WHERE EVERYONE KNOWS OUR NAME

2017

Cascade High School
"The best view comes after the most difficult climb."
Dear Cascade,
We are proud to announce that our yearbook theme is, "Where Everyone Knows Our Name." We believe this theme is fitting for our high school because Cascade is a place where students are all free to express their ideas, their personalities, their interests, and their knowledge with no judgment. We can see that everyone has an identity: every student, every club, every sport. Each deserves to be called by name. Throughout the yearbook, we’ve given descriptions or titles to sports and activities, and have intentionally chosen words that we think fit best with each. We believe these words show the true commitment of each individual and group. You are the real pride of our school! We see how unique you all are. As a small, close-knit community, we know that everyone else can see it too. We are proud to acknowledge that Cascade is one of the few places where everyone truly knows each other's names.
Sincerely,
Your 2017 yearbook editors,
Lizeth Vizcaino
Abigail Brown

Olivia Grace Stoddard

Eighteen years ago, our Demi Moore sound alike came screaming into the world. Honestly, we could hear but good as she flew down the birth canal. And, our calm, tiny clan of 3 become an oh-so-full party of 4. Full of deliciously husky chitter-chatter and ridiculously willful, big lunged rantings. Full of wildly funny childhood antics and one or two (thousand) time outs. Full of a flat-out inspiring, NEVER QUIT commitment to her educational and athletic pursuits and an undeniable physical beauty inherited from her devoted Daddy. Full of sweet, little feather kisses for her Mama’s cheek and an unwavering compassion for those lucky enough to hold a place in her gorgeous, open heart. Olivia Grace Stoddard; AKA: Liv, Livie, Livie-Lou, Ya-Ya, Ya, O. Our Liv knows how to LIVE.

It has been a blessing to be your parent for these first 18 years. I am so very proud of you and the man you have become, and for all you are and all God has in store for you. May you never forget to put GOD first. I love you more than words can tell.

We are so proud of your hard work, your diligence, your strong convictions, and your compassionate heart. Thank you for bringing so much joy, happiness and laughter to our lives. We are excited to see where God will lead you. Continue to keep Him #1.

We love you,
Mom, Dad, Taylor and Zoe

Ally, We are so incredibly proud of you and the amazing, beautiful, young lady you have become. You can truly do anything you set your mind to and have proven that for 18 years. :-) Your family is watching proudly. We are always here for you.

Basketball is an expression of life. A single sometimes glittering thread that reflects the whole. Like life, basketball is messy and unpredictable but also rewarding and satisfying. It has its way with you no matter how hard you try to control it. Be strong, humble and steadfast, thankful, optimistic, and loving. The trick is to experience each moment with a clear mind and an open heart. When you do that the game - and life - will take care of itself.

We love you,
Dad, Mom & Sierra
