IN MEMORY OF

RAYMOND BARNES

Beyond the realm of the crowded classroom, in the scenic Wenatchee Valley, lies a world of beauty and contentment—the mountains, the lakes, the color, the fresh air, hunting, fishing, and hiking. This is life in its fullness and this Raymond Barnes, our former classmate, knew and enjoyed with a passion few will ever realize.

The dedication of this yearbook to Raymond Barnes is a dedication to life itself. The harmony of nature and the great out-of-doors will forever remind us of our friend and the things he loved.

FRESHMEN
Dress rehearsal at the production of the "Hoosier Schoolmaster," a Junior Class activity. This adventuresome three-act play centers around a schoolmaster, who is the better man, and two mischievous boys who try their best to get him ousted.
VICKI ARNOLD GIRLS’ STATE

Girls' State is a wonderful learning experience which should be offered to every girl. I was fortunate enough to attend the Ninth Annual Evergreen Girls' State held at CWSC in Ellensburg last summer.

During the legislative session at Girls' State we acted on many bills similar to that which our state legislature ruled on in their last session. One such bill considered the lowering of the voting age.

While those eight wonderful days at Girls' State sped by, I learned more about our government than any book could have possibly taught me, but even more important I made lasting friends.

BOYS’ STATE JOHN SMITH

Last year I was fortunate enough to represent Peshastin-Dryden at the American Legion's Evergreen Boys' State. When we arrived we found that we had been divided into cities, counties, and political parties. Throughout the week we performed the various duties of these levels of government.

Toward the last of the week we held our elections for state officers in which I was elected to the House of Representatives. There we acted on many bills ranging from fishing rights to the war in Viet Nam.

During this week I learned more about how our state, county, and city governments work than would be possible to learn out of any book or civics class.
HONOR SOCIETY

The purpose of the Honor Society is to promote scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

With a new advisor, Mr. Fox, the Honor Society accomplished their old feats. The annual cider squeeze was held which again financed the Honor Society Scholarship fund. A Thanksgiving Sweater Dance was held with the accompanying Slave Auction. Spring events included a dinner given by the Kiwanis and a long awaited trip. At the end of the year, the Honor Society awarded senior scholarships based on the four aims.

LETTERMEN

OFFICERS

The Lettermen's Club, guided by President Larry Yonaka and Mr. Houser, the club's advisor, presented their first activity on October 14, a Batman skit during Homecoming. A skit with the theme of "They're Coming to Take Me Away" was performed for the PDHS-Leavenworth joint pep assembly. During harvest, a "pick up the props day" added funds to the treasury.

The biggest activity of the Pep Club for the year was promoting school spirit. They joined forces with the Lettermen’s Club and presented the best Homecoming of the school’s history.

Some of their accomplishments were the change of uniforms and the sectioning off of the yelling section at the Dryden gym. The Pep Club members sold admission tickets at our home football, wrestling, and basketball games; and they supported the Cougars at all their athletic activities.

MATH CLUB

The Math Club at Peshastin-Dryden High School was founded for the purpose of creating interest in the fields of mathematics. In this year as in past years the Math Club will make one or two short excursions to see Math and Science working in today's world. These trips have shown many things that can not be taught in text books. With the regular meetings, the Math Club hopes to bring enjoyment to those students who are willing to expend time and effort for the benefit of themselves and others.

YEARBOOK STAFF

The Puma Staff began their year with a few willing members traveling to Pasco, attending a yearbook conference and finally touring the publishing plant. Thus gaining new ideas and experience, the staff worked many hours in planning and arranging the 1966-67 yearbook.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Led by A.S.B. President John Smith and Mr. Kerns, the advisor, the Student Council accomplished much during the year.

One of the most important projects was the buying of new athletic uniforms. This included track uniforms, and football jerseys and pants.

During the weeks prior to the Christmas holidays, the Student Council brought a "festive" feeling to PDHS by decorating the halls. They also arranged for Santa to visit us and had an exchange of gifts between the students in a joyful Christmas program.
