Seniors Love Freshmen on Initiation Day!?!?

Clockwise starting above: Freshmen take a spin around the block. They also put their best face forward on their big day. Wayne Wilcox gives Senior Roy Dickinson a lift to class. Mike Rayfield soaks up a little brotherly love from David.
Bumpy bathing suits and baggy boxers were in style among the freshmen one day. It was the day of the annual Freshman Initiation. Introduced to their masters in the morning, the freshmen performed many menial tasks throughout the day, and provided entertainment for the afternoon’s pep assembly.

Counter clockwise starting above: Patricia Bickel models new mud-pack while Wendy Ganong and Greg Clark are on the rocks. The yok’s on you, Darin Fuhrer, or is it? Sandy Russel and Wayne Wilcox on death march to Initiation Assembly.
Homecoming Week Holds Many Surprises

Once again Homecoming Spirit Week arrived at L.H.S. This year brought on a new dress up day designated for clowns. Other days included cowboy and hick, pajama and sports, and crazy day. On Thursday the bonfire was blazing and the sound of cheers was heard after the annual pep assembly. Friday arrived with the homecoming game, and the "Kiss the Pig" results. Mrs. Housden was the lucky winner. Coronation and the dance climaxed the week. The classes of '20, '30, '40, '50, '60, and '70 were all welcomed, and the dancers were treated to the sounds of "Regal."

Seniors
Play to Win

"The Juniors had a lot of fun and are looking forward to stomping the Sophomores next year," commented Coach Don Douglass. His team absorbed a disappointing 32 to 0 loss to the mighty Seniors in the Annual Powder Puff Football Game. Melissa Typling scored all but one of the touchdowns. The other touchdown was scored by Debbie Butler.

Autumnleaf

The Leavenworth High School students were more involved in this year's Festival than in recent years. Only two classes, however, entered floats in the parade out of which, the Sophomores won by a large margin.

The Freshman were doing great selling cotton candy until they destroyed the Lions Club cotton candy machine. The Sophomores sold pizzas and baked goods, while the Juniors boosted their treasury with a dunking booth and a corn on the cob booth. The Seniors worked for the Chamber of Commerce for a percentage of the take.

Dedication Deserves Thanks

The 1980 Lecapi staff is dedicating the production of this year's yearbook to our advisor, Mrs. Margaret Marson, who discovered with the rest of the staff, the dedication and hard work necessary for the production of a yearbook. This P.E. and Health teacher led the way in bringing the Lecapi out of debt and depression.

It was in 7th grade when the class of 1980 first set eyes on the new Social Studies teacher, Miss Schottfeldt. She was well liked by everyone and all grew to love her and upon entering the high school were saddened to leave her behind.

She pulled a "fast one" on the class, however, and after getting married in the summer returned to the high school to encourage us during our Freshman year. She was voted "Most Popular Teacher" in 1979 and continued to add variety to an otherwise hum-drums school life (as shown by her funny shape).

We, the Lecapi staff, would like to thank her for her help in directing our lives, her advice, friendship, and hard work. We also wish her well in the year's to come.

Leavenworth's version of the three stooges is pictured starring Don Douglass (Algebra, Chemistry, and Physics), Jan Wood (Biology, English, Math, Drama) and Margaret Marson (Health, P.E. and Lecapi advisor). The three seem to be trying on the Physics class' still.

The largest class in the history of Leavenworth High School was seen this year on campus; the class of 1983. Under the authority of President Suzie Parton, Vice-President Brenda Riggs, Secretary Marianne Motteler and Treasurer Shane Anderson, they succeeded in collecting a large sum of money. Among activities that contributed to the success were dances, a booth at Christmas Lighting and Autumn Leaf, and concessions.

Key chains, pom-poms, pencils, valentine carnations, concessions, and dances, were all fund raising projects for the class of '81. Part of this money was spent on the prom, which is put on by the Juniors. Officers this year were Jayne Blodgett, President, Tammy Baltera, Vice-President, Kerry Clark, Secretary, and Chuck Sege, Treasurer. A point system was also put into effect to get everyone involved to raise money for the Senior trip.

