We've only just begun. We've only just begun. Sharing horizons that are new to us. Watching the signs that are new to us. Watching the signs that are new to us. Watching the signs that are new to us.

Working together day to day. Together, together. Much of life ahead. We'll find a place where we've only just begun to live before the rising sun, we fly. So many roads to choose. Sharing horizons that are new to us. Watching the signs that are new to us. Watching the signs that are new to us.

In trying new ideas, in the community.

Another first for Mrs. Focht!
Mr. Bolyard takes time to chat with Mr. Rice.

We, the 1971-72 annual staff would like to express our deepest appreciation and most sincere thanks to Mr. Dale Bolyard for his dedicated services during his many years here at L.H.S. Not only is he the school custodian, but he is the students' friend. Many times he has come to the rescue of some forgetful student who remembered he needed a book at 8:30 at night. The students of L.H.S., have come to depend upon Mr. Bolyard and we're quite sure that the school would never be the same without him, with this we dedicate the 1972 Lecupi to Mr. Bolyard.
"Thank You Mr. Bolyard"

It's Mr. Bolyard to the rescue!

Mr. Bolyard plays an important role in both school and home situations.

Students Enter LHS's First Hall of Fame

Another first for 1972 was achieved with the establishing of a Hall of Fame at LHS. Inducted into the Hall of Fame were those students who had received special honors. These particular students have achieved success in academics, citizenship, and as student leaders of the school.

Duane Schmoker and Jacque Brender were LHS's representatives to Boys' and Girls' States.

Susie Bayne was selected as editor of the yearbook, LECAPI, for 1971-72.

Loy Ward was recognized as an outstanding cornet player and therefore, was chosen as a member of the MacDonald's All-American Band.

Mr. Bert Granger, High School Secretary

Mrs. Martha Jensen, Superintendent

Mr. Cot Rice, High School Principal

Mr. Rice feels the seniors have seen many changes this year in curriculum, opportunities, and time organization.

Some of them were successful and some were not. They saw tremendous growth in LHS, and the changing of three superintendents within four years.
Because of a deep interest in the welfare and education of our Leavenworth youth, the following school board members give willingly of their time to this cause. School board members are: Dr. Marvin Speer, Mr. Orville Richards, Mr. Ralph Newell, Dr. Ernest Chandler and Mr. Marshall Seemannson.
"Together... Together"

Many classes with original projects and experiments have made learning more interesting. These projects vary from psychology talk shows and Home-Ec play school, to black light posters in art.

Mrs. Elaine Focht not only teaches, but gets thoroughly involved with all of her classes.
World Affair's Luncheon

Mrs. Beverly Riddell has a very busy schedule that includes many special projects within her regular classes.

Psychology Experiment
Cindy Kelley removes a tasty Home Ec. pie from the oven as Loretta Kerr licks her lips with anticipation.

Basketball coach Fred Hauff teaches the shop and crafts classes. Students under his direction are encouraged to "let themselves go," and imagination is allowed to run wild.

Mrs. Hicks (Upper Right) moved into different areas of L.H.S., teaching this year by working with the Core Ed and Basic Education classes besides her usual job of tending to study hall students.

Miss Eichmeyer (Lower Right) travels daily from the grade school to L.H.S. to run the high school library.

Gay Sweat reads off a story for the Grizzly Growl on KPQ as Marilyn Cline holds the microphone for her and Janet Smith watches.

Mrs. Cowan portrays the innocence of a young school girl, but in her classes is a real Grizzly at heart.

Bottle-cutting was one of the many projects taken up by the crafts class. Pictured (Clockwise) are Bill Taylor, Paula Norman, Clifford Baird, and Jack Burgess.

Mr. Lietz is advisor to the journalism class and teaches history and aviation. His classes take many field trips to different areas corresponding with their subjects.
Mrs. Kathie Bauer worked hard along with Mr. Rice on a reorganization program to update our school.

Macrame is just one of the many things Mrs. Bauer has her Core Ed. class doing.

Mr. Fred Wahlquist found time in his busy teaching schedule to coach the Grizzly wrestling team.
DRIVING!!! Here Mr. Turner is trying to achieve the impossible by teaching SOPHOMORES to drive.

Sometimes known as "Coach", Mr. Gary Turner worked hard with the Grizzly football team this year.

Miss Linda Orndoff showed her interest in the students and school by serving as a member of the Student-Faculty Advisory Committee.

