
Between these covers is a record of this school year and highlights from years past.
We hope it will recall many happy memories.

Fifty years ago the first student walked into the new Leavenworth High School to begin its many years of service——

General Telephone Company installed a new telephone office to take care of the surrounding district——

Leavenworth voters turned down a proposition to build a new high school adjacent to the present school site December 5. This was the ninth time the community failed to select a site or vote millage to build a new high school——

John Darling is National Junior Nordic Champion of the United States——

Four high school ski team members: John Darling, Tom McDevitt, Jim Steele, and Richard Haugh were selected to represent part of the six-man team from Washington state in the National Junior Nordic Combined Skiing Championships, March 8, 9, and 10 at Steamboat Springs, Colorado——

John Balfanz set a new National Ski Jumping record of 317 feet at Westby, Wisconsin. This was one foot farther than the eleven-year record of 316 feet held by Ansten Samuelsten and tied by Leavenworth ski ace Jim Brennen in 1960——

Astronaut Colonel John Glenn went into orbit February 20 and circled the globe three times——

Century 21 World's Fair Exposition is in Seattle from April to October——

Safeway built a modern, new building on a new location by the four-lane highway in Leavenworth——

Leavenworth Town Library celebrated its fiftieth anniversary in October.
Fifty Years Have Brought Changes

Leavenworth High School was built 50 years ago. Construction began in September 1911 and students moved into the building in February 1912. Mrs. Alice Brisky Lee was the first graduate in 1912.

The town was named after Captain Leavenworth, and was made a division point for the Great Northern Railroad, making it a typical railroad center.

In 1893 the depot and roundhouse were built. The roundhouse was moved to Wenatchee in 1927; the railroad changed to Chumstick in 1928; and the highway routed through Tumwater Canyon in 1929.

This grade school was constructed in 1906 and in 1952 it was replaced by the present Osborn Elementary School.
An old store building near the present location of the fireman's hall was the first school in Leavenworth and was taught by Miss Mary Ralston.

Leavenworth's population in 1921 was 2000. At present it has around 1400 people.

An old style bathing suit, basketball team, rutted road and old car are pictures of years gone by.
Superintendent of Schools Ralph Richards and Grade School Principal Lowell Hawks.

Administration Works Together for

Superintendent Ralph Richards, Master of Arts, University of Washington; and Principal Ben Pease, Bachelor of Science, Washington State University; are kept on their toes rendering services and keeping the school running smoothly. Principal Ben Pease was instrumental in promoting Career Day, created to inform students about those jobs not requiring a college degree.

Principal Ben Pease confers with ASB President John Darling.

A Better School

Leavenworth School Board, which is elected by the people to represent them in directing the affairs of the school; sets school policies, works for a new high school, and approves school expenditures.

PTA which promotes better relations between teachers and parents has a yearly project to raise funds. It supplies the grade school with Kleenex, sponsors the School Patrol and Scouts.

HIGH SCHOOL OFFICE GIRLS: Carol Sanger, Edna Stuart, Arline Cloke, Judy Kennedy, Hazel Buckingham, and Pat Hinthorne with Mrs. Vl Standish, secretary.

GRADE SCHOOL OFFICE HELP: Judy Smith, Lana Herald, Edith Buckingham, Karen Kawalac, Rosemary West, Jerry Smith, and Mrs. Martha Jensen, secretary.

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS: Secretary, Grace Bakke; Vice President, Terry Richards; President, John Darling; Treasurer, Judy Kennedy.

Student Council
Erases Debt

Through the effort of the 1961 Student Council, the $1,204 debt was erased and the new year was started out in the black.

Students who devoted one half of a day to raising funds for the school brought in $300 for the Student Body Fund. Another work day is scheduled for the 1962 school year.

Repairing the school's victory bell and placing it on top of the school building is another project of the Student Council.
Library is a sanctuary of silence for students working on important assignments.

Readin' and Writin' Begin School Year

As the new school year begins, rusty minds get back into the swing of making new friends, joining clubs, cramming for finals, cheering teams on--sometimes to victory, sometimes defeat--and always adding new knowledge to the storehouse acquired through the years.

Honor Society

Emphasizes Scholarship

Under the leadership of President Judy Woodcock, seventeen new members were inducted into the Leavenworth Chapter of the National Honor Society at an assembly, October 18, 1961.

Total membership included 27 members.

Not only does the honor society require scholarship for membership but it also requires leadership, service, citizenship and character.

One of the group's projects for the school year was the financing of half of the engraving on the senior's Award Plaque.

Thespian Officers: Frank Lowry, sponsor; Gall Schulson, president; Mary Bakke, vice president; Rosemary West, secretary; Margaret Jensen, scribe.