Fernando!!!

Who is Fernando? He is not, as popularly believed, a member of the Brazilian Mafia. He is Fernando de Lucio, Rotary exchange student from Brazil. At seventeen, he is graduated and therefore, doesn’t have to do any homework here (which he doesn’t). Fernando arrived toward the end of the second trimester and he plans to stay for about a year. We are pleased to make Fernando at home in Leavenworth.

The L.H.S. music department experienced serious cuts in the program this year due to staff reduction. The position of fulltime music instructor was reduced to two classes: band and choir. Director Jerry Dirkse put in many long hours filling the unbelievable demanding schedule of K-12 “Music Man.” In spite of the reduction, students maintained interest in their music as was evident through the performances of the students enjoyed by many throughout the year.

Student Council

This year’s student council was headed by officers Kenton Brine (President), Melissa Tupling (V. President), Jessalyn Hill (Secretary), and Beth Taylor (Treasurer). Aside from a March Tolo, they had a rather uneventful year.

The 1979-80 Leadership Camp was a great success once again. Twenty-six future leaders along with four camp instructors, Keith Koch, Howard Cook, Max Sinn and Ed McGuire, went to Twin Lakes in Idaho where they spent four exciting days learning new skills and ideas for the year.

Outside of learning, there were various other activities including volleyball games, canoeing, swimming and just plain relaxing.

A Small Lecapi Staff Perseveres

The 1980 Lecapi Staff has, this year, discovered through sweat and tears, that a yearbook doesn't just fall together under its own power. By the middle of the year, the staff had dwindled down to the few remaining and dedicated members who stuck it out. Their reward is the final product which, in our opinion, is on a par with any other in the country.

To equip themselves for the job, editor Nevonne Harris, co-editor Melissa Motteler, and advisor Margaret Marson attended a yearbook workshop in Spokane during the summer to become familiar with what is involved in the production of a yearbook. And, with a lot of hard work, were able to oversee the final production with pride.

Under the supervision of Mr. Cowles, a new club was formed at L.H.S. It comes under the title Future Business Leaders of America, which was established to help educate students about the business world and to prepare them for a career. The activities included selling candy bars, concessions, and athletic program advertising. The profit helped pay the way for 11 members to attend the FBLA State Convention in Spokane. Much of that time was spend campaigning for John Kageorge who was elected Northeastern Vice-President. Officers were President Sheryl Bowen, V. President Judie Satterfield, Treasurer Sarah Magee, Secretary Melissa Motteler, Reporter Vicki Renberg, Historian Brenda Brewer, Parliamentarian Julie Satterfield. Pictured (l to r) J. Satterfield, M. Motteler, V. Renberg, S. Bowen, Mr. Cowles, B. Brewer, D. Langlois, J. Satterfield, K. Burmester, L. West, Not pictured L. Tonge, B. Megert, H. Forchener, J. Kegeorge, A. Burgess, S. LHS Pep Club Shows Spirit

Although participation was at a minimum, Pep Club still managed to create enthusiasm in L.H.S. The officers were Co-Presidents Kari Gooding and Rena Maki, Secretary Kerri Gooding and Treasurer Debbie Malsam. The new advisor this year was Mrs. Housden. Along with the usual pep-pal duties, the members also sold "Stomp Em Grizzly" tee-shirts. The profits were then used to purchase shirts which were given to the Boy’s Basketball and Wrestling teams.

Football Fever
Hits L.H.S.

As athletics were put into full swing at LHS, many eager people were seen throwing, catching, and kicking the pig-skin ball again. Under the coaching talents of Rand Marquess and Keith Koch, the football team got off to a good start by winning games. Due to incidents later on in the season they finished rather quietly, but in good spirits, as Rod Darlington was voted "Most Inspirational" for the Grizzly team.

Varsity Volleyball Enjoys Season

The L.H.S. girls' volleyball team started the season full of enthusiasm and a lot of get up and go. Keeping their spirits high throughout the months, despite many losses, they proved unity and closeness. Coach Margaret Marson, Captain and Co-Captain, Deb Butler and Jessalyn Hill, shared the joys and the sorrows with the united team.

