War Babies Graduate!

These students, the product of the post-war baby boom, have gone through thick and thin together and are being set out into the world with nothing but a good education and a minute knowledge of the things surrounding them. These seniors of 1965 are all members of the largest class ever to graduate from Peshastin-Dryden High School and will be the future leaders of our communities, our states, and our nation.

With the help and understanding of Mr. Houser and Mr. Johnston and the aid of Mrs. Racy, the Class of '66' had a very prosperous year. They took care of all the concessions for the basketball and football games. On the 24th of April they presented the Senior Ball.

The sophomore class, advised by Mr. Thies and Mrs. Kauffman, sponsored the annual Cotton Ball, one of the main dances of the year. In the early part of the year 1964-65 they gave a playnite. Other activities included an after game dance and a car wash in the spring.

ACTIVITIES
Boys' State was held at Pacific Lutheran University near Tacoma. The purpose of Boys' State is to further the knowledge of state, county, and city government.

First, city and county officials were elected. After they operated for several days, state officials were elected and began functioning immediately. All functions were carried on just as they are in Washington State.

Girls' State began two weeks after school and it is a week I will remember with pleasure in the future. Girls' State used the facilities of Central Washington College of Education.

Not only was Girls' State enjoyable but very educational. The three hundred girls were divided into ten cities and the cities belonged to one of five countries.
Those Who Lead Us

The Student Council has performed several activities this past year. Under the leadership of Ken Link they sponsored the annual Halloween Party, purchased wrestling and Basketball uniforms, decorated the school for the Christmas Holidays and revised the ASB constitution.

otherwise known as the Honor Society, launched their money-making campaign with a cider sale. They made the cider themselves. The next undertaking was the annual "Turkey Trot Hobo Tolo." A "live" band played and a live turkey was given away.
The dance was a social and financial success. Before Christmas the group sold fruit cakes to all willing buyers. The Kiwanis honored the club members at a banquet during which seniors gave speeches telling the purpose of Honor Society. In the Spring, they attended a stage play in Seattle.

The '65 Puma Staff has been a busy energetic group. Editor Steve Blair and other members of the staff along with Mrs. Lyle attended the North Central Washington Yearbook Conference at Chelan. Steve was one of the four students on a panel selected to discuss the problems of "putting out" a yearbook. Rhonda Craig also went to a yearbook conference at the University of Washington. For the first time in two years, the Puma Staff celebrated with a party at the end of the school year.

The opening day of turnout, fourteen returning seniors, determined to hang the victory flag from the halls of PDHS, reported for practice. This nucleus of experience carried the load throughout the season and when the gridiron dust had cleared, Cougarville owned its first clear-cut football championship. Many things guided this quest for supremacy. The student government purchased a seven man charging sled. The attitude of the student body and the cheerleaders was outstanding. Perfect weather prevailed throughout the entire fall, and a winning spirit on the ball club grew with each turnout.

The Cougars fine record of 8 wins and 1 loss brought state wide recognition as they finished the year in 8th place on the AP poll. A squad of 37 members brought the season to an end with the defeat of Leavenworth on their homefield.