"Coveralls" Is Second All-School Play

"Coveralls" was chosen by the Thespians as the second all-school play to be presented in April. Tryouts showed increased student interest.

Gay Nineties' Rosebuds, consisting of townsmen and two of the high school faculty, received many laughs as they did their ballet.

Efficient work from the officers put the troop back on the active list at the national office.

Gay Nineties Rosebuds: Justin Elser, Al Clark, Charlie Long, Bud Kelly, Ben Pease, Frank Lowry and Enoch Larson.
Murder Mansion Is All-School Play

"Murder Mansion" was presented November 3 and 4. Other cast members which are not pictured are: Tom Baker, Connie Montoya, Mickey Smith, David Jensen and Paula Long.

Initiation for the new members was January 17. A student has to earn a required number of points before he can become a member of the Thespians.

Parlez-Vous Francais?

French students may be heard speaking these familiar words and others not so familiar as they learn to talk with a veteran tongue.

Despite 30" of new snow, the French Club had their Thanksgiving Dance, "Turkey Twist."

The group sang French songs at PTA as one of the groups participating in a program to give parents and teachers an insight on what the students are doing in their classes.

Projection and Camera Clubs Give Service

Camera and Projection Clubs have the responsibility of taking pictures and showing movies.

Tim Seaman, Lynn Watson, and Walter Rembold, advisor; are the photographers for the High School Annual.

Slicing film are Terry Gall, David Jensen, Terry Ward, Tim Seaman, John Easterly, and Gordon Stemm.

Voice and Lecapi Receive B+ Ratings

Leavenworth High School's bi-weekly paper, The Voice, received the Quill and Scroll International First Place Award for the second year in a row, 1960-1961.

Under the supervision of Mrs. M. Richards, the Journalism Class publishes the Voice carefully observing the slogan: "Meet the deadline or drop dead!"

In 1961, the Lecapi received a B-plus rating from the National School Yearbook Association, one of the four schools in the state of Washington to get it.

Senior journalism students put out the Lecapi aided by the Photography Club and Advisor Rembold.

Students Assist Librarian

Student librarians take over the duties of the regular librarian when she is teaching other classes.

These students give up study hall periods to assist with such duties as checking out books, restocking shelves, and helping students find material.

Gail Schulson, Grace Bakke, Joy Cogfll, Keith Brown, Cameron Menzel, and Miss Schnackel, advisor.

Band Members Make Up Music Cabinet

Music Cabinet Officers are chosen by members of the band to be the controlling body.

It is the duty of this group to assist in all important decisions and aid the director.

CABINET OFFICERS:
Rosemary West, council rep.; Sharon Henderson, v. president; Joy Stroup, president; Christina Bickle, secretary; Sandi Cook, treasurer.
Pep Band Aids School Spirit

LHS Concert Band, consisting of only 16 members, kept the school spirit high by playing at all home basketball games and pep assemblies. Money making projects were the selling of sweatshirts and having concessions at the Waterville basketball game.
"It's Cherry Pink and Apple Blossom White"

Members of the 1962 Apple Blossom Royalty are chosen by a vote taken by the members of Leavenworth High School. Princess Leavenworth is chosen by the local Chamber of Commerce.

During their reign, Princess Leavenworth and her attendants make personal appearances at various community organizations as well as the Washington State Apple Blossom Festival.

Football success at Leavenworth is spelled with an E for effort on the team's part. Success didn't always mean victory but it showed some hard-working performances to end the season with a 4 win, 5 loss record compared to last season's 2 win, 6 loss record.

The opposing teams scored 38 points less, and only two teams netted more yardage than the Grizzlies.

John Canaday, hard-fighting gridder, was high point man with seven touchdowns averaging 7.2 yards per carry.

Melvin Wyles averaged 5.4 yards per carry. Richard Haugh and Ken Pulse each made four touchdowns.

Homecoming Sparkles with Activity

Happy faces shone over Homecoming festivities as the royalty and rooters excitedly cheered the Grizzlies on, only to have the Brewster Bears win 14-6. Fans never gave up hope, even with freezing feet, and cheeks red from the nippy air.

The theme for the evening coronation program was "The Golden Years" depicting the 50th anniversary of the high school. Classes honored were those of '32, '42, and '52.

Homecoming princesses were selected by each class and the queen was a senior girl chosen by the student body.

Slip, Slap Begins Basketball Season

Leavenworth vs. Bridgeport

Slip, slap of a basketball being dribbled down the court; whisper of the cords; and sudden shouts from spectators were noises heard during Leavenworth’s basketball season.

