We dedicate this year's edition of Ursa Major to the students of Cascade High School for all the hard work and dedication they put into our school to make it what it is today.
In Memory of Jim Ripley

A life not lived is truly lost, a risk well taken worth the cost. Jim lived his life to please the Lord, and even death can't break that cord. Enthusiasm, joy and love. Of christian friends, and God above; In life he influenced those he could, in death he touched a multitude. Jim’s with the Lord, the Lord is good. Life’s measured not by years, but should reflect God's love. And thus we see Jim’s faith still speaks to you and me.
Ben Swartout

Ben was a friend of many people. He was involved in videotaping games, writing an adventure novel, and working on computers.

As many people know, Ben had a sense of humor. He told weird jokes and wrote comic strips with "Super Duck" and the "Loch Ness Monster."

Ben didn’t always do or say the right thing, but over all he was a good person.

— Matt Swartout
1. Robby looks like he is really enjoying his lunch.
2. Brent looks like he could be confused? 3. Doesn’t Ray really know how to strut! 4. What’s up Ed and Mike? 5. Looks like Kristen’s working hard, as usual!
1. Kelley and Shelley! I wonder what they are smiling about? 2. A few Kodiaks showing their school pride and spirit. 3. Doesn't Lisa look amused about something. 4. Sara showing off again. 5. Looks like we caught you off guard Matt. 6. Heidi, are you beating up on the guys again?

ADMINISTRATORS THIRST

“Touch a mind”
“Touch a heart”
“Touch a life”
“That is what we are about here,” says Mr. Paul Ganalon.

Mr. Ganalon became Cascade’s principal this year after holding previous principal and assistant principal positions in the Bremerton and Bainbridge school districts.

A goal for Mr. Ganalon is Cascade High School becoming one of the top schools in the state academically and co-curricularly. He wants Cascade to be an effective school which will provide programs to meet the needs of high, middle, and low achieving students for a successful career with college, vocational school, business school, technical school, or the world of work.

Mr. Ganalon really enjoys Cascade High School. He says the school is beautiful with terrific students, committed teachers, and a supportive community.

Mr. Howard Cook became Cascade High School’s new assistant principal this year. Mr. Cook has ten years of previous teaching experience mainly in psychology, journalism, and business. He was also an active coach.

Mr. Cook enjoys his new position as assistant principal although he does miss the contact with the students in the classroom.

Mr. Cook says, “I am truly excited about the attitude, atmosphere, and direction shown by the students at Cascade this year.”

IT WAS A CLASSIC WEEK!

The Cascade student body celebrated Homecoming by dressing up for the Spirit Week. Spirit Week consisted of the following dress up days; Monday — sweat day, Tuesday — hat and shades day, Wednesday — Hawaiian day, Thursday — tourist day and Friday was red and gray day. Debbie Darlington reigned as queen escorted by Darren Lowe. The Royalty included Seniors Leslie Nicholas and Ray Orcutt, Juniors Heidi Houser and Denny Sweat, Sophomores Kristie Houston and Todd Thrasher and Freshman Jenae Taylor and Dan Palasky.

ART CLUB

The Art Club spent the year raising money for a trip to a Seattle art show. They did so by raffling off a Kodiak teddy bear and a 25-inch pizza from the Baren Haus. They also held a bake sale to increase funds.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLUB

The Foreign Language Club planned a trip to Expo '86 and they held bake sales and other fund-raisers for this. The club also brought Christmas cheer to many elderly people when they sang their foreign Christmas carols at rest homes.

The Art Club Officers are: President — Tina Mayfield, Vice-President — Michele Klosner, Secretary — Paula Gildersleeve, Treasurer — Rob Stroup. Advisor is Bonnie Powell.

The Foreign Language Club Officers are: President — Gloria Sanford, Vice-President — Marnie Cox, Secretary — Jill Townley, Treasurer — Bev Warman. Advisor is Mr. Farag.

ALL IN GOOD TASTE

The Cascade Drama Club had a very interesting year this year. Playing a double feature posed on them a lot of work and stress, but they pulled it off!

One of the two drama productions was "Where Have All The Lightning Bugs Gone?", starring Sara Renberg and Nathan Link. Those of you who saw it will remember the interesting plot and story.

The other play was called "Such A Nice Little Kitty". This was about a man, a woman, and a cat that drove the man crazy. The story is based around a Garfield-like cat (which you never see) that is driving the husband crazy. In the meantime, the wife sticks up for the "poor little kitty." Excellent performances by Bruce Carter (the husband), Bev Warman (the wife), and Gary Thoren (the cop), captivated the audience.

These pictures show some of the scenes from both productions.

The Student Council had made many hard decisions this year. They were very busy trying to promote leadership in our school and trying to keep up the positive attitude toward our school. They did this by showing their pride and enthusiasm for the students they worked so hard for.

Our new principal, Mr. Ganalon, was a great advisor and helped improve our school by bringing in new ideas.

1. Yes, these actually were our leaders who ran this school! Hard to believe, eh? Standing left to right: Debbie Darlington — President; Mike Pflugrath — Treasurer; Shannon Williams — secretary; Mr. Ganalon — Principal; Leslie Nicholas — V.-Pres.

2. Student Council is the name, and keeping busy is the game! At least that's what Amy, Kristy, Duane, Ashley and Kari see it.

The 1985-86 Cascade Journalism/Yearbook Staff was small but full of many creative ideas. Although most of them had very little experience we managed to get the job done. Mr. Brunelle experienced his first year here at Cascade as our advisor.

