The American Spirit

After the events of September 11 the CHS Publications staff would like to dedicate our yearbook to the belief in the American Spirit. We would like to recognize the individuals who gave their lives for this cause. We feel that the transitions our world, nation and society has been through in the last few months is illustrated by this photo.

I feel the suffering of millions.
And yet, when I look up at the sky,
I somehow feel that everything will change for the better,
that cruelty too will end,
that peace and tranquility will return once more.

STUDENT LIFE

Take a walk on the wild side and through Cascade's halls:

Right: The muscle women of Cascade High. Juniors Marissa Darling and Tiffany Maußer readily demonstrate the benefits of spending hours in the CHS weight room.

Below: Sophomore Leslie Hamstreet has always wanted to be a "ROCKSTAR" and we all know she has the look, but can she play?

Left: We've got spirit. Yes, we do. What would homecoming be like without the fireworks display. Just look how it lights up the faces of these die-hard fans.
Below: The Essay English class scrounges around the office for table scraps, no vait they WON the Canned Food Drive. You could say they're the "Kings of the mountain", the canned food mountain that is.

Above: Sophomores Hanna Flett, Rita Bennet, and Haley Gibbs are turning up the heat. Just look at Rita's excitement at finding her sock, but Hanna is preoccupied as she questions "Did my shirt shrink?"

Left: The junior football players contemplate what life will be like next year, when they will be at the top of the food chain. They don't look to stressed about next season.
Right: “They were dancin’ and singin’ and movin’ to the groovin’...” Senior Alisha Gann and junior Sam Cox know how to disco down.

2. Mystery meat in a tortilla
3. Mystery meat on pasta
4. Mystery meat in a pita
5. Mystery meat with hashbrowns
6. Mystery meat in a stew
7. Mystery meat on pizza
8. Mystery meat on a stick, too
9. Mystery meat a la mode
10. and CHEESE!!!

Right: Senior Daniel Rommel wanted to audition for the movie “That Thing You Do,” but decided to join pep band instead.

Below: Junior Jacob Acheson practices some acoustic guitar for Reverb, a band he helped start with seniors Abe Armstrong and Tom Cromwell.

Right: Sophomore Stacie Smith, stares on in bewilderment as the boys and girls duke it out for the Chilly Willy Week symbols.

Below: By senior year, friends have grown extremely close as seen with these six: Jake Easterly, Brent Frank, Carrie Burke, Ivette Acevedo, Nadine Bertman, and Rainie Steele.

Right: "Hello. How can I help you?" Junior Andrea Ulikitil is all smiles, serving as hall host while her class decorates during Homecoming week.

Right: Dedicated and devoted students gather around “Professor” DeFazio for some inspiration. Little do they know... you can almost see their brains melting.

Above: No! Junior Tarah Autenreith can’t possibly be in Publications class. She’s actually working! Everyone knows you don’t work in that class.

Left: “Sophomores Sarah Girard and Amy Kraus can’t can-can!” “Oh, they can can-can. They can can-can very well!”

Top 10
Leavenworth Date Disasters

1. Spilling grape juice on your white dress.
2. Your date is wearing their food instead of eating it.
3. Toilet paper is sticking out of your pants, after your visit to the bathroom.
4. Receiving a "Water Buffalo" kiss at the end of the night.
5. While eating dinner, your dad comes in and starts talking about bowel movements.
6. When your girlfriend’s dad asks during dinner if you’ve ever masticated.
8. Your boyfriend cries after watching Titanic.
9. Your girlfriend’s dad is cleaning his gun when you come to pick her up.
10. Your mom puts Hersey Kisses in your purse, telling your boyfriend these are the only kisses she will be giving you tonight.

Left: Junior Cody Hassain discretely eyes A.J. Potridge at lunch wondering how he does it. What makes all the upperclassmen ladies like him?

Below: Is senior Frankie Gomez scanning the student store for his next sugar high or for his next lady?

Above: Junior Stephanie Schaur, sophomores Amy Bowman, and Nicki Whaley find fun all around Cascade, even in the locker rooms.

What do we do?

Our mission as school board members is to educate every student in our school district to his or her fullest potential. We accomplish this mission through leadership in four areas: vision, structure, accountability, and advocacy.

With the help of community members we establish a vision for our communities schools. The vision is exemplified in our mission statement and our 3-5 year strategic plan.

School board members are also accountable to the local community for student achievement. We're responsible for setting the policies that govern district operations, overseeing the financial resources of the district, and authorizing bonds and levies.

Finally, we serve as advocates for the schools in our community and for the students in those schools.

Thank You

Everyone here at Cascade High School would like to thank all of the School Board Members for all of their help and support throughout all of the years. All of your help and dedication has made our school district a better place. It has also helped to make the community better as well. All of the policies and the financial resources has benefited not just the schools, but the community as a whole. We hope that all of you will be around to further benefit our society. Thank you once again for everything.