Teaching boys how to sew is trying, but Miss Orndoff has yet to succeed.

Vera Chestam, John Johnstone, and Iver Jensen keep the kids coming to school while Dale Bolyard and Ethel Cloke keep the school clean and well fed. Ethel and Dale are two very hard working people at LHS, whom most everyone depends upon for a good meal or to get back into the locker room long after everyone else has gone home.

Teachers' aids and office help are the odd job doers and general handymen for the LHS teachers.

Making bulletin boards, correcting papers, and running errands are a few of the tasks that fall to these students working at the high school.

Students helping at the grade school and junior high work in the library, observe children in the lower grades, and even take part in the actual teaching at times.

The Student-Faculty Advisory Committee is a group of students and teachers working together to provide a better understanding between high school adolescents and adults, regarding school matters.

One of their projects this year was a revision in the dress code.
"...Talking It Over..."

The office help works under the supervision of Bert, Mrs. Rice's secretary. Some of their duties include collecting attendance slips, typing, delivering the daily bulletin, and answering the telephone.

Below is a picture of some Student Council members at a Chamber of Commerce dinner. Each student was a guest of a Chamber host.

The Student Council worked all year to bring about changes and betterment around LHS. Two of the Council's accomplishments were revising our constitution and making progress on the student exchange program.

Even though all the students at L.H.S. are great, some of the students deserve special recognition. These people are members of Honor Society, four year "B" average, or Torch Club.

Honor Society includes Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors who have made the Honor Roll two consecutive semesters. Four year "B" averages are the Seniors who have a 3.0 or better after all four years at L.H.S.

Torch Club are those Seniors who have worked hard throughout the years to achieve a 3.0 or above every semester.

Congratulations go to these students for their diligent studying to earn their high grades.
Doug Chandler and Mickey McGregor are just two of the kids around IHS who work hard to achieve their grades.

"ACTIVE" is the word for GAA. This club creates and participates in various activities all year long. Some of their sporting games are: volleyball, basketball, and soccer.

Enthusiastic players make a good team and our GAA girls are always energetic.

"I" Club is an organized club made up of boys and girls, who have earned their letters in various sports.

These lettermen participate in such sports as football, baseball, basketball and track.

One of the very few events that both GAA and "I" do together is Donkey Basketball. This is a great money making event for both extremely active clubs.

Red and black outfits of Pep Club are one sign of school spirit that Pep Club shows. They also yell at pep assemblies and games. One of their projects was selling Grizzly T-shirts which went over big. Thank you, Pep Club, for being here!

Before each game, tribute is paid to our flag and country.
One of the jobs of the Pep Club is to put on skits at the pep assemblies.

Drama Club is an exceptionally great club. The club is made up of kids with many different talents. The students' talents range from acting and make-up to prompting and stage building. Everyone in the club helped to make the play, "Here Come the Brides" a roaring success.

Major projects of Drama Club included presenting a play for public viewing, a trip to Seattle to view a well-known play and to just have a lot of good, clean fun.

In honor of their directors, Mrs. Kathie Bauer and Mr. John McCollum, the club bought replica plaques of the Tragedy and Comedy masks. The Drama Club greatly appreciated their time, concern, trouble, and help.

The officers of this outstanding club are Joyce Ayers, Pres.; Duane Schmoker, V. Pres.; Carol Rumbaugh, Sec.; Karen Alvaraz, Treas.; Vicki Rice, C. R.

Five days a week at 8:00 p.m., several sleepy people start their days with choir. Chorus director is Miss Donaldson. Officers for choir are Carol Rumbaugh, president; Joyce Ayers, vice president, council representative; and Penne Cox, secretary-treasurer.

Leading the band on parade routes and doing routines at various games were the IHS Twirlers. Seniors Karen AlVarez (head twirler), Vicki Rice, and Susie Bayne represented IHS all four of their high school years. Sophomore Sandy Bayne has twirled with the band for two years.

A new group formed this year was the LHS-PD Stage Band. Students were chosen from both schools with recommendations from their band directors.

Marching in parades, playing in concerts, and occasional special performances downtown are some of the activities the band takes part in. Within the Grizzly Band is the Pep Band which plays at the football and basketball games. Band officers are Loy Ward, president; Tom Lorz, vice president; Cheryl Parsley, secretary-treasurer; and Dean Marson, council rep.

"And When the Evening Comes..."

