30 Years of Being One of a Kind

“Never Settle for Second Best”

Back in the Day

30 years ago, as a rookie, Mr Douglas walked into Leavenworth High School expecting great things. Boy was he surprised! Leavenworth didn’t have the best reputation in the world, but that didn’t hold anyone back. “The girls are what changed the school” quotes Mr. Douglas as he looks back on the good old days. He started out as the girls volleyball coach and was astounded to find that the girls were so determined to win that they held a real future for this school. A few years went by and now the Cascade Kodiaks are feared in everything they do.
A Time to Discover

Girls Soccer

A Brand New Season: The season hadn’t even begun yet, and already the team was worried. As well as starting the season by playing state champs, and the regular aches and pains a number of serious injuries bogged the girls spirits down. A number of younger girls had to step up, due to the rash of injuries. With three experienced players as captains, the girls pulled it together. With 7 wins and only 9 losses the season was as good as expected. “With all things considered the season went very well.” – Coach Dillhoff

Boys Basketball

The Year in Review...

This year's Boys Basketball team was struggling for its varsity players. With only one Senior, Jason Stone, turning out for the team. They would have to have an extra push for achievement. With a season without many wins, the boys stamina is at low. Juniors Stacy Smith, John Vetter, Matt Simon, Chris Betz, and “Big Red’ Jared Arnold also try to push the team for some wins. Aaron Murphy and Steven Whitman, two Sophomores also try to prove what they can do on the Varsity team.

Jennifer

Daughter, woman, child, angel of the heart. You are the strength of the future and the beauty of past memories. You are love, light, and hope. You are life’s sweetest gift, an unbelievable and precious miracle.

All our love, Dad and Mom
We love you Jennifer!
Lauren and Colton

Keith,

God has truly blessed us with you and now he continues to bless all those you touch.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Katrina,

You’re so very thoughtful and kind. In all that you do keep others in mind. Our family’s so lucky for no one could find a daughter more precious than you. You are our joy, a source of happiness and pride. You deserve life’s brightest and best.

Love Mom and Dad

While traveling on this two lane highway of life, always remember after the red light there is always green. Travel with caution, but enjoy the ride.

Peanut,

Kendra, you have been such a bright spot in our lives. We have always thought of you as our little sunshine girl. You will be terribly missed when you strike out on your own, whatever you do, we know you will be a success. We are very proud of you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Devon

Krystie and Jamie

It’s been said that a person needs three things to be happy:
Someone to love,
Something to do, and
Something to hope for.
Thanks for giving us all three!

We are so proud of you! You are not only our daughter, sister, and friend, but our joy!

We Love You so Much,

Dad, Mom, Alissa, Michael, and Reillyanne

I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you should go. I will counsel you with My eye upon you.
Psalm 32:8

Tiffany,

You have made our lives full - full of love, full of fun, full of joy, and full of hope. We marvel at the young woman you have become. With your compassion and faith we know you will strive to make the world a better place through everything you do. We are so proud of you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Lydia,

You have come a long way, don’t stop now. In front of you lies the biggest challenge of all. With your determination nothing will stop you. Your smile and love is felt by all.

Much Love,
Papa Steve

Nathan,

We have always been amazed how someone who is such a great actor can be so genuine a person. You have been a blessing to us for 18 years. Now you will be a blessing to the world. May you choose a path that allows your full potential to be known and never regret your decisions. Continue to be yourself, the man God made you to be.

Love,
Mom and Dad
You were six weeks old and full of fun; with a blink of an eye you were suddenly one.
There were so many things we were going to do, but it flew by and you turned two.
At two you were dependent of me, but independence took over when you turned three, but four,
Four was the year that you really strived, why just look at you now, you’re already five.
Now you are ready for books and for rules, this is the year that you go to school.
The big day came, you were anxious to go, we walked you to Upper Valley Christian School, oh so slow.
As you walked inside, and waved goodbye, I felt a lump in my throat and tears stung my eyes.
Time goes so fast, it’s hard to believe, that just yesterday you were home here with me.
And tomorrow when the bus brings you home and you jump to the ground,
You’ll be wearing your cap and graduation gown. So I’m holding to these moments so hard as I can,
Because the next time I look, I’ll be seeing a man ..................