Cross Country

You ask the Cross Country team of 2001, “How far, how fast, and how long?” and they’ll tell you just how far, how fast, and how long they’re willing to run. The 2001 Cross Country season proved to be successful for both the boys’ and girls’ teams. Having the largest turnout ever for boys’ and girls’ teams at Cascade they possessed both depth and strength. This strength proved true at Districts where the boys placed 9th and the girls, just missing a state berth, placed 3rd. Seniors Kari Koos and Teranne McComas placed 4th and 9th respectively and Sophomore Spencer Bosket placed 25th, all individually qualifying for the state championships.

Kodiaks Earn State Berth!

The Cascade 2001 volleyball season was definitely both exciting and rewarding for the Kodiak Girls.

With a 4-8 season record, the team came out in a three-way tie with Cashmere and Quincy. The Kodiaks placed first in that pre-district tournament, and went on to beat Connell in a District Qualifier. In the District tournament the Kodiaks again showed their underdog strength, pulling out two of four wins to earn the fifth place berth to state. This was volleyball’s first trip to state in Cascade and Leavenworth High School’s history.

Head Coach Lisa Johnson, who was expecting her second child the weekend of state, commented numerous times about the team’s great leadership and willingness to work hard in getting things done.

“This is my dream team,” she often claimed.

The Kodiaks will be losing five seniors this year, four of which were starters. Nevertheless, the young team holds high hopes and expectations to return to the Sun Dome next year.

Girls Soccer

The girls had an awesome season, winning their first League Championship in school history. The ladies were also the first girl soccer team to qualify for the State Tournament. They went on a 4 game winning streak, finishing off the season with only 5 losses and 1 tie. Nine of our very own Cascade girls were selected for the All-League first and second teams and Senior Jessica Evans was honored as the CWAC North Player of the Year. The Kodiaks scored a total of 68 goals this year while only giving up 19, leading to 11 "DOMINATING" shutouts. Great job this year ladies!

A Season Wrap-Up

The wrestling program started off the season with a huge change. Lance Chipman, the new head coach, brought an intense work ethic and attitude to the team. The boys quickly discovered a new meaning to being in shape. With a strong senior crew the wrestlers continually showed improvement throughout the season.

As the 2001-2002 season progressed, the wrestlers had a few disappointing losses, but they were able to re-group for Districts, the most important match of the season. The Kodiak team had an excellent tournament, advancing all of the wrestlers to Regionals. Unfortunatley, the wrestlers found themselves in a few tough spots at Regionals and none advanced to the State match.

Although the boy's basketball team did not finish with the results they wanted, the team can be proud of the fact they continually pushed and played hard throughout this season. "This year we were focusing more on our defense," Coach Rieke remarked. "The boys really worked hard and showed much improvement."

This year's Kodiaks received the following awards. Senior Brent Frank received the Team Captain award for this season. The team also voted Most Improved to Senior Stewart Rudolph and Most Inspirational to Senior Daniel Rommel. Receiving the Most Valuable Player award for this year was Sophomore Stacy Smith. Brent Frank was also rewarded the CWAC First Team All-League award.

"Do it! Do it right! Do it right now, together!"

The 2001-2002 season for the Lady Kodiaks was most definitely one to be proud of. Starting off with an astounding 6-2 preseason record, the team already held a sense of improvement from last year. Probably the most exciting game of the season occurred when the Kodiaks hosted Cashmere. It took a full forty-four minutes, three overtimes, and several players fouling out before the Kodiaks fell 100-94. This loss was crushing, but is the perfect example of a game played with the heart and dedication demonstrated by the team throughout the season. The team loses six great Seniors this year, but has high hopes for a successful season in 2002-2003. This team will be remembered as one with perseverance and great leadership.

This was a great year for the band program. Aaron Fishburn was the first Cascade Musician to be accepted to the Washington All-State Honor Jazz Band. Zachary Miller was selected to the All-State Honor Band and also won the clarinet division at solo-ensemble competition. Also winning their divisions at solo-ensemble were Arielle Olson on Timpani and Sarah Dilley-Pipkin on Oboe. Other Senior band members include Tom Cromwell, Abe Armstrong, Kate Hanson, Christal Eshelman, Bill Duplaga, Jeremiah Cameron, and Nick Armstrong. Each of these Seniors helped to create the best band program we have ever had. Thank you.

Envirotthon

Envirotthon is a regional, state and international competition. Teams of five students work together to answer both written questions and hands-on investigations of issues in five categories: water, soil, forestry, wildlife and current environmental issues. Cascade has a winning tradition in Envirotthon, making it to the international event a number of times with a third place finish in 2000.