With a little creative thinking we decided the over-all theme of this year's annual would be "Cascade Classic". This theme was derived from the product coca-cola classic. The headlines and trademarks are taken from old coke commercials and jingles dating back to the early 1900's.

The staff continued to commercially print "The Kodiak Yak" thanks to the Leavenworth Echo and the help of Miles and Jane Turnbull. We also decided to start a student paper, as done in past years, to give the students a paper they could call their own. We give special thanks to Greg McEwen and Terry Loss for some of the photos you see throughout this book, and to Howard Cook for all the help and advice.

We hope you the students of Cascade will enjoy this annual as much as we did in making it a "classic" just for you!

DISTRCT FOR THE THRILL OF IT

1. Mike Waters shoots for two. 2. Ed Michael rebounds for the Kodiaks. 3. Cory Hiens, Ed Michael, and Brett Holmen going for the ball. 4. Jim Saunders puts it in for two for the Kodiaks.
The girls’ varsity basketball team was a young team consisting of four seniors, two juniors, and six sophomores. Even though the Kodiaks lacked some experience, they had a successful season ending their play with a 17-7 record. The team placed second in the Caribou Trail League and finished third in district action.

Coach Bullis had an enjoyable year and said, “this was a really fun group to work with.” He noted the fact that “six out of our seven losses were to teams that placed at state.”

The girls worked hard this year and were recognized for their teamwork. The team definitely had a family atmosphere with everyone working for each other.

“I’m very proud of the girls in our program,” said Mr. Bullis, “and very pleased with their improvement and dedication to the sport.”

Congratulations for a fine season!

1. Kristen shows total concentration. 2. I guess you could say Shannon wants that ball. 3. Jana, isn’t that a little close to the basket for you? 4. Kami Wagoner contributes 2 points for the Kodiaks. 5. Strategy! 6. Wendi is high in the sky for two, while Jennifer gets rebound position.

"Thanks for the memories, Herb" —
JUNIOR VARSITY

The girls' junior varsity basketball team had a very successful year ending the season with a 19-1 record. The team dominated the Caribou Trail League J.V. action, blasting one opponent after another.

"I was pleased with their performance," said Ms. Wilson, the girls J.V. coach. "They played a lot of good, enthusiastic basketball. Although they were inconsistent at times, that is to be expected at the J.V. level." Coach Wilson went on to say, "We should have been 20-0, but I'm really pleased with our 19-1 record."

The girls' junior varsity definitely had a season they can be proud of.

CATCH THE FEVER OF SPRING!

This year the students of Cascade celebrated the end of winter and the coming of spring with a week of spirited activity. Each day of the week was designated for dress-up as follows: Monday — Shorts and Shades Day; Tuesday — 50’s Day; Wednesday — Punk Day; Thursday — Red and Gray Day; and Friday — Spring Sports Day.

The week ended in a “classic” way. A combination of winter and spring activities got under way on Friday. The activities ranged from sled races, on what little snow there was left, ice cream eating, pickleball to the traditional volleyball games and tug-of-war. The Juniors were the overall winners.

Thanks to the Pep Club and cheerleaders for making it a successful week!!

LEADERSHIP — GO GET SOME!

The '85 Leadership Camp was truly one of the greatest in years. The camp was held at "Heaven Can Wait," a resort in the Plain area. The campers learned about Parliamentary Procedure, getting students involved, leadership skills, promoting school spirit, and being dedicated to their school. Not all their time was spent in sessions. They did manage to find time to swim, go hot tubbing, jump on the trampoline, play volleyball, and "Punch in the Dragon" on the VCR.

The Leadership Camp members also wanted to start something new and keep the spirit flowing throughout the year. They decided to create the Leadership Club. Their purpose is to provide an example for other students by showing school spirit and being involved in school activities. It has made a positive attitude within Cascade and united those students who want to help to improve our school. One of their projects this year was a read-a-thon which lasted an entire quarter. It was a profitable money raiser, as well as beneficial to the readers.

The Leadership Club is expected to grow and become even more involved in the future. With their main goal of continuing school spirit and involvement, they're sure to have continued success.

2. The camp T-shirts say it all. James T. and the guys are helping The Red Cross in mailing letters.

3. The Club takes a stand on litter in a pep assembly. (Yes, they are wearing garbage bags.)

2. Mr. Canalon gives final instructions.
3. Torch members recognized.
4. A salute to the "Class of '86"
5. Class advisor prepares the graduates.
6. Last minute adjustments.

"Best of luck, Class of '86" — Kristall's, one of North Central Washington's most talked about restaurants.
Yesterday’s Dream...

We laughed until we had to cry, and we loved, right down to our last goodbye.
We were the best I think we’ll ever be, for just a moment.
We chased that dream we never found, and sometimes, we let one another down, but the love we made, made everything all right. We shone so bright,
for just a moment.
Time rolls on, people touch, and they’re gone, and you and I will never love again, like we did then.
Someday, when we both reminisce, we’ll both say there wasn’t too much we missed, and through the tears, we’ll both smile, when we recall, we had it all,
for just a moment.
Time rolls on, people touch and then they’re gone, but you and I, we’ll never really end, we’ll never love again, like we did then.
We laughed, until we had to cry, and we loved,
right down to our last goodbye.

TOMORROW'S FUTURE

1. "Are we having fun, yet?"
2. Class speaker reminisces.
3. The Grand Entrance.
4. Together for the last time . . .
