It's with great pleasure that this year's staff dedicates the 2000-2001 yearbook to Mr. Ron Carpenter. During Mr. Carpenter's retirement, his involvement in the community and with the students of Cascade High School has been a tremendous benefit. He is currently a member of the Lion's Club, Trout Unlimited, Troop 28 in Leavenworth, and the Professional Society of Photographers of America as well as advisor to the photography staff here at Cascade.

While in the Navy Mr. Carpenter was stationed in California and Guam. His love for photographic daring was evident during his assignments, which placed him in the eye of many hurricanes.

After leaving the Navy, he spent the next thirty years as owner of Bryn Mauer Construction and Investments in North Seattle. His retirement led him to Leavenworth where he dedicates much of his time to helping the Cascade High School photography department. His donations and expertise have been greatly appreciated throughout the years.

The Cascade High School publications staff would like to thank Mr. Carpenter for helping the students at Cascade. We hope his services continue for many years to come.

A Season To Be Proud Of

The 2000 Football Season proved to be a winner for the seniors. The four years they were out for football they lost only eight games, were league champs three years, and district champs two years.

The season proved to them that as a group they could accomplish goals. An example is that our defensive team was seniors exclusively. As a defense they played with an intensity and relentlessness.

As a team they achieved a lot. They had a disappointing loss in the middle of the season but bounced back to be co-champs of the CWAC North.

The final record of 9-2 was indicative of their heart, desire, and commitment to have a great year. All of the seniors will be missed.

As coaches we are looking forward to next year.

Down by the River

There is said to be a place where the towns people go on late Friday night under the lights that glow.

They come to witness the greatest game ever made and to reminisce about the days when they had played.

The time is at hand, so the talking does yield; out of the darkness the Kodiaks burst onto the field.

The crowd erupts with such passionate cheer; there is no better atmosphere than that which is here.

And playing football for the Kodiaks gives such a shiver because there's no better place than down by the river.

So bring on the Eastmont Cats, the Omak Pioneers, and the Quincy Jacks, for none can compete with the Cascade Kodiaks!

-Aaron Johnson

The Cascade volleyball team started the season off with a bang! They traveled to Ellensburg for a jamboree where they took 2nd place. After a loss to Okanogan, the team bounced back and beat Ephrata on their home court, something the Kodiaks had not accomplished in many years. The Kodiaks then went on to win the Chelan Tournament - another first for the Kodiaks in several years. The middle of the season did not prove to be as successful. Out of many close matches, they only grabbed two more wins, both against Quincy, before ending their season on a positive note. The Kodiaks came to life in the Ephrata Tournament, finishing in 2nd place overall.

This year’s team finished the season with momentum by winning three of their last four games. Led by the strong efforts of five seniors the Kodiaks knocked off state-ranked Ephrata in the season finale. The team accomplished many of their goals including setting examples of sportsmanship and class throughout the league.

Next year the Kodiaks will miss the services of senior lettermen Marcus Roche, Adam Fallert, Jim Fromm, Cam Hollingsworth, and Aaron Johnson. However, Cascade fans can look forward to an exciting season with varsity stars Brent Frank, Nick Fender, Skyler Campbell, Sturt Rudolph, Pat Betz, and a host of up and coming underclassmen that look to form well around the established nucleus of Kodiak players.

Girls' Basketball

The 2000-2001 Lady Kodiak Varsity Basketball team demonstrated a strong work ethic and a never quit attitude. Captain Kyle Bergren and the other four seniors led their team both on and off the court, continuing the tradition of pride and excellence. The team fought hard in every game they played, not accepting victory or defeat until the last buzzer sounded.

The most memorable wins were a 1 point victory over Kings, after the buzzer, and a sweet victory over Cashmere on their home court. The Lady Kodiaks tied for fourth in the CWAC and lost in a tie-breaker game against Tonasket.

Amanda Merkley earned CWAC 2nd Team All-Opponent honors and Sara DeCoria was named to the CWAC Honorable Mention All-Opponent team. Seniors Mikayla Lewis and Sara DeCoria were chosen to play in the North Central Washington Senior All-Star game in Wenatchee. Kyle Bergren was voted Most Inspirational by his teammates and Anna O'Neill earned the Most Improved Award.

This team will be long remembered for never giving up.

Prom 2001 was definitely a success. The Middle school commons was transformed into a heavenly wonderland with silver, white, and baby blue. Collecting in the center over a three-tiered fountain, streamers formed a canopy above the dance floor. A castle decorated the entire back wall and white Christmas lights created an ethereal fantasy world.

This year’s Leavenworth Junior Miss program was a dazzling display of creative choreography, flashy decorations, and beautiful smiles. A total of fourteen girls participated in the final performance making Leavenworth’s Junior Miss 2001 one of the largest ever. To make things even better, the scholarships amounted to more than $6000.

Following the space odyssey theme, the girls danced to songs like “The Twilight Zone,” “E.T. Theme Song,” and selections from Star Wars. Overall, the evening was a smashing success!

The Cascade girl’s 2000-2001 softball team was very successful this year. With a season record of 11-1, the team took the League Championship title in the Northern CWAC division. Varsity catcher Tyree McMahon commented on this memorable season by saying, “This has been one of the most exciting seasons our team has ever had. Softball has been a great learning experience for all of us. Being League Champs is definitely grounds for congratulations.”

Eventhough the team will be losing seven seniors, there are several other prospects coming up from a very successful Junior Varsity. They had a strong season record of 18-2, showing signs for another great season next year.

Right: Freshman Jason Vale shields his face from the sun as he waits for the line drive into center field.
Above: The Kodiak guys encourage each other in between innings and take the field.

Bottom Left: Junior Charley Voorhis quickly scoops up the ball, and prepares to release a smooth throw to first base. Did I hear somebody say “skills”?

Above right: Freshman Jared Arnold works to get himself out of a sand trap by using his pitching wedge, and just a little skill.

Golf Season Greats

"It was May 3rd, as Heather Schiel, Mr. Douglas and I were practicing together on hole seven, and I had just teed off. I headed down the hill to hit my ball, when I tripped and practically yard-saled in front of everyone. Not surprisingly, all that my supportive coach Mr. Douglas had to say was, "Did you have a nice trip? And see you next fall." Sheesh! Try a little sympathy!"

-Katrina Samuel

"The most hilarious thing I can remember about the season happened while we were golfing at Warden. Katrina hit the ball out of the side of a pond and ... it flew directly into another pond. It just so happened (as it always does) that all of the hot guys chose that moment to finally pay attention to the game. She simply took her penalty, grabbed her five iron, and hit the ball right into the group of guys.

At Right: Senior Marcus Roche anticipates the oncoming play as he has his racquet in a ready position.

Below: Seniors Cassie Shemory and Courtney Dennis display great team effort and give one another encouraging words.

The 2001 Cascade Tennis Team had an incredible season this year. While the boys had a powerful record, the girls were awarded the title of District Champs. The girls had to play hard for the number one position, losing only one game for the entire season.

ing!” Senior Kevin Bibby tries out one of his pick-up lines to impress the visiting team’s lady members. He went on to WOW them with his javelin ‘skills’. As if the shorts weren’t enough.

mates her chances of setting a new world record in the triple jump. She fell just short of the record but walked away with enough sand in her shoes to build a sandcastle with.
