Gwen Endrizzi, born in 1917, has been a model citizen, a friend and to many of us, the grandmother we never had.

When asked how many kids she has babysat so far, she replied, “probably over three quarters of the kids in Leavenworth.” To this day, no matter how old her kids are, they still give her a hug every time they see her.

On top of her many kids during the day, Grandma Gwen has been able to keep up her very own large family. Married to Chester Endrizzi until he passed away in 1998, they had 9 kids, 22 grandkids, and 33 great grandkids, yet, she still finds love and compassion for us all. Kids keep her young, leaving no room for pain, but plenty for love.

We asked Grandma Gwen what some of her favorite memories were and the list will never stop. Just to name a few: Kimmy Rayfield and Charlie Fritz cutting up the Barbie clothes and hair. A whole group of kids going over to the neighbors house and stealing candy while dangling their feet in the pool. Alyson Peck refusing to say “May I please be excused?” and sitting there for hours while her dad just waited her out. Conrad Larnard’s prosthetic leg stuck in the elastic of his sweats as he comes dragging it toward her. Marney McGregor stealing toys and then blaming her brother Ty.

We all remember the games and tricks we played on each other. We remember that every time our full name was pronounced, we were in big trouble. Looking back now, we learned to take care of each other and we learned plenty of discipline. The ‘Big Rock’ doesn’t look so big any more. And there are probably rolled up socks still out behind were the trampoline used to be. These were the best of times. All of us are her grandkids and she is our Grandma. Thank you, Grandma Gwen, for taking a town full of “rotten little monsters”, and turning us into a family.

Ecclesiastes 12:1
Proverbs 3:5-6

Lexie Lane,
We are proud of the person you have become. You have brought joy into our lives from the first day of school to the very last.
All of our love,
Mom, Dad, and Spencer

Jessica Elise Bland,
From tutus, to formals, to athletic uniforms, to blue jeans... We are so proud of you and love you very much... Dad, Mom and Erica

I do not ask to walk smooth paths
Nor bear an easy load.
I pray for strength and fortitude
To climb the rock-strewn road.
Give me such courage I can scale
The hardest peaks alone,
And transform every stumbling block
Into a stepping stone.
Amy,

You have been such a joy! We are so proud of you and love you so very much. It seems like only yesterday you were our tiny ballerina writing songs in the back seat on every car trip and now you’re all grown up. As you head towards college and the rest of your life, remember someone once said, “Those who achieve success are those who take a dream and make it come true” go out there and make every dream come true.

Congradulations, we love you.

aka. “Sweetie”
We are so proud of you! As you move onto this next phase of life, treat it as you would a track meet and success will follow.
1. Never look back.
2. Keep your eyes focused on your goal.
3. Remember where your strength comes from.
Philippians 4:13
We love you always, Mom, Tae, Tye and Maddyn

Hayley May,
“Practice random acts of kindness and senseless acts of beauty!”

We were truely blessed the day you were born and we love you very much!
Dad, Mom and Megan

To our beautiful daughter Whitney,

We are so proud of you.
“Alaka iate Oe, Sunga.”
‘Keep your feet on the ground but keep reaching for the stars.’
Love, Mom and Dad

Allison Paige

You have been a delight to watch grow into the beautiful woman you are now. The way you live life to the fullest will be greatly missed by us when you move out into the world. You are special and we love you forever.
- Proudly, Dad and Mom