The Grizzly pack may well be remembered as a hustling little team of ten, although they won only two games out of 20. It took team spirit and sportsmanship to swallow one defeat after another.

Coached by Harley Hanan and captained by senior, Ken Pulse; Jack Smith, Carl Gall, Mike Mathena, and Lynn Watson were supported by a fine bench.

Saddest defeat of the season was with the Thorp Tigers on their home floor. Three minutes overtime saw the score still tied until the last few seconds when a basket swished in for the Tigers leaving the Grizzlies sadder and a little bit wiser, with a score of 49-50.

Only one senior, Ken Pulse, will be lost from this year’s team, leaving five upcoming seniors and four experienced juniors to carry the ball.
Carl Gall, Junior, Leads Scoring Attack

Carl Gall, junior, led the scoring attack with 201 points, Ken Pulse was second with 142, and Jack Smith third with 139.

Average points per game was led by Carl Gall with 10, Jack Smith, 7.3; and Ken Pulse, 7.1.

Gate receipts for the season were at an all-time low. After paying the referees, profits came to less than ten dollars at most games and even dipped to four dollars in the red.

Ski Team Recaptures State Championships

For the second consecutive year, the Leavenworth Grizzly ski team captured the cross-state high school championship. Led by PNSA champion, John Darling, the Grizzlies won all of the five league meets. As a result of the team's success, seven new trophies and three plaques were added to the high school trophy case as well as several individual awards.

Tom McDevitt, senior

Fourteen of the seventeen first place events of the season were awarded to the team. Thirteen of these first place awards were won by John Darling. The "A" squad swept the first five places in jumping at almost every meet.

Next year's hopes rest on Richard Haugh, Jim Steele, Frank and Bruce McWhirter and David Jensen.

Top Four Attend Junior Nationals

Steamboat Springs, Colorado to attend the Jr. Nationals was the destination of four "A" squad team members.

John Darling, Tom McDevitt, Richard Haugh and Jim Steele were chosen as part of a six-man squad. Hugh Kinkade and Ralph Steele were selected as team coaches.

Never before in Leavenworth's history have this many representatives from the school been selected at one time.

While at Colorado, the team plans to enter jumping, cross-country and the cross country relay.

JUNIOR NATIONAL TEAM MEMBERS: John Darling, Richard Haugh, Tom McDevitt, Jim Steele.
Royalty Advertises Fun, Sun, and Snow

When ski tournament time rolls around, ski royalty begin visitations advertising Leavenworth's biggest Annual Ski Jumping event.

A hectic two weeks include interviews at television stations in Seattle, Spokane, and Yakima. Larson's Air Force Base and several Chamber of Commerce organizations in the valley are also on the agenda.

Royalty are elected by the student body and the top three girls chosen from the senior class attend a Lion's Club dinner where the Queen is selected.

LETTERMEN “BATTER UP” FOR HOPEFUL SEASON

"Strike three, you're out!" or "Walk your base" will be heard again this year as seven returning lettermen "batter up" to give opposing teams a run for their money.

Last year's season netted only one win due to a lack of experience and interest.

Bill Newell, Carl Gall, Richard Haugh, Jack Smith, Ray VanGelder, Jim Steele, and Bob Fullenwider will don their mits to better this record.

GAC Girls Work for Good

Team sports are among the special activities of GAC and present many girls with the opportunity of participating in their favorite sports. Working together, these girls learn co-operation and good sportsmanship.

Monday evenings or after school, GAC enthusiasts turn out for volleyball and basketball.

When spring comes, baseball is added to the list. During the year, Leavenworth GAC girls meet Peshastin-Dryden GAA in volleyball and basketball for some keen competition between the rival schools.

Freshman Class Eager to Learn

It was an eager freshman class that entered Leavenworth High School to begin an entirely new type of life. The regular routine of every day high school life is a welcome change after Frosh Initiation.

At the close of the year, the frosh can look back at the new friends made, the good times, and the knowledge gained. During the next three years, many new experiences will be opened to them providing them with happy memories.

Seniors Initiate Freshman Class

Freshmen started out an exciting first year with their initiation made up of games, a slave auction, and a dance. Freshmen girls were ordered to wear gunnysack dresses, 25 freckles, 50 ponytails, and white shoe polish rinse in their hair. Boys were dressed in diapers, a baby hat or a ribbon, with their two front teeth blacked out.

Concessions and skits for pep assemblies topped the list of activities for this class. Freshmen quickly learned the high school routine, beginning each day with lively chatter and a rush to lockers.

Two More Laps for Sophomores

Sophomores' world is partially complete—they have come half-way and with mounting enthusiasm anticipate the final laps of their journey.