Under the coaching abilities of Don Douglass, the Junior Varsity team got off to a slow start but later picked up the pace. The team accomplished this by showing their willingness to learn and their dread of losing by the fact that they came back and won some very big matches. Perfecting their skills should prove to make them a good team in years to come.

First Time Since '69

The Leavenworth boys' basketball team ended their best season ever with a 16-4 win-loss record this year. They finished second in league standings and represented the Caribou Trail League in the State A tournament. The Grizzlies went into the tourney in second place. Though they did not place in the state tournament, their outstanding season will remain as a powerful incentive for future Grizzlies. We hope this will mark the beginning of a new tradition in Leavenworth sports... a winning tradition.

Record Crowds Support Grizzlies

The Grizzly team was proud of the support they received from the community and student body. Because of limited seating during district play-offs, many fans arrived at the gates two hours before game time. When the Grizzlies traveled to Tacoma for the State tourney they were followed and encouraged by a sizeable Leavenworth crowd.

It’s How They Play the Game

In spite of a discouraging win/loss record, this year’s Teddy Bear team was quite competitive. This fact was exemplified by Coach Howard Cook who stated, “The win-loss record for the Teddies was not indicative of their abilities on the basketball court.”

With the additional talent from the JV team, the varsity squad anticipates a winning season next year.

Grizzlies Host Bavarian Tourney

The Bavarian Village once more set the scene for another great event. This time it was the First Annual Bavarian Wrestling Tournament. Many hours were spent in preparation for this weekend of competition and thrills. Shane Brim, Chuck Sege, Lonnie Sandelin, Steve See, and Kelly Baumann placed second in their division, and Dean Malsam placed third.

Coach Keith described the team as one of the best he's ever had, and also added that their dedication was tremendous. Those receiving awards at the season's end were Shane Brim, "Honorary Captain," Chuck Sege, "Most Inspirational," and Robert Lockett, "Most Improved."

LHS fielded a young baseball team this year with freshmen securing starting positions as well as seniors. Experience gained will help the team to be much competitive in the coming years. The emphasis was certainly on individualized coaching as head coach Howard Cook was aided this season by assistant coach John Pfister.

Golf Increases Numbers and Quality

Five returning lettermen and numerous other experienced golfers got the golf team off to a tremendous start at Leavenworth. Playing nine holes every night along with private practice after that, improved the scores of all involved. The competition of qualifying for a match kept everyone at their peak of excitement and frustration. A special thanks to the Leavenworth Golf Course for their contribution of free golf for all team members throughout the season.

The LHS Track team of 1980 got off to a "running start" this year, or so it seemed, as the classrooms echoed moans and groans of sore muscles. Once again offering advice to the track members were Coach Wells and Coach Marquess who lead the team to another successful season.
Winter Spirit Week 1980, sponsored by cheerleaders and Pep Club, was a lot of fun for everyone who didn't mind the cold. The Sophomores won the dress-up part of the week, biggest snowball contest and frisbee golf. The Seniors took the tug o' war, the snow-shoe and the cross country race.

For the students with the shivers and the munchies, Pep Club donated hot chocolate and cookies.

ASB sponsored the snow sculpture contest with a $50 award. This was taken by the creative class of 1982.

The whole week was a fun enjoyable experience for all who participated.
Pictured clockwise starting on opposite page: Gregg Blackburn skillfully (?) shows shoes over rough terrain. The Junior class tuggin' in vain against the Seniors. Beaver Trots Through Mai Fest

Despite the “musk rat fever” and “beaver trots” caused by a parasite, giardia, found in the town water, Leavenworth’s 1980 Mai Fest was officially opened May 10. Junior Miss Kathryn Gehring reigned over the two day event and those who attended were rewarded with a good time (dancing in the street), good weather (on Sunday), and good food (provided by high school students and local service clubs). By order of the county Health Dept., water was trucked into the town and made available to those who did not wish to take their chances with the microscopic parasite.

“Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs” Graduate
Like an old building that has faithfully served its purpose then closes its doors to the sound of children playing, we leave our school days behind. May the experiences we have shared continue in our thoughts forever.