Austin, we are so proud of you. We love you and we know God our Father has a great plan for you.
Thank you for being a good son ........ Our Love, Dad, Mom, Keisha, Nora, Preston, and Grandpa T...

Isaiah 40:31
Marissa,

You are a winner! And you are so much more – I admire your compassion for others, your self-discipline, and your ability to persevere even when things aren’t going your way. I admire your penchant for trying new things and for leaving your comfort zone (remember Junior Miss). I admire your relationship with God and your pursuit for the truth, wherever this takes you. In fact, I admire everything about you. And now, as you cast off your lines and leave the comforting shores of home, just remember this: wherever you are, whoever you may become – you are loved.

Love, your Dad

Amy,

Wow! Two Diplomas down - now on to college! We are so very proud of you and all that you are. Keep up your positive energy and you sparkling smile! You will go far!

All our love, Dad, Mom, and Lisa

Keely,

Keep your smile big, your heart and mind open, and use your strengths and talents to their fullest. And always hold on to your dreams.

You are a very special young lady. You’ve made us very proud. More than the sky is big.

Mom and Dad

Stephanie,

How can we possible say “You light up our world” in thirty words or less. We love you and thank God for you. What a difference you’ve made in our lives.

Kristina- It is hard for us to believe that 18 years have come and gone. We still remember the times we would say, “Kristina, DON’T touch that!” “Kristina, DON’T stay on the telephone to long.” “Kristina, DON’T forget your curfew.” Now it’s our time to say: “Kristina,
DON’T EVER . . . ”
Try to understand everything, some things will just never make sense.
Be reluctant to show your feelings - when you’re happy give in to it! When you’re not, live with it.
Be afraid to try to make things better - you might be surprised at the results.
DON’T EVER . . .
Take the weight of the world on your shoulders - let us help with the burden.
Feel threatened by the future - take life one day at a time.
Feel guilty about the past - what’s done is done. Learn from any mistakes you might have made.
DON’T EVER . . .
Stop believing, stop dreaming your dreams! We believe in you!
Feel that you are alone - there is always somebody there for you to reach out to.
Forget that you can achieve so many things you can imagine - imagine that!

All our love and support - Mom & Dad

What is it like to be an exchange student? It can be whatever you want to imagine - from happiness with plenty of friends and fame, to depression with no friends and serious problems, of all kinds. My experience is, I think, if not always happy, at least very interesting and colorful.

When I first came to the U.S., I was in Ohio. I thought I was going to stay in one family for the rest of the year, but unfortunately (and fortunately), I got to know many families and experienced happiness, love, depression and even a conflict between two personalities. The reason why I was moving so many times was due to something always coming up that I couldn't do anything about. Like, my host father being sent to the war, or my coordinator quitting her job that caused all of the exchange students in Ohio to be moved out of state. There was nothing to be done. All that could be done was to wipe away the tears and go on with a hope that everything will be all right.

But I haven't said what it's like to be an ex-student yet . . . At first it's like blinding yourself and stepping into the unknown. You realize that you are alone. No one to help you, you just grit your teeth and go on. Once depression and stranger-ness disappear, you start to breathe and live in the normal everyday life. And just like life, there is no recipe on how to be a good exchange student, but there is a good note: "Don't worry, you'll get over it!" This can be supplied in any situation, like when your flying out of the state and you know that you'll never see those friends again.

So, how was my experience? Was it a good experience? Yes, certainly. Every experience is a good one. Even the bad ones. The problems and struggles that I had to solve, I'm glad I got into those problems. They sharpened my character and strengthened myself.

Now I know that the goal of being an ex-student isn't about learning a new language and it's not about getting to know a different culture, it's about how you cope with them, and how you handle yourself.

After all, I found something that I've never believed I could find. I found the most fun and wonderful person I've ever met. I found my Erin.