Lost in the crazyness of being located in the center left of the page is Cascade's very own photography crew, working hard in the dark room. With the help of the ever present photography advisor Ron Carpenter all photos, including the one to the left, were made possible by these three young ladies: Kristen Marson, Sam-I-Am Cox and Rochelle Rosenau. Say "Cheese for the camera woman.

And the last stop on our tour of page 96, picture located on the right, is our very own yearbook crew, yes the people responsible for these lovely pages, from left to right, bottom row first: Amanda Merkley, Katie Rayfield, Teranne McComas, Charlie Fritz, Susan Paul, Tarah Autenreith and Lindsey Newell. Yet again, our camera shy, aviously not ever present yearbook editor is Kari Koos.
Robert,

You're the best! You had goals that you set out to do and you've knocked everyone of them out. Remember the past and look forward to the future with good thoughts for everyone always.

Love always,
Dad and Mom

You Go Girls!

Love Margee
Dear Rainie,
Don’t cry because it’s over, smile because it happened.
From a sweet baby girl, to a nice young woman.
All our love.
Love,
Aunt Val, Hollie, and Davey

Jeremiah~
When we think of you, even though you’re grown and almost gone, you still have the same sunny and forgiving nature and all the gifts the Lord has blessed you with: health, intelligence, and strength. You can overcome anything! Congratulations, son, for all your hard work, and thank you for your thoughtfulness.
Love,
Mom and Dad

~Rainie Starr~
To be yourself in a world that is constantly trying to make you something else is the greatest accomplishment!

We love you so,
Mom and Tom, Jason and Rani, Cody, and Grandpa and Grandma Ruffle

Good Luck!

Lindsay~
You’ll never know how proud we are of the person you have become. You have brought love, laughter, and music into our lives each and every day. Now that you are graduating, whichever road you take, know that your family is always behind you, loving you and supporting you.

We love you very much,
Mom, Dad, Jessi, and Brian
Character cannot be developed in ease and quiet. Only through experience of trial and suffering can the soul be strengthened, ambition inspired, and success achieved.

~Hellen Keller

We are so very proud of you.

Love,

Mom and Dad

Courtney,
You are our big sister, and we love you (because Mom and Dad said so).

Love,

Amy and Mitchell

PS: We are flipping a coin to see who gets your room.

---

Lindsey,

Your personality sparkles, your life is full of consistency and determination, and your faith is an encouragement to us. You will be a blessing to everyone around you, and you will Excel at any goals you set. We are more proud of you than you can know.

Love,

Mom and Dad

---

Emily,

“For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.”
Psalm 91:11

Follow your heart and you’ll be there.
I love you,

Mom

Teranne,

We never knew how much joy a child could bring until God gave us you. We are proud of the choices you’ve made and are confident that you will continue walking in the Lord. He has great plans for you!

Love,

Dad, Mom, Alli, Caitlin, and Lucas
Congratulations!

From infancy to graduation, we have been very proud of you two. You have filled our lives with joy and love thus enriching both of us.

Remember John Wesley’s charge to all of us:
Do all the good you can
By all the means you can
In all the ways you can
In all the places you can
At all the times you can
To all the people you can
As long as ever you can!

Love,
Grandma and Grandpa

Congratulations Katie!

Katie Rae,
Thanks for being such an awesome daughter and sister! You fill our hearts with happiness, love, and so much pride.

May you always follow your heart and trust your abilities, knowing that we all believe in you.
We have confidence that through your determination and faith you will achieve all your dreams!

We love you,
Dad, Mom, Kimmy, and Davy

Dedications 99
Amber,

Welcome to the jungle;
when in doubt,
drive fast and take chances.

Love ya! Dan

Amber,

You’re the essence of these words:

Diving to the depths of the sea to accept challenge and standing tall, in the face of diversity, you reach out to others.

We’re proud of you!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Kyle,

Wishing you the best in your future.

Love,
Mom, Andy, Ashley, Darcy,
Logan, Kealey, Austin, Grana,
Grampa, and your Aunts,
Uncles, and cousins.

Sit here, Margaret,
Stretch out, lean back,
And rest yourself
Against this solid rock.

You will come here again,
Knowing, as you do,
With bravery of soul and will,
What choices are for you.

Refresh yourself and then walk on,
And may your path be smooth;
The best of living is ahead,
And this rock will not move.

I love you, Margaret.
Always have, always will.

Mom

Dear Tom,

I believe that God really thought Gramps and I were special when you came to be a part of our family. I was scared to death that it was too much. In school you gave us many gray hairs, but as time went on, the LORD spoke to you and you began to turn around. You were given a special talent and from the very beginning you were to bring music into our lives. I thank God for you and pray that He will continue to use you.

Love and prayers, Grandma and Grandpa