With the theme, "The Spirit of '72 Welcomes You... Home!", Homecoming was a great success.

The "First Annual Homecoming Week Award" was created to add to the many activities of the Homecoming celebration. All students joined in the spirit of the week by dressing up as Cowboys and Indians, Cops and Robbers, and Army men. To show their involvement, Seniors won the new award.

Homecoming Spirit was ignited with the lighting of the bonfire. Though we lost our game to Chelan, 18-6, our spirit was undaunted.

The Homecoming Queen for 1971-1972 was Loy Ward. Her court included Freshman Princess Patti Gray, Sophomore Princess Jill Simpson, Junior Princess Debbie Brundage, and Senior Princess Joyce Ayers. Their escorts were Jack Burgess, Mike McEachren, Bobby Weaver, Jack West and Ken Kaiser, respectively.

The key to experience is practice, not only on the field, but off. The past season has been spent in becoming familiar with the grid-iron, with its do's and don'ts as applied in a game of skill and strength.

With our one victory over P-D, our season closed with the future bright for our up coming prospects for next year.

The head coach, Mr. Turner, and assistant coaches, Mr. Haugh, and Mr. Stroup, were pleased with the results of the team's defense and offense, this past year.
Coaches Stroup, Turner and Haugh really get involved in our football games.

"We've Only Just Begun..."

Junior Varsity had an encouraging season, winning most of their league games.

It adds a spark of interest to the JV team, to know they will become members of the Varsity team in the upcoming season.

They will become essential assets to the team next year with the experience they gained in JV competition.

"... Working Together..."

The wrestling team worked hard and got good results. Our team scores didn't indicate success because of forfeits, but the individual performances were great. We sent our entire team to sub-regionals where they competed against twelve other teams in our league. Jack Burgess, Endre Bouhey, Jon St. John, Rick Reynolds, Tim Hill, Tom Radach and Rex Segle went on to Regionals with the help of Coach Fred Wahlquist.

Left: Jack Burgess, captain, puts hammer lock on his man, then arm bar to roll him over for a pin. Jack’s hard work and abilities got him his 11-3 win-loss record and 3rd place at Sub-Regionals.

Queen Vicki was kept very busy attending many activities during the winter season of 1971-1972. Some of her duties included presiding at snowmobile races, and the Olympic Try-Out Ski Jumps. She also made television appearances and spoke to various groups.

We were also especially proud of a Leavenworth grad, Ron Steel, who placed highest in ski jumping competition from the American team in the 1972 Olympics, Sapporo, Japan.

The end of the second semester meant the election of the new A.S.B. officers.

The Rebel and Yankee Parties placed eight eligible candidates before the students of L.H.S. after the primary elections. Campaigning continued until March 2, when elections were held. With the Yankee Party having a large majority over the Rebels, all Yankee candidates were elected.

This year Mr. Walter Rembold will leave L.H.S. As he starts his retirement, many of the Seniors of '72 will start out on their own with the knowledge they have received from Mr. Rembold. We would like to thank Mr. Rembold for his time, effort, understanding and concern for our welfare and future.

The class of '74 has had an extremely active year as mighty sophomores. They have had many money raising projects such as a dance, a car wash, concessions, and selling pencils.

To the sophomores, class meetings mean a lot. They keep their council representatives active in student council by coming up with new ways of raising money.

We worked hard in our junior class meetings.

In our freshman year, we made a backward "S" for the Spirit Stick competition.
And, in our Senior year, we got it all together!

"...So Many Roads to Choose..."

With the Seniors finishing their last year, they will hold many fond memories in the back of their minds.

As freshmen, they entered high school with a certain fear, knowing that the Seniors of 1969 were tops. But as Sophomores, they started to loosen up by winning the Homecoming Skit competition. The successful Prom pleased the Juniors. Again, they won the Homecoming Skit competition. Also, they managed to win the coveted Spirit Stick Award. Then, they became the Mighty Seniors.

They put on the Homecoming Dance, won the first annual Homecoming Award, and went to Vancouver, B.C. for their Senior Trip.

The Seniors will have much to look back on, but also much to look forward to. May they have the best of luck wherever they go.

we've only just begun
Hi

We've only just begun. We fly. So many roads to choose. We start out walking. And when the evening comes, we smile. So we've only just begun. We start out walking. And when the evening comes, we smile. So we've only just begun. We start out walking.