They are patiently waiting their seniorhood by keeping busy with activities that are pushing them closer to their goal.

The second year seems to be the year students are loaded with the most courses, but anticipation of two more years of work and fun keep them on their toes, striving to better their previous record.

Talent Show Brings Profits

In the month of November, the juniors held their talent show which brought in $88. Emcees for this event, David Larson and Richard Haugh, displayed the long and short of their class.

Class rings arrived at Christmas time and juniors proudly showed off their symbol of three years of hard work.

Juniors sparked football and basketball squads and distinguished themselves in many activities throughout the year.

Seniors Explore Past

Graduation, the day of days for the Seniors was June 4 in the gymnasium. Baccalaureate was in the Osborn Auditorium, June 3.

"The Golden Years" was the theme for homecoming depicting the anniversary of the high school. Honor classes were those of 1932, 1942, and 1952, with Queen Grace Bakke reigning over the activities.

Queen Caroline Rinke together with Princesses Judy Woodcock and Sharon Henderson ruled over Leavenworth's 31st Annual Ski Jumping Tournament January 28, 1962.

Freshman Initiation was held again this year, emceed by John Darling, and netted over $100 for the class treasury.

"Ball Ha!" set the scene for the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet in 1961. Each year the class of 1962 took its turn in selling concessions at the football and basketball games.

Freshman year the seniors held a mixer with a dance following, to initiate the new class into high school life.

Grace Bakke and Keith Brown were awarded the American Legion Award in the eighth grade. Caroline Rinke, Jay Stroup and John Darling received recognition for outstanding scholarship; and Grace Bakke and John Darling were given outstanding patrol awards.

Senior Class Recalls Past

"Four years... it hasn't seemed really that long," muse a few graduating seniors. How well they remember the first few frightening days as freshmen, wading through class assignments, learning to study and keep up with all the homework.

KIT CLARK
Ski Team 1; Boys' Club 1−4.

Incoming freshmen suffered at the hands of the seniors at Frosh Initiation, where boys were dressed in diapers and girls in gunnysacks.

Pleasant Memories

Seniors had bad times, too—those barely completed term papers and quizzes. The end of the world seemed near—until pleasant memories crept in, like giving the boys a good yell even after an un-victorious game.

Four Golden Years of Work Well Done

Enthusiasm plus participation in LHS's many activities filled out four years of hard work for seniors.

There's something exclusive about being a senior. The prom, commencement, and baccalaureate belong to us alone.

Senior Class Small but Mighty

Who else but the Class of '62 could net over $100 on Freshman Initiation, or still have $110 left in the treasury after their prom. Everyone was kept busy each year on several jobs but they managed to accomplish the impossible.

Seniors begin dreaming of graduation as they are measured for caps and gowns, and yet in their minds they gladly prolong the day when they will no longer be high school seniors.

The End and the Beginning — Diplomas

Being a senior is not all pleasure, for seniors hold positions of leadership and responsibility.

There’s application anxiety and college board jitters. Every teacher seems to expect a term paper.

Seniors must constantly make decisions. Which career will I choose? Which college will I choose? Which college will choose me? Being a senior is hard, but it is enjoyable.

Youth and America

F.D. Roosevelt

"Let us carry on the good that the past gave us. The best of that good is the spirit of America. And the spirit of America is the spirit of inquiry, of readjustment, of improvement, above all, a spirit in which youth can find the fulfillment of its ideals.

It is for the new generation to participate in the decisions and to give strength and spirit and continuity to our government and to our national life."
Top Honors Go to Top Students

Ratings according to trust, loyalty, obedience, sportsmanship, self-reliance, courtesy, cooperation, dependability, scholarship, and self-control, determine the selection of Ideal Senior by the faculty. The boy and girl considered outstanding in participation are given the "All Around" awards.

Four-Year Honor Students

Standing: Terry Richards, Caroline Rinke, Sharon Henderson, and John Darling. Seated: Judy Woodcock, Bill Beyer, Mike Hintzorne, Grace Bakke.

Torch members are those students in the senior class who made a B average or better for eight consecutive semesters, excelling in the attainment of character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

Terry, Caroline, Sharon, John, Judy, and Grace will receive torch pins. Mike and Bill missed several semesters in making the honor roll but have an over-all B average.

Twelve years ago, 19 students began their school "daze" in Leavenworth.

Others came and went but these 19 remained loyal.

Karen and Gene Reign Over 1962 Prom

Prom King Gene Parker and Queen Karen Wagy were elected by the senior class to reign over the Junior-Senior Prom May 12.
